NEW YORK. Ten years ago Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co. established their advertising agency in New York City. Five years ago they absorbed the business conducted by Mr. John Hooper, who was the first to go into this kind of enterprise. Now they have the satisfaction of controlling the most extensive the satisfaction of controlling the most extensive and complete advertising connection which has ever been secured, and one which would be hardly possible in any other country but this. They have succeeded in working down a complex business into so thoroughly a systematic method that no change in the newspaper system of America can escape notice, while the widest information upon all topics interesting to advertisers is placed readily at the disposal of the public.

An Editor's Table. The editor sat in his sanctum, His countenance furrowed with care, His mind at the bottom of business, His feet at the top of a chair; His chair-arm and elbow supporting,
His right hand apholding his head,
His eyes on the dusty old table,
With different documents spread.

There were thirty long pages from Howler, With underlined capitals topped, And a short requisition from Growler, Requesting his newspaper stopped;
There were lyrics from Gusher, the poet,
Concerning sweet flowerets and zephyrs,
And a stray gem from Plodder, the farmer,
Describing a couple of heifers. BAIRD'S

There were billets from beautiful maidens, Writing Materials, And bills from a grocer or two, And his best leader hitched to a letter, Which enquired if he wrote it or who? There were raptures of praise from writers Of the smooth and mellifluous school, And one of his rival's last papers, Informing him he was a fool;

There were several long resolutions,
With names telling whom they were by,
Canonizing some harmless old brother,

With names telling whom they were by,
Miscellaneous Books. Who did nothing worse than to die; There were traps on the table to catch him, And serpents to sting and to smite him, There were gift enterprises to sell him, And biters attempting to bite him.

There were long staring "ads," from the city And money with never a one, Which added, "Please give this insertion, And send in your bill when you've done." There were letters from organizations—
Meetings, wants, and their laws—
Which said, "Can you print this announce-

For the good of our glorious cause?"

There were tickets inviting his presence,
To festivals, parties, and shows,
Wrapped in notes, "Please give us a notice,"
Demurely slipped in at the close;
In short, as his eye took the table, And ran over its ink-spattered trash, There was nothing it did not encounter, Excepting perhaps it was-cash.

Iron in the Blood

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "athousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The en-riched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secre-tions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its comparising effects are not folenergizing effects are not followed by corresponding reac-tion, but are permanent, infu-sing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering crcatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial. See that each bottle has PERU-
