MAIN STREET. rs South of B. Lynch's New Store. WHERE his stock of DRUGS, PATENT MEDICINES, HORSE MEDICINES, STATIONERY, BOOKS, and FANCY GOODS, will be found equal in quality and as low in price as any in the market.

Dr. C. P Connell, WOODSTOCK, N. B.

Office and Residence, next to Honorable

CENTRAL OFFICE : RESIDENCE-Mr. Archibald Plummer's, Jacksontown Road.

DR. F. A. NEVERS, Physician and Surgeon 6m Hartland, Carleton Co., N. B. pl RANDOLPH K. JONES,

WOODSTOCK, N. B.

APPLEBY & COURSER. BARRISTERS and ATTORNEYS - AT - LAW

Conveyancers, Notaries, &c., WOODSTOCK, N. B. JOHN B. TRAFTON

NOTARY PUBLIC, INSURANCE AGENT, &c.

SAMUEL J. BAKER, ATTORNEY - AT - LAW

ATTORNEY & BARRISTER, AGENT FOR FIRST-CLASS ENGLISH & AMERICAN Insurance Companies,

FULL DEPOSITS AT OTTAWA. Estate Agent, OFFICE,-In Post Office, Woodstock.

WOODSTOCK, N. B.,

ISSUES DRAFTS on St. John, Boston, and New York. Makes TELEGRAPHIC TRANSFERS Particular attention given to buying and ling United States Currency.
Woodstock, March 9, 1872.—10

INDIANTOWN, ST. JOHN, Office in Hamm's Building.

THE subscriber in returning thanks to his numerous patrons for past favors, begs to remind them and the public that he is still prepared with greatly increased accommodations. to prosecute his business as Surveyor of Lumber. Parties entrusting Lumber to his care may be assured that his best and personal attention will be given to further their interests.

Lumber will be received, and advances made thereon, at Spring Hill, when desired.

1v-18

THE SUSSEX

OFFICE, FACTORY AND WAREROOMS:

SUSSEX; N. B. Selling Agency in St. John, N. B., MESSRS. WARWICK & CO., No. 8, North Wharf.

LONG'S HOTEL,

FREDERICTON, N. B.

WILLIAM R. NEWCOMB,

shortest notice for any point .

MONTREAL, CANADA AS, for twenty years, been the favorite resort of the general travelling Public in the United States, as well as in Canada, when visiting Montreal on business or pleasure. It is centrally located on McGill street, the great thoroughfare and commercial centre of the city, commanding a magnificent view of the River St. Lawrence, the Victoria Bridge on the left, and a full view of Victoria Square and Mount Royal on the right. Victoria Bridge on the left, and a full view of Victoria Square and Mount Royal on the right.

The Hotel is furnished throughout in a superior manner, and everything arranged with a view to the comfort of guests.

As one of the largest hotels in the Dominion, having ample accommodation for 500 guests, while kept in first-class style, the moderate snm of $1.50 will be charged as heretofore.

The travelling community will consult their own interests by remembering the Albion Hotel, when visiting Montreal.

DECKER, STEARNS & MURRAY.

ing places of amusement and public buildings, has been thoroughly re-modelled, refurnished and enlarged, and is now open to the public.— Billiard Rooms, Bath Rooms, Barber Shop, Telegraph Office, and Gents' Furnishing Goods Store, in connection with the house.

Permanent and Transient Boarders accommodated on reasonable terms.

E. CRAM, Proprietor.

August 15, 1872-tf-33 W. SKILLEN,

General Insurance Agent, LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Commission Merchant. REPRESENTING some of the best Companies in the Dominion in Fire, Life, Accident and Guarantee, covering a Capital of over $8,000,-

Business solicited.

N. B. Parties holding Policies from the Clinton Mutual, would do well to call on me and have their old Policies changed for new ones. Woodstock, Feb. 24, 1876 .-

A Rare Chance.

JOHN MOORE, Canterbury. Jan. 27th, 1876,-tf-5

SAMUEL & JAMES WATTS,

Our Queen and Constitution. VI

Poetry.

The Orator's Reward*.

BY EDMUND P. DOLE.

[From the Maine Farmer.]

The royal car, the signet ring,

The seat next mine, a cousin's claim."

A smile of pride was on his face.

That gives the poet magic skill,

To bend the passions to his will.

The fatal wine, that damning thing,

serpent's bite, an adder's sting,

A realm in utter ruin lies;

ong rule the earth from sun to sun,

The followers of the son of Jove,

The heroes of a hundred wars.

Must pay their tribute unto Love,

Co-equal with the Deity.

For Venus triumphs over Mars.

As thou art ruled by her, thy queen.

Yet what is woman's rule? A breath,

Truth reigns throughout all eternity,

Tis truth alone that binds our God;

He cannot, will not, dare not lie.

Tis truth alone that forms His word,

They gazed in wonder at the youth.

Awe-struck from king to seneschal.

With one accord they shouted, "Truth

Yes, Truth is mightiest of them all!"

"Though half I have, it shall be thine;

thousand choirs thy praise shall sing,

Thy state from hence is next to mine."

