SHOCKING AFFAIR AT LIVERPOOL .dreadful tragedy is reported from Liverpool Mrs. Norris, widow of a teller in the North-Western Bank, Liverpool, resided with he five children in Fairholm road, Crosby.-She got up early in the morning, and taking a revolver she fired first at her eldest child a girl about thirteen, and shot her dead then at the second child, about two year younger, killed her also. She next discharg ed a shot at the third child, and wounded her, and afterwards fired at the fourth, bu the little thing ran away and so escaped the shot. The wretched woman lastly discharg ed a barrel into her own head, and inflicte injuries which it is expected will result fa tally. The governess was aroused by the reports of the pistol and hurried to the room, but when she got there the whole of the terrible work was completed. Mrs. Norris is supposed to have been deranged, and it is anderstood she was troubled by some pecuniary matters, and she felt the death of her husband very much. Latterly, however, she appeared to be regaining her health and spirits. She had tried to purchase prussic acid at a chemist's before the catastrophe,
