The Bore. BY JOHN G. SAXE.

Again I hear the creaking step He's rapping at the door ; Too well I know the boding sound That ushers in the bore. I do not tremble when I meet The stoutest of my foes,

But heaven defend me from the friend

Who comes but never goes. He drops into my easy chair, And asks about the news; He peers into my manuscript, And gives his candid views; He tells me where he likes the line, And where he's forced to grieve;

He takes the strangest liberties-

But never takes his leave. He reads my daily papers through Before I've seen a word; He scans the lyric that I wrote And thinks it quite absurd; He calmly smokes my last eigar, And calmly asks for more; He opens everything he sees— Except the entry door.

He talks about his fragile health. And tells me of his pains; He suffers from a score of ills Of which he ne'er complains; And how he struggled once with death To keep the fiend at bay;

On themes like those away he goes-But never goes away! He tells me of the carping words Some shallow critic wrote, And every precious paragraph Familiarly can quote.
He thinks the writer did me wrong,

He'd like to run him through!
He says a thousand pleasant things—
But never says "Adieu!" When e'er he comes—that dreadful man Disguise it as I may, I know that like an autumn rain,

He'll last throughout the day. In vain I speak of urgent tasks, In vain I scowl and pout; frown is no extinguisher— It does not put him out! I mean to take the knocker off

Put crape upon the door; Or hint to John that I am gone To stay a month or more; I do not tremble when I meet The stoutest of my foes;
But heaven defend me from the friend Who never, never goes!

CHICKEN ON THE BRAIN.—There is a certain individual by the name of James Stewart, whom the community, by common consent, have dubbed Commodore Stewart. He is an eccentric individual, and has a weakness for chickens. On one occasion, being found near a poultry yard under suspicious circumstances, he was interrograted rather sharply by the owner of the premises as follows:-"Well, Jim what are you doing here?"

"Oh. nuffin', nuffin'! Jes' walkin' "What do you want with my chick-

THE WEEKLY SUN.

NEW YORK.

Eighte-n hundred and seventy-six is the Cen-tennial year. It is also the year in which an Opposition House of Representatives, the first since the war, will be in power at Washington; and the year of the twenty-third election of a President of the United States. All of these events are sure to be of great interest and importance, especia ly the two latter; and all of them and everything connected with them will be fully and freshly reported and expounded in The Sun.

The Opposition House of Representatives, taking up the line of inquiry opened years ago by THE SUN, will sternly and diligently investigate the corruptions and misdeeds of GRANT'S a iministration; and will, it is to be hoped, lay the foundation for a new and better period in our national history. Of all this THE SUN will contain complete and accurate accounts, furnishing its readers with early and trustworthy information upon these absorbing topics.

The twenty-third Presidential election, with the preparations for it, will be memorable as deciding upon GRANT's aspirations for a third term of power and plunder, and still more as deciding who shall be the candidate of the party of Reform, and as electing that candidate. Concerning all these subjects, those who read THE SUN will have the constant means of being thoroughly well informed. The WEEKLY SUN, which has attained a circulation of over eight thousand copies, already has its readers in every State and Territory, and we trust that the year 1876 will see their num ers doubled. It will continue to be a thorough news paper. All the general news of the day will be found in it. condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment; and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive

It is our aim to make the WEEKLY Sun the best family newspaper in the world, and we shall con-tinue to give in its columns a large amount of miscellaneous reading, such as stories, tales, poems, scientific intelligence and agricultural information, for which we are not able to make room in our daily edition. The agricultural department especially is one of its prominent features. The fashions are also regular y reported in its columns; and so are the markets of every which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