'I ask not rank, nor fame, nor lands,"
The patriotic Jew replied;

Her harps unstrung, her children weep To bear the Gentiles' scorn and hate.

Fulfil, O sire, thy promise sworn, And Judah's bards the praise shall sing

Be thou thy people's chief," he said, "For Zion's altars are restored;

Shall learn to trust the Persian's word.

I only ask that at thy hands

'My native city lies a heap,

Justice and truth be not denied.

Her holy shrines are desolate:

Rebuild the city, mighty king,

Till break of the eternal morn."

Her children home in triumph led

He nobly kept his promised word; Restored the Jewish Diadem,

Rebuilt the temple of the Lord.

Who won the manly eloquence

Courage more precious is than gold

And Truth's the only sure defence

All honor to that heathen king!

All honor to the true and bold

And gives it all its sanctity."

Unchanged by Life, unchanged by Death,

To conquered and to conqueror.

The curse alike of rich and poor.

The orator the spell divine

His theme was wine; the glorious wine

WOODSTOCK, N. B., SATURDAY, MAY 6, 1876.

Editors & Proprietors.

VOL. XXVIII.—NO. 19.

EXCHANGE HOTEL,

A FIRST-CLASS HOTEL in all Departments. A Good Stable in Connection.

(Near the Steamboat Landing)

Queen Street, - - Woodstock, N. B.

R. DONALDSON, Proprietor.

GIBSON HOUSE. THE subscribers wish to inform their numerous friends and customers that they have removed to the CALDWELL HOUSE, lately kept by Mr. O. R. Whitney, where they will be pleased to wait on all who may favor them with a call. A Good Stable, and a careful hostler always

ALEX. GIBSON, JOHN C. GIBSON, Woodstock, October 1, 1874.—19 QUEEN HOTEL,

QUEEN STREET, - - FREDERICTON. J. P. BURNHAM, Proprietor. (Formerly of "Snell House," Houlton, Me.) Livery Stable in connection with the House Sept. 1, 1874-1y-36

Temperance Hotel, ST. GEORGE STREET, Annapolis Royal M. POTTER, - - Proprietor.

THE above Hotel is pleasantly situated, one door east of St. Luke's Church, and five minutes' walk from Steamboat Wharf, Railway Sta-

ALFRED LETTS,

Teacher of Piano and Organ. TERMS, $7.00 Per Quarter. Woodstock, March 16, 1876-3mp-12

Harness! Harness! HARNESS !

F you want a HEAVY TEAM HARNESS go If you want any Harness, Collars, Whips, Brushes, Snaps, &c., or anything usually found in a first-class Harness Shop, cheaper than can be bought in the County, go to R. S. STARRETT'S, as he is determined to sell his present large stock

If you want to save trouble and expense call R. S. STARRETT. Woodstock, January 12, 1876

JOHN LOANE

CARRIAGES, SLEIGHS, PUNGS, SIDE- Money, Valuables, Packages and Freight Boot & Shoe Company,

GIES, SINGLE and DOUBLE SEAT CONCORD WAGONS, SULKIES, EXPRESS WAGONS; in fact Wagons of every description made, and made

Office after 8 o'clock, a. m.

G. W. VANWART, PAINTING & REPAIRING punctually attend-A first-class Trimmer and Blacksmith always on

Nothing but the best Western Timber used, none but first-class Mechanics employed, and consequently All Work done at this Establishment Warranted.

Parties in want of any of the above description of Wagons or Buggies, would do well to call and examine for themselves, when they cannot fail to Having in his employ a first-class Horseshoer they are prepared to do work of this description in a workman-like manner. Cash paid for second growth Ash and Basswood JOHN LOANE.

Woodstock, Jan. 26, 1872.—tf-3

Livery, Hack & Boarding STABLE,

Connell Street, Rear American House, 1st Stable. WOODSTOCK, N. B. January 22, 1875-4

Liverpool & London & Globe. North British and Mercantile. Northern Assurance of London. Royal Canadian of Montreal. Full Deposits at Ottawa. Prompt and liberal Detached Dwellings and Churches taken for a term of years on particularly favorable terms.

OFFICE: IN POST OFFICE. JOHN C. WINSLOW, Attorney-at-Law, Notary Public, &c. Woodstock, January 1, 1875

Fire Insurance Companies

General Agent for New Brunswick. IMPERIAL," of London, Established 1803. ÆTNA," of Hartford, HARTFORD," of Hartford, Established 1810.

Rates moderate, and losses promptly paid.— Dwelling Houses Insured on specially favorable JOHN T. ALLAN, Agent.

Woodstock, July, 1869, UNION MUTUAL

THE subscriber is Agent for this Old Established Company, and is prepared to receive appli-cations for new Policies, and take payments for Woodstock, January 1, 1875.

PHOTOGRAPHIC Removal!

W. T. Baird's Drug Store,

Corner King and Main Streets, where he has fitted up a Frst-class Gallery, and intends his work to be the same. Special attention paid to COPYING and EN-LARGING. All are invited to call and see SPECIMENS and learn prices.

JOHN H. HALL. Woodstook, Sept. 5, 1873.-36

W. D. CAMBER. DENTIST.

OFFICE,-Connell's Brick Building,

Queen Street, Woodstock, W. A. BALLOCH,

Dentist.

