BY MARY B. DODGE.

Down dripping in mellow shadows As sweet as the breath of mu-k. You are thinking of me, my darling; And your spirit conquers space Soft calling me here to meet you-Yes, here in our trysting place; A place where a crystal fountain

Plays silently, pure and free; Unseen by the gaze of others, Just flowing for you and me. You are thinking of me, my darling Again and over 'tis sung By the song of the weird cicada

Low hidden the grass among, Told over and o'er by the freshness Of the twilight, sweet with dew, And told by the fire-flies glances That speak to the stars of you. You are thinking of me, my darling:
And I need no light to tell
By its breath of balm the secret

That my bosom knows so well!-For ever a voice repeats it Like waves of the plashing sea, And I dream with the dream unbroken My love is thinking of me.

cures "athousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.
