FREE TRADE! Free Trade!

Protection. Protection.

In consequence of the extreme dullness of the times, and to make room for my Fall and Winter Goods, I now offer my whole stock to the public at prices which are greatly reduced and are beyond competition. Now if you want to see Free Trade in all its beauty, and also the benefits that you may derive by getting more value for less money than any where else in the city, why just call and see that Goods are actually sold for prices that compel even the most devoted friends of the Hon. Alex. Mackenzie and Sir John A. McDonald to unite in saying that it is really McDonald to unite in saying that it is really wonderful what GOOD BARGAINS you can get from that large and carefully selected stock of W. S. SAUNDERS', Main Street, Woodstock.

Call and just see the GREAT SACRIFICE that is now being made in the different lines of

I may say however that the present Government have in my opinion, administered the affairs of the country with honesty and ability, and as long as they continue to pursue the same course they will receive my support.

I also approve of their trade policy, believing that any increase in our present revenue tariff of 17½ per cent. would be detrimental to the bost interests of the Country.

I will vote for measures, not for men. I cannot consent to become the tame follower of any Government, but will favor patriotic legislation from any source that will give the best guarantee that our public affairs will be conducted upon the principles of economy and prudence, with a due regard to the development of the natural resources of our country. In view of the denial to us of Reciprocal trade relations on the part of the United States, I believe the interests of this country would be best subserved by the distribution of the tariff, necessary to be raised, for the exigencies of an economically managed public service, in such a manner as would discriminate moderately in favor of what the country can produce; reduce the tax on such necessaries as we do not raise, and continue higher rates on luxuries, exempting and Radical cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhoea, induced by Self-Abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impediments to marriage generally; Consumption Epilepsy, and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVER-WELL, M. D., author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