Office-Over Col. W. T. Baird's Drug Sto 23 Corner Main and King Streets.

J. T. FLETCHER, RESIDENCE, WATERVILLE.

HAVING a thorough practical knowledge of Constructive Architecture in all its details, I am prepared to furnish Plans, Specifications, Bills of Items and Estimates for all kinds of Buildings, either public or private, on reasonable terms. A specialty made of first-class work.

The first of far-famed eloquence, A paragon of manly grace, Began with easy confidence; A smile of pride was on his face

Hon. S: B. Appleby, Woodstock.
Lieut. Col. C. R. Upton, Florenceville.
G. W. Boyer, Esq., Victoria Corner.
D. W. Smith, Jacksonville. Waterville, May 11, 1875-1y-20

Harness Shop! Doors Below Baker & McCormac's Shoe Shop,

HAVING REMOVED from my old stand, in front of American House, I take this opportunity to thank my customers, one and all, for their past patronage, and solicit a continuance of the same. Having an enlarged Shop and Stock I feel confident I shall be able to accommodate at short notice. Constantly on hand: Harnesses of all kinds, Harness Mountings, Whips, Bells, Horse Blankets, Curry Combs, Cards, Interfering Rolls and Straps, and everything usually found in a first-class Harness Shop.

R. CLUFF, Harness Maker. Woodstock Nov. 10 1871 .- 45

Removal:

Opposite Side of the Street, ance of the same. He has on hand time I will ask them, and by so doing you will Light & Heavy Harness OF EVERY DESCRIPTION, Collars, Whips, Bells, &c., &c.

The Eastern Express Company WILL FORWARD DAILY, Connell Street, Woodstock, N. B. IN charge of their Special Messenger, via N. B. & C. and E. & N. A. Railway, > Woodstock, Feb. 2, 1672 .-- 5 CHANGE OF TIME!

WINTER ARRANGEMENT. AROOSTOOK

also Eastport.

Leave Woodstock every Tuesday and Friday, at 9 a. m., for Bangor, Portland and Boston, and also Eastport.

Leave Boston and Portland every Monday and Thursday at 5 p. m.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES: 23 Exchange Street, 20 Market Square, Depot Building,

Fort Fairfield R. P. BROWN. G. C. CLARK. JOHN McLAUCHLAN, Woodstock, December 1, 1875.

THESE INSTRUMENTS have always given universal satisfaction, both as regards style, workmanship, sweetness of tone and lasting qualities, and are warranted for as many years as any other Organs in the market, and are sold for less money; and I will sell cheaper now than ever, to keep pace with the times.

WANTED, 2,000 bushels GOOD OATS, and continued Robert, 2 tons PRIME BUTTER, in exchange for Organs dreary it is home.

W. LEONARD ALTERTON. Woodstock, Dec. 17, 1875 .- 51

Highest market prices paid.

THE subscriber has in Store a large assortment

BUTTER CROCKS. JARS, JUGS and DISHES of almost every description.

All of which will be sold cheap for cash or Country Produce. Thanks to the many friends for their liberal swered promptly: patronage, hoping for a continuation of the same.
SAMUEL L. CHURCHILL. Woodstock, April 14, 1876

getting old, too, sir, and trotting up and ing, so that he hoped to welcome Robert Items foreign & Yould down stairs isn't so easy as it was twenty in the sitting-room. How he shrank are not plenty here, as you know." "I've a niece, sir, would come to me, though she's never lived out."

The richest place in the East my leg, will you?" Was crowded with a noble throng Ten thousand lords had graced that feast, Where wit and sparkling beauty shone. val of the niece. "High on a throne of royal state,"
The lord of many a conquered land, from the railway station, and, standing bachelor past sixty." The mighty Persian monarch sate, in the wide, dreary-looking kitchen, look- "I am glad you have been well cared His lovely queen at his left hand Three princes bowed before the throne, little crinkey ringlets on her forehead look very fine here." Next to their sovereign in degree; Soft lights o'er Persia's noblest shone, As Persia's noblest bent the knee. Bring forth the champions," cried the king; "The wisest wins a golden chain, > Jane hesitated. you do. My name is Margaret. Has singing a song of praise. Mr. Franklin had his supper ?"

"Not yet. There's his dinner, you ee, scarcely tasted." blue plate with food heaped upon it, the jewelry to adorn it. two-pronged fork and half-soiled napkin, and did not wonder at the neglected

"Show me where the things are, and Daisy my wife?" I will get the supper," she said.

Jane led her from closet to closet.— In one was a set of gilt-edged china, some fine table linen, table silver and And troubles the brain and souls of men,

Its vapor vanishes ere long. "Those were bought thirty years ago," And victor Reason rules again whispered Jane, "when Mr. Franklin expected to be married. She died, and did these things come from?" But reason bows before the sway they have never been used." Of kings, and trembles at their nod, What's law,' they asked, 'if not our way The sword's the law we hold from God.'

