In the course of it the Holy Father that to the United States during the same made the following remarks on the question period showed a great decrease. During 18of infallibility:—"Among the different subjects which you will have to treat there is New York was 149,762. In 1873 the numone which seems to me of special importance, and that is to bring to nothing the efforts crease during the past year of 118,526. As that are being made to falsify the idea of the greatness and growth of the United Pontifical Infallibility. Of all these efforts States depend upon emigration, and as the Pontifical Infallibility. Of all these efforts that which seems the fullest of malice consists in attributing to the infallibility of the Pope the right of deposing sovereigns and of absolving subjects from their allegiance.— Without doubt this right has sometimes been exercised by the Popes in their supreme struggles, but it never had anything in company with their infallibility and its constitution. States depend upon emigration, and as the falling off is in the two principal sources of supply, Germany and Great Britain, some anxiety is felt in the States at this decrease. What makes it more remarkable is that this falling off has been going on steadily, month by month. The causes to which it is attributed are:—"The National policy of the United States, the depression of husiness, the mon with their infallibility, and its source was not infallibility, but in the Pontifical disasters that have befallen the agricultural authority.
