In a few days the annual Holy Pilgrim Caravan will leave Constantinople for Mecca, laden with costly presents for the Mohammedan shrines. Sheek-ul-Islam gave to the leader, who has been this time appointed by the Sultan himself, instructions to proclaim, in all cities he passes through that Russia, who persecutes Christians herself for not conforming to the Orthodox faith, was now intent upon driving all believers in Islamism from Europe. The Sultan has therefore resolved to call all the faithful to a holy war against infidel Russia, and promises to go on a pilgrimage himself if the war proves successful with bulk of forces towards Erzeroum. Both pilgrimage himself if the war proves successful to his army. A Bucharest despatch reports that at Beket the Turkish Irregulars burned and sank several lighters, amongst which were some that belonged to Watts & Milburn, of London, and had the British flag hoisted. They poured pitch on the decks and set fire to them. They also captured a Greek brig with a British cargo insured at Llyods. Col. Mansfield, British Consul-General at Bucharest, has informed

The general public emphatically approve of Derby's answer. The Times correspondent at Paris, also reports the unqualified approval on the part of the French public. The Times says that Mr. Cross, at the conclusion of his speech on Monday, gave the following as a clear statement of the Government's policy:—Not to sanction oppression or tyranny in any part of the world; to preserve treaty engagements and set an example which, if followed by other nations, would materially add to the happiness of the world; deeply as we regret war, to maintain the strictest neutrality between the contending nations outside of the necessities of this actual war; to maintain, as they ought to maintain, and as any British Government would maintain, and as any British Government would maintain, and as any British Government would maintain, those interests of England which ought to be maintained. characterized by a great variety of symptoms, none of which in itself is of sufficient prominence to give a name to the disease, but the aggregate of which affects nearly all parts of the body, this affection is commonly called GENERAL DEBILITY; as its name implies, it is followed by prostration of strength, and a whole troop of nervous disorders, disturbed sleep, mental anxiety, gloom and despondency, listlessness, incapacity of exertion. failure of memory, and a constant dread of impending calamity, all terminating in a general failure of the mental and physical powers. Wilson's TONIC and SARSAPAR-ILLIAN ELIXIR is a certain remedy for these diseases, with their numerous progeny of symptomatic affections. By its direct of symptomatic affections. By its direct tonic and invigorating power it will strengthen the debilitated stomach, increase the secretion of the gastric juice, promote a healthy assimilation of the food, and thus speedily put to flight the whole train of painful disorders that go to make up this diseash and bring back health to the nervous, weak and thing in his line.