'Tis drawn, and nations wail it's stroke, 'Tis sheathed, one word, 'Rebuild,' is spoke and went again to the kitchen. Behold how prostrate cities rise." to hold a book in his aching hands, was you. Long live, O king!" the third begun, "And live the fairest woman seen;

> when Margaret tapped at the door. " Come in !"

now sitting in a deep arm-chair, musing, air surrounding her. said, drawing a little table near the arm- have made me very happy." chair, and covering it with a white cloth. a delicate cup full of fragrant tea.

"You must not scold if I have anything wrong, said a clear, sweet voice "because Aunt Jane is too busy to look after me. I cleaned the forks and spoons, Ask what thou wilt," thus spoke the king, for silver gets dreadfully black"—then more tenderly as she marked the painful effort to move the tortured fingers-'Let me cut the chicken, sir."

> ed himself to be fed, finding appetite as so unfamiliar to his lonely life. "Jane," Margaret said, setting down the tray in the kitchen again, "I don't > wonder he is sick. No carpet, no curtains, that great hearse of a bed, and nothing pretty near him." "It's all clean," said Jane. "Clean as wax, but oh! so doleful, Can't we fix up a cozy room?" "There are rooms enough. Six > that floor," said Jane, "and none used but the one Mr. Franklin's in, and Mr. Robert's, the little one next to it. "Well, we'll see to-morrow. Can I have a man to send to town if I want

"There's men enough. sleep down here to-night, or in one of the rooms up-stairs? "Down here, in the room next to

"It's all ready. I'll go up now and make Mr. Franklin comfortable for the *The facts upon which the above is founded, are related in the Apocrypha, Esdras iii, 5, and also "Comfortable!" Margaret said, shiv

But the next morning, after putting a tempting breakfast before the invalid Margaret selected the vacant bedroom she meant to beautify for his use. was large, with four windows, light and cheerful, and well suited to her purpose "I am real sorry about Uncle James." In the intervales of directing Jane, sending the man to town with her orders. and giving her own dainty touch to everyand the lady who listened drew her mer- thing, Margaret visited the invalid, readry, saucy face into dolorous puckers to ling to him, chatting to him and making the long hours fly by. It was late in

"Because, you see," continued Robert. the afternoon when she came in to say he fancies because you have twenty "Mr. Franklin, the room across the thousand dollars that you are a fine lady, hall has a southerly exposure, and I affected and useless, not the wife for a think you will find it more comfortable than this one. Will you try to get there

"I'm very well here." "But you will be better there. Please

So he yielded, but once fairly in the "Does-does he know we are mar- room, he could not repress a cry of amazement. Softly carpeted, white cur-"I have not dared to tell him. Cow- tained, a bright fire crackling in the ardly, is it not? But he is my only re- stove, a dainty supper spread upon the lative, and I love him dearly. It is not table, the room was cosy and cheery because he owns the farm and can leave enough to coax a smile from the grimmest lips. Yet when James Franklin "Hush, love, I know," Daisy answer- sank into the bright chintz-covered easyed, putting a soft, white hand over her chair and looked around him, everything seemed strangely familiar. That was the held back with knots of broad pink ribbe. Now talk of something else. Oh, counterpane, the bureau covers with how can I let you go for two long their knotted fringe, were all his sister's work, stored away in chests since she from returning to its dreariness and "But who will come, Jane? Girls sending Margaret away, he told no one till he held his nephew's hand fast clasp-

"I can never tell you, Robert," he "Send for her, then, and-oh-rub said then, "what Margaret has been to me. No daughter could have tended me Late in the afternoon, a little bustle more patiently and faithfully; and when below stairs told the invalid of the arri- I could listen, she read to me and talked to me as pleasantly as if I were a com-She came with one trunk, in a wagon panion to her, instead of a grumpy old ed the picture of healthful beauty. Soft for," Robert said, turning his head to brown curls gathered in a rich knot left hide a merry twinkle in his eyes; "you and caressing the round white throat; But when he carefully led the old man large brown eyes lighted a sweet, fair to the sitting-room, both stood amazed. face, and the neat dress of blue woollen covered a dainty figure.

Was the handsomely carpeted, cheerfully furnished room the dreary old place in the sitting-room, both stood tanaged ings.

Was the handsomely carpeted, cheerfully furnished room the dreary old place in the sitting-room. "Will you go up stairs, Miss - ?" which they had been so well contented? While they wondered, a new sound greet- gallery. "Margaret," said the new-comer, ed them-the sound of a piano touched by don't call your niece 'Miss,' whatever skilful fingers, and a voice sweet and clear

Throwing open a door to disclose a beautifully furnished parlor, Robert saw also a little figure on the piano stool, clad Margaret looked at her big tray, the in a shinning black silk, with lace and "Margaret," Uncle James cried.

But Robert said softly: "Margaret Franklin, Uncle James.

Then she came forward with shinning

"but I am bewildered, my dear. Where hidden tragedy of these few words, Mar-garet took a small tray from the shelf, ded shyly slipping her hand into Robert's. Wm. Smith, Esq., Deputy Minister of Marine, goes to England to represent Cana-

"Give you a place here!" the old man cried; "I think no greater grief could come to me now, Margaret, than the But he started as she obeyed. Such thought of losing you. God ever bless a sweet, bright face was new in the dis- you, child! for few at your age would mal old farm-house, strongly in contrast have cared to so kindly overcome so obwith the bare, meagre room and desolate stinate an old man's prejudices." "Thank you," she whispered, touching ers without paying for it.

