The following is a brief outline of the Dun kin Act, over which, just now, the people o Ontario are so much excited :-

It was prepared in its original shape by Hon. Christopher Dunkin (now Judge Dua-kin,) one of the Lower Canadian members of a Parliament of Canada, before Confederation, and was introduced by him and carried with some amendments. It provides that in quor shall be sold in quantities less than five gallons, and no retail business of any kind people wanted, but it was the best that they could get, and therefore as a rule they accepted it and labored to carry it into opera-tion.
