On the item of immigration. Hon, Mr.

Fraser said the Government had agreed to reduce the amount from $8,000 to $6,000. Ile said no new arrangements had been entered into by the Government since the last setting of the Legislature, nor had any new expense been incurred; but having brought immigrants into the Province, and settled them in the localities where they are, some expense had to be incurred. The only new expense had to be incurred. The only new expense had been in connection with a number of Danish immigrants. A young man had to be sent with them to where they were to be located as an interpreter, to prevent them being imposed upon.

Hon. Mr. Stevenson said the matter of immigration had been under his charge since it was undertaken in 1871. A conference arrangement was made with the Dominion Government whereby they agreed to pay this Province $10,000 annually for the purpose of carrying on immigration. This arrangement ement existed until 1873, and then very much to their surprise they learned that it was not the intention of the Dominion Government to pay this amount. Mr. Stevenson gave a full account of the arrangements that had been entered into with the Nova Scotia Government in respect to the employment of an interpretary and settled them in the localities where they agreed to pay this amount. In view of the melancholy results her mind was turned to the home of her youth, and feeling the necessity of a mother's care, and sending to New Brunswick soon enjoyed the warm greeting of a tender mother. Still she longed to see her friends and home, and felt like good old Jacob: "I will go and see them before I die;" and when told that the journey was more than she could endure, said, "My Heavenly Father will give me strength." And such was God's good pleasure. She came home, after which she seemed to rally, but only to she greatly desired to see the writer, to talk about Christ and make some last requests. I found her wasted form sinking fast towards the grave, but her spirit longing to depart and be with Christ. She exhibited the most unflinching faith in God to the last moment. "So fades the summer cloud away, So sinks the gale when storm is o'er, So gently shuts the eye of day, So dies a wave along the shore." Her dying room was the ante-chamber of heaven; angels conveyed her to glory, and among the ranks of the blessed redeemed ones she is enjoying the beautiful vision of her God forever.