"I have brought your supper," she her lips to his for the first time: "you And as she presided over the carefully Then, going to the door, she entered appointed table in a costly furnished dinagain with a tray. Upon a white china ing-room Uncle James had used for spare dish was half a chicken, delicately brown- harnesses and bags of grain, but which ed, a potato roasted in the ashes, and a was transformed beyond recognition. slice of buttered toast; and besides this, there was no cloud on the brightness of the face of "Robert's wife."

HON. MR. GLADSTONE ON THE LORD'S DAY.—Mr. Charles Hill, of the Working Men's Lord's Day Rest Association. London, recently received from a society in Geneva a prize of 300f. for an essay on "Sunday, its Influence on Health and National Prosperity." The essay is to be printed in English as well as in French Grimly wondering, the old man sufferand Mr. Gladstone was applied to by the well prepared food was eaten, and the author to write a few words of introlistening well pleased to the cheery voice duction. In reply, he said he regretted he was unable, from the pressure of other duties, to enter further into the subject of Mr. Hill's letter than to congratulate rancy. him on the distinction he had obtained. and to express his hearty good wishes for the design of the essay. Believing in the authority of the Lord's Day as a religious institution, he must, as a matter of course, desire the recognition of that its mental and its physical benefits. He in other yet higher respects, there was have withdrawn from that body. nothing he more anxiously desired than

RESPECT FOR THE DEAD. - In one respect at least Americans might mend of reverence for the dead. The passage of a funeral train through our streets. whether of a great or an unknown man. elicits from the stolid spectators no further recognition than a stare. In Paris, or anywhere in France, the presence of the san with head bared and bowed. There is much liked by the troops. no more touching and graceful custom gentleman in the world, is in need of. No doubt in this, as in many other things. he represses his instincts for fear of seeming sentimental.

A novel defence of avarice is presented by Dr. Richardson, of London, in his work on "Disease of Modern Life." He says that avarice rather tends to the pre-Dr. Richardson, "he is saved from all ing to the natural rigid law."

room for him, he has a gold ring on."

WHOLE NO.—1414.

Over four thousand cattle have been killed

Glasgow claims to be the second city in just to please him. And so it goes on all the British Isles. It has a population of day. No wonder the cows give more milk 547,598, against the 473,405 of Liverpool. To remove warts from cows' teats, wash them in strong alum water for several days. and the first you know they will be gone. Twelve workmen have been killed so far in the construction of the Centennial build-ter, England, has given $500,000 for an art

he was called good for six millions Mesuba, a converted thief, is a very successful revivalist in the Mahratta country,

There is an artesian well in Prairie du Chien 717 feet deep, which yields 30,000 here to it.

5. Provide sufficient shelter for domestic animals.

At last the use of the grasshopper is determined. He is to be pulverised and sent to "I wanted to make you love me," she said in a low tender voice, "for Robert's by means of electricity.

Prof. Rosenthal of Vienna has proved that real and apparent death can be distinguished by it properly.

9. Procure good implements, and take care

There are two millions of peasants in Rus- of them. "And for your own," he answered; sia who have not yet been able to fulfil the conditions of the emancipation act of 1861. where the pretty face saddened by the wine, and you will let them stay here, with her pretty face saddened by the wine, and you will let them stay here, the longest in the United States.

ected what she wanted from the closet, and went again to the kitchen.

James Fraklin, weary with the effort to hold a book in his aching hands, was to hold a book in his aching hands, was to hold a book in his aching hands, was to hold a book in his aching hands, was to hold a book in his aching hands.

Uncle James, when he is all you have to love, but if you will give me a place here guilty, escapes the gallows, though he may be hanged if he stands a trial and is conthat there will be a total eclipse of the sun on the 11th of August, 1999. The most expensive luxury in the world is that mean economizing which seeks to get the best class of work done by the best work-The Jews in England are said to be very some instances bury the corpses within an hour and a half after death. intoxication. Two deaths from drinking it difference in price in the two countries behave occurred in Londonderry, where the tween many of the staple commodities of expractice is said to be spreading.

A Berlin special says a stock company is being organized in Russia for the introduction and development of the cultivation of cotton in Central Asia.

74th of his ministry.

could hardly overstate its value in this view; and for the interest of the working men of this country, alike in these and Association concerning the Beecher scandal, Association will propose to deal in five or that they should more and more highly appreciate the Christain day of rest.

