A happy New Year to all our readers

WITH this number the "SENTINEI enters upon a new volume. It is to old a paper and the character of its management too well established to require many words of promise, sugge tion or explanation.

Our aim has been and is mainly t make this paper a welcome visitor to people, especially of this County, or account of the variety and excellence of its selected matter, and to provid for the various tastes of its readers weekly spread from which each and all may draw a portion of intellectua "meat in due season." And remem bering, always, the fact that it is to the kind support and consideration of th people of Carleton any measure of success that has attended the publication is due, we have ever striven to maintain its integrity as an organ fit to assist, it not lead public, opinion in the County. and as a reliable index of the County its prosperity and its hopes. The SEN-TINEL for many years has been the historian of the County in its social, moral and physical aspects; if it has failed in his record it has not been in an undervaluation of its subject; nor are we disposed with riper judgment to withdraw any sentiment, however flattering it has
