Dying Summer.

On tawny hills in faded splendor drest,
Of rusty purple and of tarnished gold,
Now like some eastern monarch sad and old,
The discrowned summer lies down to rest!
A mournful mist hangs o'er the mellow plain,
O'er watery meads that slide down pine-clad heights,
And wine-red woods where song no more delights;
But only wounded birds cry out in pain.
A pallid glory lingers in the sky,
Faint scents of wilding flowers float in the air,
All nature's voices murmur in despair—
"Was summer crowned so late—so soon to die?"
But with a royal smile, she whispers, "Cease,
If life is joy and triumph, death is peace!"

M. BETHAM-EDWARDS.

—Sunday Magazine.

A YOUNG MAN WHO WANTS ADVICE.—It was the second time he had accompanied the young lady home from one of those little social parties which are gotten up to bring fond hearts a step nearer to each other.

When they reached the gate she asked him if he wouldn't come in. He said he would, and he followed her into the house. "It was a calm, still night," and the hour was so late that he had no fear of seeing the old folks. Sarah took his hat, told him to sit down, and she left the room to lay off her things. She was hardly gone before her mother came in, smiled sweetly, and drooping down beside the young man she said:

"I always did say that if a poor but respectable young man fell in love with Sarah he should have my consent. Some mothers would sacrifice their daughter's happiness for riches, but I am not one of that class."

The young man gave a start of alarm. He didn't know whether he liked Sarah or not, and he hadn't dreamed of such a thing as marriage.

"She has acknowledged to me that she loves you," continued the mother, "and whatever is for her happiness is for mine."

The young man gave two starts of alarm this time, and he felt his cheeks grow pale.

"I—I havent——" he stammered, when she said:

"Oh, never mind. I know you haven't much money, but of course you'll live with me. We'll take in borders, and I'll risk but that we'll get along all right."

It was a bad situation. He hadn't even looked love at Sarah, and he felt that he ought to undeceive the mother.

"I hadn't no idea of—of——" he stammered, when she held up her hands and said:

"I know you hadn't, but it's all right. With your wages and what the boarders bring in we shall get along as snug as bugs in a rug."

"But, madam, but—but——"

"All I ask is that you be good to her," interrupted the mother. "Sarah has a tender heart and a loving nature, and if you should be cross and ugly it would break her down within a week."

The young man's eyes stood out like cocoanuts in a show window, and he rose up and tried to say something. He said:

"Great heavens? madam. I can't permit——"

"Never mind about the thanks." She interrupted. "I don't believe in long courtships myself, and let me suggest an early day for the marriage. The 11th of September is my birthday, and it would be nice for you to be married on that day."

"But—but—but——" he gasped.

"There, there, I don't expect any speech in reply," she laughed. "You and Sarah fix it up to-night, and I'll advertise for twelve boarders right away. I'll try and be a model mother-in-law. I believe I am good tempered and kind hearted, though I did once follow a man two hundred miles and shoot the top of his head off for agreeing to marry Sarah and then jumping the country!"

She patted him on the head and sailed out, and now the young man wants advice. He wants to know whether he had better get in the way of a locomotive or slide off the wharf.

USEFUL INFORMATION.—One thousand laths will cover seventy yards of surface and eleven pounds of nails will put them on.

A cord of stone, three bushels or lime and a cubic yard of sand will lay one hundred cubic feet of wall.

Eight bushels of good lime, sixteen bushels of sand, and one bushel of hair, will make enough good mortar to plaster one hundred square yards.

One thousand shingles, laid four inches to the weather, will cover one hundred square feet of surface, and five pounds of shingle nails will fasten them on.

One fifth more siding and flooring is needed than the number of square feet of surface which is to be covered, because of the lap in the siding and the matching of the floor.

Five courses of brick will lay one foot in height on a chimney; six bricks in a course will make a flue four inches wide and twelve inches long, and eight bricks in a course will make a flue eight inches wide and sixteen inches long.

A USEFUL TABLE.—To aid farmers in arriving at accuracy in ascertaining the amount of lands in different fields under cultivation, the following table is given by an agricultural contemporary.

5 yards wide by 968 long contains 1 acre.
10 yards wide by 484 long contains 1 acre.
50 yards wide by 242 long contains 1 acre.
40 yards wide by 121 long contains 1 acre.
60 feet wide by 726 long contains 1 acre.
110 feet wide by 396 long contains 1 acre.
210 feet wide by 198 long contains 1 acre.

SALT WATER FOR THE EYES.—Many persons are suffering gain from weakness of the eyes. This, sometimes proceeds from local inflammation, sometimes from other causes. Several persons who have thus been afflicted inform us that they save derived almost immediate, and in home cases, permanent relief from the application of salt water as a bath; and when the pain has been aggravated, from a compress saturated with salt water laid on the eyes, and renewed at frequent intervals. Opening the eyes and submerging them in clean salt water has been found beneficial to those whose eyesight begins to fail.

A Nashua man sang, "Dont be angry with me darling," while he larruped his wife with a stirrup strap But she got the bulge on him, and stood on his stomach, while she strewed his hyperion curls about the kitchen floor, and warbled while she twined her lily fingers in his auburn locks, "Darling you are growing bald."

A kind-hearted, peace loving Baltimore man painted his front steps twenty-three times trying to please his wife, and then she decided that the first color was the best.

He that has energy enough to root out a vice should go a little further, and plant a virtue there.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."

Sold by all Druggists, and Dealers in Medicines.

Price One Dollar.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
