The People's Remedy. The Universal Pain Extractor. Note: ask for POND'S EXTRACT. Take no other.

POND'S EXTRACT—The great Vegetable Pain Destreyer. Has been in use over thirty years, and for cleanliness and prompt curative virtues cannot be excelled.

CHILDREM.—No family can afford to be without Pond's Extract. Accidents, Bruises, Contusions, Cuts, Sprains, are relieved almost instantly by external application. Promptly relieves pains or Burns, Scalds, Excorintions, Chafings, Old Sores, Boils, Felons, Corns, etc. Arrests infamation, reduces swellings, stops bleeding, removes discolorations and heals rapidly.

FEMALE WEAKNESSES.—It always relieves pain in the back and loins, fulness and pressing pain in the bead, nausea, vertigo.

ELEUGORRHEA it has no equal. All kinds of ulcerations to which ladies are subject are promptly cured. Fuller details in book accompanying each bottle.

PILES—blind or bleeding—meet prompt relief and ready cure. No case, however chronic or obstinate, cun long resist its regular use.

VARICOSE VEINS.—It is the only sure cure for this distressing and dangerous condition.

KIDMY DISEASES.—It has no equal for permament cure.

SLEED MG from any cause. For this is a specific. It has saved hundreds of lives when all other remedies failed to arrest bleeding from nose, stomach, lungs, and elsewhere.

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, Toothache and Earache are all alike releved, and often per-

PHYSICIAMS of all schools who are acquainted with Pond's Extract of Witch Hazel recommendation from hundreds of Physicians, many of whom order it for use in their own practice. In addition to the foregoing, they order its use for Swellings of all kinds, Quinsy, Sore Thront, Inflamed Tonsils, simple and chronic Diarrhea, Catarrh, (for which it is a specific,) Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Stings of Insects, Mosquitoes, etc., Chapped Hands, Face, and indeed all manner of skin diseases.

ILET USE.—Removes Soreness, Roughness, and Smarting; heals Cuts, Eruptions, and Pimples. It revives, invigorates, and refreshes, while wonderfully improving the Complexion.

freshes, while wonderfully improving the Complexion.

FARMERS.—Pond's Extract. No Stock Breeder, no LiveryMan can afford to be without it. It is used by all the Leading Livery Stables, Street Railroads and first Horsemen in New York City. It has no equal for Sprains, Harness or Baddle Chafings, Stiffness, Scratches, Swellings, Cuts, Lacerations, Bleeding, Pneumonia, Colic, Diarrhay, Chills, Colds, etc. Its range of action is wide, and the relief it affords is so prompt that it is invaluable in every Farm-vard as well as in every Farm-house. Let it be tried once, and you will never be without it.

CAUTION.—Pond's Extract has been imitated. The genuine article has the words Pond's Extract blown in each bottle, It is prepared by the only persons living who ever knew how to prepur it properly. Refuse all other preparations of Witch Hazel. This is the only article used by Physicians, and in the hospitals of this country and Europe.

How to Manage Him. How shall I manage my husbard! I will tell you my dear, if I can: He is really a wonderful creature, That troublesome animal-man;

Yes, really a wonderful creature. Inconsistent and queer, But you'll soon know the secret of learning The modus operandi, my ce ir. If he stays out too late in the evening, Partaking of supper and wine, Don't prove him a base fabricator When he comes, by asking the time, For he surely will tell you the town clock But a moment before rang out one-When it struck he had counted it over Just three times before it had done.

And then if his hat, in the morning Is smaller by far than his head, Don't hint by merest allusion That his lordship went tipsy to bed. But rather regard the occurrence A phenomenon puzzling queer, With a strange look of mystification In your eyes, if he's watching, my dear.

And don't fail to sew on his buttons, And mend all his clothes with care; Don't tease him for money for shopping Don't frown when he acts like a bear; Don't tell him too often, my deary, That your head is aching with pain, Lest he whispers, way down in his bosom "Oh, I wish I was single again!"

Don't tell him that Mary, the housemaid, And Ann, the obstreperous cook, Refuse to receive your suggestions With even so much as a look; Don't tell him how very annoying You so often found it to be To be told to "get out of the kitchen, And don't come a-botherin' of me!

But always seem cheerful and happy, And always look pleasant and gay, Than a frown there is nothing more potent In driving one's husband away. And thus you must ever keep striving; You'll find it an excellent plan; But whatever you do, dear, remember, That your husband is only a man.

I tell you, sir, this winter is awful hard on the rich man. He doesn't even eat his dinner in eace. How can he when there are 40, 000 who are dinnerless! His money gets to be a reproach to him, and he feels as if he'd like to give the whole of it away in one lump and try the luxury of being poor for a while. But you needn't say anything about that or I'll have a fresh battalion here to-morrow, and half the idlers in town will be writing me letters. In fact, I wouldn't say anything about it, if I were you, but it's a fact the rich man suffers in a hard winter a good

C. S PATTERSON.

Bronchitis, Asthma. and Consumption

The reputation it has attained, in consequence of the marvellous cures it has produced during the last half century, is a sufficient assurance to the public that it will continue to realize the happiest results that can be desired. In almost every section of country there are persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs, by its use. All who have tried it, acknowledge its superiority; and where its virtues are known, no one hesitates as to what medicine to employ to relieve the distress and suffering peculiar to pulmonary affections. CHERRY PECTORAL always affords instant relief, and performs rapid cures of the milder varieties of bronchial disorder, as well as the more formidable diseases of the lungs. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressg diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of hildhood, it is invaluable; for, by its timely use, ultitudes are rescued and restored to health. This medicine gains friends at every trial, as the cures it is constantly producing are too remarkable to be forgotten. No family should be without it, and those who have once used it

Eminent Physicians throughout the country rescribe it, and Clergymen often recommend it from their knowledge of its effects.
