When I reached Caxton, it was the very same village to which I had gone in my dream. I went to the same house, was met and let in by the same woman, and found my brother dead, and his widow there. The other day a New York lady went to pay her respects to one of the latest arrivals on the list of babyhood, when the following colloquy took place between her and the little four year old sister of the new comer : "I have come for that baby now," said the lady. "You can't have it," was the reply. "I must; I came over on purpose," urged the visitor.