Trigality may be termed the daughter of prudence, the sister of temperance, and the parent of liberty. He that is extravagant will quickly become poor, and poverty will enforce dependence and invite corruption. The fire in the town of Tarsus, Asia Minor, their manners. In the public exhibition by which the bazar or business part was enmillion francs and ruining nearly three bling a package of friction matches. The military bands of Chatham, England, having been ordered to discontinue playing operatic and other secular airs on Sundays, his wife to some pleasant neighbor's, friend's mortal remains of any fellow-being is now perform a selection of Moody and Sanacknowledged even by the humblest arti-key's hymns, and the change is said to be of relaxation from the cares and toils of adopt. It is just these little knacks of politeness that the American gentleman, resolutions, and then going to his house, whaled him until he became insensible. It is stated that no fewer than 200 trains pass daily over the Pensylvania Railroad between New York and Philadelphia. During the Centennial "rush" this large number

> Moulton publishes an open letter to Beech- Golden Rule. er, saying that, in justice to society, whom Beecher has outraged, and to himself, whom Beecher has villified, he (Moulton) must with great care. The dry feed will have bring forward an issue to determine, if pos- rendered them very liable to inflammatory pulpit or himself in prison.

introduced slow poison into rich patients mouths at the instigation of their heirs, and thus committed many murders. Two hun- When the calf is expected, the cow should dred witnesses are said to be subpænaed. The London Examiner is indignant at the barrenness of the Prince of Wale's visit to India, and says that the intelligent natives writes :- "In building a new barn, I would periods precisely according with the of Bengal were never brought into contact study to put in all the windows I could pos-

> The Japanese Government has passed a law one; cattle are more easily taken care of, introducing general compulsory service in the and are more quiet and better contented in a army. Every male subject between the ages light place than in a dark one."

a farmer to me, last spring, "When we were drawing out manure, I let the boys drive to the lot, and I stayed in the yard because I could put on better loads. And the cows commenced to give more milk right off."-Now this man is an active, industrious, intelligent, experienced farmer, and yet, when he is piling manure in the yard, his cows give a perceptible increase in their milk.— Why? One of his handsome grade Shorthorns that he is so proud of, seeing him around, goes up to him and says as plain as a cow can say, "Give me a lock of hay," and he gives it to her.

Agriculture.

BE SOCIABLE WITH YOUR CATTLE. - Said

Another says, "Mr. Stevens, don't you think that rack needs cleaning out?" and on looking he finds to his surprise that there is a lot of dirt and wet hay seeds and rubbish at the bottom. He scrapes it all out and rubs it clean with some straw, and as soon as his load is filled, and while he is waiting for the next wagon, he gets a little feed and puts it in the rack, and the cows eat it and feel grateful.

Between the next load he takes the curry comb and gives one of the cows a good clean-Bathe weak eyes before retiring at night ing. The other cows come round, and he has with a little sugar dissolved in warm water. a gentle word and a friendly pat for each of Mr. Reed says that England has 113,500 them. He is a good looking man and the cows look at him. He is a gentleman and his presence has a soothing effect. They chew the cud of contentment and peace. As The license to shoot game in Scotland he goes past the pump he asks the cows if amounts to $3,000,000 annually—much more they want a little fresh water. They had not thought about it, but they drink a little

RULES FOR FARMERS.—A correspondent suggests as something "that would interest and profit many young farmer readers,"that we should prepare and publish one hundred rules for the attainment of success and wealth in farming. A much smaller number, if faithfully adhered to, will contribute materially to success, and ensure, with economy and good habits, sufficient wealth to

3. Underdrain, wherever needed. 4. Adopt a good rotation of crops and ad-

6. Keep everything connected with do-mestic animals neat and clean. 7. Plow well, cultivate well, do all work

9. Procure good implements, and take care 10. Raise good animals and take care of The preceding ten rules will be of much use if carried out, and we add two more, to and coving it with a snowy napkin, se-lected what she wanted from the closet, Uncle James, when he is all you have to a trip to England.

"I don't want to take Robert from you, dian Shipping. Mr. Blake intends making just what is the market value of each.

sonal interest to any of us, but it is a fact

1. Cut short your losses. 2. Let your profits run on.

"An attempt is, I understand, about to be made to bring the Canadian farmer and the English consumer into direct dealing one hasty in the burial of their dead, and in with the other by the opening of a large number of retail stores, in the metropolis first, and afterwards, if successful, in other Ether is now used in Ireland to produce large towns. I have often dwelt upon the istence. For cheese, meat, butter, hams The Pall Mall Gazette's Dublin special bacon—poultry perhaps in time—flour, and says it is pretty certain that emigration from Ireland for 1876 will be the smallest since ed market here, and, from the price at 1851. It was only 51,462 last year. English market, there will be ample margin for profit. It is repeating a truism well known to Canadian readers that all their produce has long been sold in this country under the general title of American, and An aged couple at Fairfield, Me., lately only know one shop—and that one of the celebrated their golden wedding by separating. It took them fifty years to find out cheese is honestly ticketed "Canadian." The that they were only wedded, not mated.

