Eighteen hundred and seventy-six is the Centennial y+ar. It is also the year in which an Opposition House of Representatives, the first since the war. will be in power at Washington ; and the year of the twenty-third election of a President of the United States All of these events are sure to be of great interest and importance, especia ly the two latter; and all of them and everything connected with them will be tully and freshly reported and expounded in THE SUN.

THE WEEKLY SUN.

NEW YORK.

The Opposition House of Representatives, taking up the line of inquiry opened years ago by THE SUN, will sternly and diligently investigate the corruptions and misdeeds of GRANT'S a ministration; and will, it is to be bound, lay the foundation for a ne* and better period in our na tional history. Of all this THE SUS will contain complete and accurate accounts. furnishing its readers with early and trustworthy information upon these absorbing topics. The twenty-third Presidential election, with the preparations for it, will be memorable as deciding up in GRANT's aspirations for a third term of power and plunder, and still more as deciding who shall be the candidate of the party of Reform, and as electing that candidate. Concerning all these subjects, hose who read THE SUN will have the Any person owing us will please constant means of being thor ughly well informed. The WEEKLY 'UN. which bas attained a circulation of over eight thousand copies already has its readers in every State and Territory, and we trust that the year 1876 will see their num ers doubled. It will continue to be a thorough news paper. All the general news of the day will be OATS OR MONEY found in it. condensed when unimportant, at full length when ot moment; and always. we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner. It is our aim to make the WEEKLY SUN the best family newspaper in the world, and we shall continue to give in its columns a large amount of miscellaneous reading, such as stories, tales, poems scien ific intelligence and agricultural information, for which we are not able to make room in our daily edition. The agricultural department especially is one of its prominent featu es. The ta-hions are also regular y reported in its c lumns; and so are the markets of every
