McLean" is no longer a Government vessel; and the circumstance of her transfer into private hands again brings this craft before the public, with an opportunity of pointing out the way the late Government transacted public affairs. It will be remembered that in the House of Commons last seesion Mr. McLeod obtained information that the schooner "Ella G. McLean" was purchased from her owner, Mr. Clinch, by a nor of Mr. Mitchell, ex-Minister of Marine, for $3,500, and by him sold to the Minister of Marine in 1871 or thereabout for $6,000.

The Government of that day expended a large sum of money on the vessel, but in new masts, and made her perhaps as good a vessel as she ever was. Recently the present Government determined to get rid of the craft, and asked for public tenders from intending purchasers. To-day the tenders were opened, and it was found that the highest figure that experienced men considered her worth was 22,250, so that by this little job of the Hon. Peter Mitchell on behalf of his relatives the country lost $3,500, in addition to heavy cost of repairs, put on when first purchased.—Globe.