New York City professes to be satisfied with the results of one year's triel of comwith the results of one year's trial of compulsory education and claims that the system has rescued 8,000 children from vag-Probably the oldest clergyman in Europe also Canadian Stiltons to be bought at 9d is the Rev. Dr. Ingram, of the parish of per pound, and this is a good cheese. I am Unst, Shetland, who on the 3rd of March aware that much better cheese than either completed the 100th year of his age and the of these is made in the Dominion and does Joan of Arc, with her chain armor on, Market. The association is to be called the may have appeared heroic, but it takes just Canadian Farmers' Produce Stores, and is authority by others; but over and above the same courage in our day for a woman to promised the support of a large and influenthis, he had himself, in the course of a laborious life, signally experienced both tween her knees washing "paint." Rev. Drs. Storrs, Buddington and other It is expected that operations will soon be Association will propose to deal in five or six articles at first—hams, bacon, cheese,

> FARMERS' WIVES .- Few things will bring more certain and happy reward to a farmer than for him to remember his wife is a social being; that she is not a machine, and theremoney, health, or domestic comfort, enjoyan occasional afternoon, from midday until bed-time, to visiting purposes. Let him, with the utmost cheerfulness and heartiness, which in turn tend to cultivate the mind, to nourish the affections, and to promote that preadth of view in relation to men and things which elevates, and expands, and enwill in all likelihood be doubled, if suitable facilities be placed at the disposal of the teresting, that both men and women become but a shadow of what they ought to be .-

A farmer who has profited by experience with him. If the native Princes, who gave sibly get in, of course not making a greenhim such regal receptions, are not invited to house of it, but as many as most folks put England in their turn, the Examiner predicts into dwelling houses. It is so much better doing work in a light barn than in a dark

Working Cattle.-Oxen should be well

There is an old lady near Westminster, Invigorating fluid for plants :- 4 ounces gost no more per hundred than potatoes.

Charles Connell's.

Dr. REYNOLDS, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, UPPER CORNER. WOODSTOCK.

Barrister & Attorney-at-Law, OFFICE, -Until further notice, at his residence, west side Main Street, fifth house above office of Registrar of Deeds. Woodstock, May 20, 1875—21

COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW. Fort Fairfield, Maine. WILLIAM M. CONNELL

Solicitor, Conveyancer, &c. Grand Falls, Victoria County, N. B. JOHN C. WINSLOW.

G. W. VANWART, EXCHANGE BROKER,

Surveying. STEPHEN E. STEVENS,

Boots, Shoes and Rubbers.

Corner of King and York Streets, This is a Strictly Temperance House. GEORGE HUME, PROPRIETOR. Superior Stabling and a careful hostler.

STAGE HOUSE - TOBIQUE. Comfortable Extras Furnished at the ALBION HOTEL. McGill and St. Paul Sts.,

United States Hotel, PORTLAND, MAINE. THE above popular House, centrally situated in the business quarter of the beautiful Forest City, and in close proximity to the lead-

All classes of Risks taken on the most reason. able terms, and all legitimate claims promptly No combination to raise rates. Dwellings and Farm Bnildings a speciality.

THE best stand for Carriage and Blacksmith business between Woodstock and Fredericton is offered for sale. Dwelling House, Carriage and Blacksmith Shop, with or without tools, in fact, every convenience. For further particulars inquire ROBERT SMITH, Woodstock,

Architect and Builder,

REFERENCES, BY PERMISSION:

ON MAIN STREET.

Please give me a call.

THE subscriber having Removed from his Old

Inspection respectfully solicited. Harness Maker. Woodstock, Oct. 24, 1873 .- 43 EXPRESS NOTICE.

Express Company! Two Trips per Week, all Rail. Commencing Wednesday, Dec. 1st. THE Aroostook Express will, until further notice, leave Fort Fairfield every Monday and Thursday for Bangor, Portland and Boston, and

Freight of every description forwarded to all the above places with dispatch, and promptly de-Haynes & Pillsbury, West Market Sq., Bangor 8 and 10 Court Square, Boston 8 and 10 Court Square, Portland Houlton

To whom it may concern!

tory Cheese;

Select Tale.

ROBERT'S WIFE. There was real sorrow in Robert Franklin's voice and eyes as he spoke,

"We must show him his mistake," if Aunt Jane and I help you?" was the reply "But he will not see you. He positively forbids your coming over to the poor farmer."

a little money, Daisy."

ed, and which threatened to involve him forgotten corner of a closet.

servation than to the deterioration of the body. The avaricious man, who seems to the luxurious to be debarring himself from all the pleasures of the world, is generally placing himself in the precise conditions favorable to a long and healthy existence. "By his economy," says the worry incident to penury; by his caution he is screened from all the risks incident to speculation; by his regularity "I have had no other father, or moth- parlor carpet taken from the never open- of hours and perfect appropriation of the sun-light, in preference to artificial illumination, he rests and works in periodicity of nature; by his abstemiousness he takes just enough to live, which is precisely the right thing to do, accord-Mr. Moody has good courage. He by the deep snows in Utah the past winter. tons of iron-clad ships against 84,000 which Spurgeon says, rather sharply, that "it is satisfy the reasonable desires of any one.—a hideous gift to possess to be able to say no- Among them the following may be mention-

Daniel Drew in his palmy days was count- 1. Select good land and reject sterile, no ed worth $14,000,000, and three years ago matter how cheap. 2. Raise no weeds, but only profitable well, and not slipshod cover them all, viz: 11. By weighing and measuring, and with careful accounts, ascertain just what every knowing that you are carrying out Ricardo's It may not appear of any particular per- two famous rules for acquiring wealth,

The London correspondent of the Globe

not at present find its way to the London

Frugality may be termed the daughter of butter, lard, and flour." by which the bazar or business part was en-tirely destroyed, entailing a loss of twelve No farmer will lose in the long run, either in thousand persons, was caused by rate nib- ment and downright happiness, by allotting no more touching and graceful custom than this bit of French reverence, and none which our people seem so slow to > be turned into a loose stall, or in a quiet stable alone.

