Just Published in a sealed Envelope rice six cents. A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and nadical Cure of Seminal Weakness or Spermaterrhæs, induced by Self Abuse I voluntary Emissions, Impotency, Nerveus Debili y, and impediments to Marriage generally . Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVER. WELL, M. D , author of the "Green Book," &c. The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands. Sent under seal in a plain envelope, to any ad dress, post-paid, on receipt of six cents or two post stamps.

> The clansman burned with anger and fierce revenge. He rushed forward, plucked the tender infant, the heir of Lochbuy, from the hands of the nurse, and bounding to the rocks, in a moment stood upon an inaccessible cliff, projecting over the water. The screams of the agonized mother and chief at the awful jeopardy in which their child was placed may easily be conceived. Maclean implored the man to give back his son, and expressed his deep contrition for the degradation he had in a moment of excitement inflicted on his clansman. The other replied that the only condition on which he would consent to the restitution was, that Maclean himself should bare his back to the cord, and be publicy scourged as he had been. In despair the chief consented, saying he would submit to anything if his child were but from the leading American and Canadian Manu-

To the grief and astonishment of the clan, Maclean bore this insult, and when GLASGOW HOUSE, it was completed, begged that the clansman might return from his perilous situation with the young chief. CATARRH.

Littlefield's Constitutional Catarrh Remedy.

CATARRH Cannot be cured by local applications. It is a weakness of the constitution, developing itself in the nasal organs first, afterwards extending to the throat and lungs, ending generally in Consumption. If not checked by proper remedies. Pains in the head, back, loins, and weakness in the kidneys, are its attendant diseases. More people have Catarrh than any other diseases, children as well as adults. It is easily cured.
