A Linimont for Man and Beast.

"Whether for use en man or beast, Merchant's Gargling Oil will be found an invaluable Liniment, and worthy of use by every resident in the land. We know of no proprietary medicine or article now used in the United States which shares the good will of the people to a greater degree than this. Yellow wrapper for animal and white for human flesh."—N. Y. Extract from a letter from G. H. Simmonds, Unionville, Ia., July 24, 1873.—"I am selling more Gargling C.1 than all the liniments put together, and I am keeping twelve different kinds. I think this the best remedy for horseflesh in existence, and can say it without fear of Extract from a letter from Shoemaker & Co., Bloomington, Ind., Sept, 17th, 1873.—"It is the popular horse liminent in this country."

Extract from a letter from Geo. A. Snell, Braman's Corner, N. Y., Auc. 9th, 1873.—"I sel re of your Garding Oil than of all other lininghts of unbaned, and have seen it used see and cattle with good effect when others have falled. Extract from a letter from Pattee & Co., Derry, N. 11., Au., 16th, 1873.—"We think your argling Cil one of the best articles for what it is recommended that we have ever used Extract from a letter from Snowdon & Gibbs, Concordia, Kan., July 28th, 1873.—"We sell nore of your Gargling Oil than of any liniment we keep,"

Merchant's Gargling Oil as a Family Liniment. We are now, and have been for some years, preparing the Oil free from stain, to be used a common liniment for human flesh, extracting the coloring ingredient which has heretofore rendered it objectionable. This Oil possesses all the medicinal properties of that prepared with the dark tinge for horses and cattle, and will be found one of the best remedies for all purposes where a liniment is required that has ever been manufactured.

From J. K. Fisher, Uniontown, Pa., Jan. 31, 1857.—"Your thirding Oil is doing much better here than formerly, since its virtues have become known; and the bottles put up for family use, without stain, are much sought for."

The Gargling Oil called "Family Oil," although prepared intentionally for human flesh, answers as well for beasts; vice versa, the dark C I answers as well for human flesh, only it will stain and discolor the skin, but not permanently. Yellow wrapper for animal and white for human flesh.

Merchant's Gargling Oil as an Internal Remedy.

Merchant's Gargling Oil is a diffusible stimulant and carminative. It can be taken internally when such a remedy is indicated, and is a good substitute for pain killers, cordials and anodynes. For Cramps or Spasms of the Stomach, Colic, Asthma, or Internal Pain, the dose may be from fifteen to twenty drops, on sugar, or mixed with syrup in any convenient form, and repeated at intervals of three to six hours. Yellow wrapper for animal and white for MERCHANT'S GARGLING OIL is the Standard Liniment of the United States. stablished 1833. Large size, $1; medium, 50c.; small, 25c.; small size for family use, 25c, famufactured at Lockport, N. Y., by M. G. O. Co., and sold by all druggists. JOHN HODGE, Secretary.
