NEW YORK. Ten years ago Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co. established their advertising agency in New York City Five years ago they absorbed the business conducted by Mr. John Hooper, who was the first to go into this kind of enterprise. Now they have the satisfaction of controlling the most extensive and complete advertising connection which has ever been secured, and one which would be hardly possible in any other country but this. They have possible in any other country but this. They have succeeded in working down a complex business into so theroughly a systematic method that no change in the newspaper system of America can escape notice while the widest information upon all topics interesting to advertisers is placed readily at the disposal of the public.

Dig for it at Home.

Would you have the shiring metal? Do not o'er the wide world roam, Following a fleeting phentom— Stay and dig for it at home.

Do not heed the luring story Treasures distant hillsides hold; Ten adventurers, disappointed, Stand for every ounce of gold.

Wishing still for something better, Many fancies youth will rear; Mountains of the vellow mica In the distant gold appear.

And the longing is contagious, Drinking from a leaden cup, For the means of grander living, On highways to pick it up.

But Dame Fortune is too fickle In her train afar to roam; Would you win her golden treasure, Stay and dig for it at home.

And don't be rash; because if you don't shut that door it will stay open all night, and that would 2,000 bottles English, French and then make us all sick, you know." A solemn silence fell for a tew moments on the domestic scene; then Mrs. Henry rose to business. Anger was not visible on her countenance so much as astonishment. This was an entirely new departure of John's. He had hitherto been meek and docile when pressed to the wall. She felt her supremacy was . in danger, that the situation was critical and demanded strong measures. On a sudden the water pitcher shot wildly from its sphere, described a parabola in the gleaming firelight, and lighted full upon John's nightcap. The slop pail followed, then the coal scuttle, then a pair of boots, then the baby's cradle, followed in rapid succession by a powder box, a bottle of bay rum, a bronze mantel ornament, a pair of tongs and a box of blacking. Then with a majestic force of true womanhood, she snatched the covers from the bed with one hand and poured a pitcher of ice water over his legs with the other. John arose and shut the door. Next morning as John Henry entered the office somewhat late, and looking as if nature's sweet restorer had rather missed him, his partner spoke up:

"Well, John, did you try it?"
"Yes, Sam, I tried it." "And she came down, eh?"

"Yes, Sam, she came down. But it give in as you say, when one makes a determined stand against them. But some way it seems to hurt their feelings; and I don't think I'll do it any which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Sorcness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