A weak animal will soon give out under the A report is said to have been received first hot suns of spring. Work the bulls. The Builder recommends people who transin regard to destitution at that place, is not plant trees to mark the north side of each

Mass., who for fifteen years has lived entire- sulphate ammonia; 2 do. nitrate potassa;

Rooms over

Good accommodation for permanent and tran-TERMS-30 cents per meal, or $1.00 per day. Permanent Board, from $3 to $5 per week. 34

Cheaper than ever.

J. R. TUPPER, Jr., (successor to J. C. COLE)

Fire Insurance. OHE subscriber still continues to accept all classes of Risks against FIRE in the following well-

Capital and Cash Assets, - $17,000,000 Deposited at Ottawa, ---- 400,000 ROBERT MARSHALL

OF MAINE.

TOHN HALL HAS REMOVED to the spacious | Also, on hand, a good assortment of Groceries, consisting of Flour, Tea, Molasses, Oatmeal, Fac-

83 doz. Flour Pots;

farm.'

er either, for that matter, in all my life." ed room below; those were the parlor continued Robert, "and if the farm is curtains freshly ironed and starched, and "And you do not like to be banished! bon. The bed, bureau, wardrobe, chairs Well, if you will keep your promise, and all were his own, polished till they shone send Jane over to see me, you shall not again. The snowy bed linen, the white

the farm three days when his uncle James | them."

yielded most reluctantly to the pangs of The day flew by, cold weather strength-Spices of every description. And all other things his old enemy, chronic rheumatism, and ening, till one chill January day word Themistocles, the Great Athenian Gen- ly alone. She is 83 years old, and entirely 1 do. white sugar; 1 pint hot water. Keep told Jane, his old servant, that he must came that Robert was coming home.— eral, being asked whether he would choose blind. Yet she makes her own fires in the corked. One tablespoonful to a gallon of told Jane, his old servant, that he must remain in his room. The old woman answered promptly:

"If you are going to be laid up, Mr. If you are going to be laid up, Mr. Franklin asked no questions.—

"If you are going to be laid up, Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. Franklin asked no questions.—

"If you are going to be laid up, Mr. If you are going to be laid up, Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. Franklin asked no questions.—

"If you are going to be laid up, Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. Franklin asked no questions.—

"If you are going to be laid up, Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. Franklin asked no questions.—

"If you are going to be laid up, Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. Franklin asked no questions.—

"If you are going to be laid up, Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. Franklin asked no questions.—

"If you are going to be laid up, Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. Franklin asked no questions.—

"If you are going to be laid up, Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. Franklin asked no questions.—

"If you are going to be laid up, Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. Franklin asked no questions.—

"If you are going to be laid up, Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. Franklin asked no questions.—

"If you are going to be laid up, Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. Franklin asked no questions.—

"If you are going to be laid up, Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the house, but Mr. It should prefer a man with the lower part of the h Franklin, I must have some help. I'm He had been very ill, but was recover- out an estate to an estate without a man." care to square

For Robert Franklin had undertaken died, long, long years ago. Even the said in a recent sermon: "It is the same of 20 and 23 is to be liable to serve for three to go in person to see about some West- chintz on the chair was part of some old old story—the story of the present day. years in the standing army, at the end of ern lands in which his uncle had invest- curtains he had stuffed away in a long There is a great deal of that now. Give which period they will be transferred to the fed, and well curried every day, to bring that man the most prominent place in reserve force and undergo training for four them into good condition for spring work .in loss. Daisy could not well take the "It is very comfortable, and you are church; let him have the best pew and years longer. long journey, and besides, Daisy had a good thoughtful girl," he said, looking the one furthest up in church, because other schemes in her wise little head .- around with a keen appreciation of the he is worthy. He has built the church from Gaspe, at Montreal, by private parties, Loving Robert well, she resolved to remove the only shadow from his life—the resolute opposition of his uncle to a fine lady wife.

In regard to destitution at that place, is not thought of using these things."

No matter where his money came from. He may have got it gambling in stocks, or doing something else of a like character or doing something else of a like character from starving. Some few cattle have died from want of food.

In regard to destitution at that place, is not correct. No one died from want, but there is a great scarcity of provisions. All the place it in its natural position. A larger proportion will then live, as by ignoring this transplanted trees generally perish. Robert Franklin had been gone from cals in my trunk, if you will look at ter; but he has given it to us. Make from want of food.

sible, whether Beecher ought to be in the diseases. One quart of oil cake meal, mixed with bran scalded, and given as a drink A well known Paris dentist, residing in once a day, will be useful. No corn should the fashionable quarter, has been arrested. be given for several weeks before calving .and is in Mazes prison, accused of having for years past, while drawing and cleaning teeth, healthful, but if good hay is given, very little grain of any kind will be needed. Caution now will prevent trouble hereafter .--