He kept fourteen mills going, and had many houses in England and elsewhere which had charge of the work of operatives in those places. The wholesale and retail establishments combined have sold as high as $50,000,000 in one year. At present they run in the neighborhood of $33,000,000 per aunum. During his business career of fifty years Mr. Stewart was a constant buyer of real estate in New York, his holdings of real property being only surpassed by those of the Astor family.
