MANHOOD.
HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED!

We have recently published a new edition of THE CURATIVE AND QUANTITATIVE ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure of all (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Impediments to Marriage, etc., resulting from excessive use of the sexual organs, in two postage stamps.

Our distinguished author in this admirable Essay clearly demonstrates from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may ensue from the use of the numerous unscientific and unorthodox remedies of modern medicine or the application of the knife; and that the only safe, simple, and successful means of recovery is by the use of our simple and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may be cured, and his health and vitality restored.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
