Meanwhile, Prof. Grusselbach adduces many proofs in support of his idea-among others, his experiments during the last ten years, which he says have always proved successful. He took a snake, and treated it in such a manner as to benumb it as though it had been carved in marble, and it was so South had never been able to acquire the brittle that, had he allowed it to, it would have been broken into fragments. In this way he kept it for one or several years, and then restored it to life by sprinkling it with stimulating fluid, the composition of which is his secret. For fifteen years the snake has been undergoing an existence composed of successive deaths and resurrection apparently Catherine Buckley, a rich woman of one without sustaining harm.
