Better Late Than Never.

Life is a race, where some succeed, While others are beginning; 'Tis luck at times, at others speed, That gives an early winning But if you chance to fall behind, Ne'er slacken your endeavor, But keep this wholesome truth in mind

'Tis better late than never.

If you can keep ahead, 'tis well; But never trip your neighbor; 'Tis noble when you can excell, By honest, patient labor; But if you are outstripped at last, Press on as bold as ever; Remember, though you are surpassed 'Tis better late than never.

Ne'er labor for an idle boast Of victory o'er another; But while you strive your uttermost, Deal fairly with a brother. What'er your station, do your best, And hold your purpose ever ; And if you fail to beat the rest,

'Tis better late than never. Choose well the path in which you run-Succeed by noble daring; Your crown is worth the wearing:

Then, though the last, when once 'tis won, a ridiculous handkerchief tied over her head, and looked like a fright generally. A cross-eyed man, dressed in a suit of light clothes, came up the street, and noticing the woman, leaned over the fence and remarked:

"How sweet is the rosy-posy."
"Eh, what's that?" exclaimed the tall woman, looking up. "How charming appears the lovely popsy-wopsy with its dress tucked up eplied the cross-eyed man. "Who're you talking to, any way? said the tall woman, in great surprise, and turning red in the face. "My own ducky-lucky is exquisitely transcedental with the handkerchief, observed the cross-eyed man, winking mysteriously with his straight eye. "It's my opinion you're drunk," exclaimed the tall woman, in rage; "clear out, or I'll call the police." "And would my sweet cherry-blossom set the wicked police on her own lovey-povey?" said the cross-eyed man. "Clear out, you great over-grown wind-mill," screamed the tall woman,

"Would my pinkey-winkey claw her darling tootsy-pootsy with a kerewel rake?" continued the crossed-eyed man;

wrathfully, " or I'll claw you with this

"I never thought-" Here the tall woman threw down her 3 Bales Tapestry Carpets, rake in a great passion and rushed into the house slamming the door so hard that it broke the knob. And the crosseyed man moved off, softly muttering: "What dreadful tempers some sweet-looking women have."

> HE WAS ASTONISHED. - "Cut my hair," said a customer, as he seated himself in a barber's chair, "and be sure you let it run down the back of my neck, referring, of course, to the particular style of the cut. The barber was a Western artist, having lately arrived in Oil City from St.

After clipping away for some time, he concluded that perhaps the hair wasn't running down the back of his customer's neck as fast as that individual might desire it-although, for the life of him, he couldn't see why he should want it to run down at all-and when a quantity had accumulated inside his shirt-collar, the accommodating barber shoved it Woodstock, May 24, 1877 down and out of sight with the handle of his brush. This performance repeated three or four times, and the customer began to realize what was going on .-Henceforward he took a lively interest in the proceedings. He said: "What, in the name of the bird with the broad and sweeping wing, are you

"It didn't seem to run down," said the barber, apologetically, "and so I crammed it down with the brush." The customer acted like a man who had just made the discovery that a rat Boots, Shoes and Slippers! had built her nest between his shoulderblades and had kittens there; so he yel

A stranger came along and said:

"Funeral?" And the old sexton gravely bowed his head-it was.

"Who's dead ?" The old man again wiped his brow and gave the name of the deceased. "What complaint?" asked the inquisitive stranger. Solemnly placing his bandanna in his hat and covering his bald head, the old sexton made answer: "There is no complaint; everybody is entirely satisfied."

The parishioners of a clergyman in Scotland, in expressing to him their aversion to the use of manuscript sermons, asked: "What gars ye take up your bit papers to the pulpit?" He replied that it was best, for really he could not remember a sermon, and must have his paper. "Weel, weel, minister," they retaliated, "if ye canna remember th sermon then dinna expect that we can. Through Tickets, Woodstock or Houlton to Bos-

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color. A dressing which is at once restored to its with the gloss and freshness of Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the haif from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dan-

> Ithaca Horse Rake will be ready for sale on 1st July, and we beg to call your attention to the fact that we have made improvements in the Rake as follows, viz.: Instead of a cast iron axle stuck on the end of the axle-bed with only two bolts and which is so easily broken, we have a wrought iron axle properly secured by an iron plate. Also, an improvement in the hub of the wheel, which will save the purchaser time and money in case he breaks a spoke, which can be replaced.

which will save the purchaser time and money in case he breaks a spoke, which can be replaced in five minutes without disturbing the rest of the spokes and we give extra spokes, painted and fitted, without extra charge with the Rake; this will be found a great convenience, as any Rake is subject to accident. We warrant the Rake; extra parts will be ready on demand if anything should give out by fair play, free of charge for the season. Instead of using all common castings, we have sent to the United States for malleable castings for all the principal parts, and the teeth are from the best maker in the United States and are the same as used in the United States and are the same as used in the U.S. Ithaca Rake. Although these Rakes have cost extra on the above account, we will sell low, for cash; or if you are not so flush, give us a good note, or perhaps we can make a trade.
We will sell a Mowing Machine and a Horse Rake for $80.00. ROBT. SMITH, Agent. Woodstock, June 14, 1877-24.

CATARRH Cannot be cured by snuffs, washes, or local applications. It is a weakness of the constitution, developing itself in the nasal organs first, afterwards extending to the throat and lungs, ending generally in Consumption, if not checked by proper remedies. Pains in the head, back, loins, and weakness in the kidneys, are its attendant diseases. More people have Catarrh than any other disease, children as well as adults. It is easily cured. Thousands of cases, some of FORTY years' standing, have been entirely cured by using the Great Constitutional Catarrh Remedy. Price, $1 per bottle. For sale by all Druggists and Medicine Dealers.
