BY F. P. SHARP. MR. EDITOR,-By looking at the left hand upper corner of second page of last SENTINEL, we can see several things, one of which is that you have plenty of spare space now in the SENTINEL, and next a manifest intention of running the 12th of July into the middle Public Meeting for Literary Exercises—Third of S-ptember.

There are many persons all over this country to whom this parading of 12th July celebrations in the columns of the newspapers is the Garleton Sentinel extremely offensive. I am one of them; it makes my blood boil; it is an injury to me and many others, to the whole country in point of fact; and, Mr. Editor, we all know you are, or wish to be, a fair man, and must hate anything one sided when it is fairly run into Brick Building, up stairs. the ground: you must welcome to the hosnitable SENTINEL THE OTHER SIDE of the 12th of July basiness; and, Mr. Editor, if learning or good taste, or of can make quite a lively little discussion, which will be much more interesting than those platitudes so common in the SENTINEL about Mr. Wm. Curry, W. M., and how we halted when we met Mr. Edward Gillmore, Miller, the Brethren, Mr. William Love, the Queen and Alexander Gillmore, the Royal annum, postage paid. What I would like to show through the columns of the SENTINEL is, that all this vaporing is absurd, unchristian, unmanly, cruel unfeeling, cowardly; bad in taste, bad in policy, bad in its effects upon the growth of our young Dominion, which requires united action of all its inhabitants, good will, harmony, love, to build up its institutions. All old sores and feuds should be left in the old world, where they originated; they have nothing to do with this country. If any man or men come here with a sore or feud which he must plant and nourish and propa gate, then let the Dominion Government from. No money could be spent for any other tion noticeable. 1st—There are 80 fe- notwithstanding the depressed state of
