THE "WITNESS" Holds a high place in Canadian journalism. Its unswerving course has done more for it than the ability with which it is managed. It has denounce ed both political parties by turns, as their policy seemed to demand it. At times it has been held to have taken sides; and again its independence becomes most evident. The work of the good newspaper is to drive out bad reading with better.

This the WITNESS has made its mission. It is eminently a FAMILY PAPER. Its progress during the year or two past has his store in been most remarkable. The circulation of the WEERLY WITNESS has, as appears from its prospectus, grown in two years from 17.000 TO 26,000. Its progress is largely owing to the enthusiasm ware, he will be pleased to meet all customers and satisfy them in regard both to quality and montane aggression, so increasingly ran pant in the price of Goods.

But the best testimonial is the above rapid growth owing, as it is, largely to the efforts of its readers. Toe publishers have taken a novel course this year in offering to all who remit ten doilars in new subscriptions a pair of SELF-ADJUSTING SKATES of the best make. This skate is a Canadian invention, and of Canadian manufacture, but in ail countries looked upon as the best; is called the "Eureka," and has become an object of great desire among the you ger peope. The subscriptions sent in to obtain the states may be for the WEEKLY, IRI-WEEKLY, OF DAILY WITNESS, OF for the NEW DOMINION MONTHLY OF the NORTH-THE NEW DOMINION MONTHLY—the oldest Canadian Magazine-se-ms to manifest signs of upward progress, both in circulation and

WHO HE IS.

By W. V. S., ARTIST. Who keeps the gallery on King Street, Where all are welcome to a seat, And Photos too are made so neat? Why, Moores, the new Photographer. Who charms the gents and ladies fair. With portraits made with skill so rare, That people, all, in wonder stare? why, Moores, the best Photographer. Who understands so well to pose, That oblique eye, or frightful nose, There own aetects shall not disclose? Why, Moores, the skilled Paetegrapher, Who can so well those spots efface,

That often freckle beauty's face, And of them leave no earthly trace? Why, Moores, the shrewd Photographer. Or gently charm the scowls away, That oft o'er certain faces stray. To the poor subjects aire dismay? Why, Movers, the gay Photographer. Who can so soothe the baby's cries, And change its sad and weeping eyes

To orbs where mirthful laughter lies? Why, Movers, the quick Photographer. Who can so deft, with art, secure The coyish grace of miss demure, And hence a p rtrait fine assure? Why, Mooers, the charp Photographer. Or catch the merry beams that stray O'er happy visage, ligat and gay, As suony rays in genial May?

Who is't that ladies all adore, And sing his praises o'er and o'er, Because he adds to beauty's store? n hy, Mooers, the charmed Photographer. Who makes for all. at price not high, Those portraits fine that charm the eye and fresh. Of connoisseur, or passer by ? Remember the place. Why, Mooers, the fine Photographer.

And still invites the people all, Un him to quick and surely call For portraits large, or gems so small? Why, Mooers, the live Photographer. Or who, when eyes have frescoed been,

Through some gay fellow's lively whim, Relieves them of their hue so dia? Why, Movers, the kind Photographer.
