an occasional item in which they may be inam writing from the wilderness, and have N. B. road and branches. lumber operation near the head waters of the beautiful stream that passes through your town; any person who has followed this stream the term beautiful stream, with its picturesque ecenery, its rapids, its falls, its long reaches and narrows, and in many places from Monticello to the mouth, its interest is encommodious buildings, as well as saw and grist mills, among which may be mentioned those of Henry Sharp, (a Carleton County mills at certain seasons of the year are taxed to their utmost capacity and turn off good boards, scantling, clapboards and shingles, as well as manufacture good buckwheat meal, flour, &c. Monticello boasts of a starch factato crop was a partial failure this year. ever been an expensive spot during the driving of the logs, this during the past Summer dam at Briggs' mill, which will prove an immense saving in getting the lumber through next spring; the same firm also expended a offered. large sum on the north branch, taking out after spring, the prophecy that a few years less have been furnished, and even last year probably as many as s'xteen millions floated of Calais, is well nigh cleared of merchantone whom I believe to be good authority, that railroad in the western portion of it. acre for this land and it is now subject to the sand, a magnificent property for one firm, still A part of Hale & Craig's work this season is to Presque Isle. on this Township Several other blocks of similar size are owned by a few individuals, no one block so far as I can learn having more than three owners, and I am told one block.

Up Maduxnikik, Dec. 11, 1878.

FOR THE CARLETON SENTINEL. TINEL asks, "upon whom can we lay the we are every day learning, too generously. blame for our so long remaining under the cloud of hard times? Is it owing to the men who stood at the helm of the ship of state? questions excepting the first. The people of scarcer in our Province than in some other parts of the world. Most people can understand that if an individual pays out large quantities of cash from year to year without a corresponding income, his pile will become smaller by degrees, and the same rule holds good with regard to a community or province. lionaries, and yet it is famous as a large ship owning port, the people all pull together.
And surely the St. John valley is capable of furnishing men honest and competent to manage a woolen factory or beet sugar factory or any of those other industries of which the Province stands so much in need. WILLIAM BOYLE.

Nortondale, 16th Dec. 1878. TERMS OF THE SENTINEL.

Subscription $1.50 a year in advance. Transient Advertisements should be accom panied by the money to ensure insertion. Short notices not exceeding 6 lines, 50 cents and the present is enjoyment. irst insertion; 15 cents each subsequent insertion.

The Garleton Sentinel. SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1878.

SENTINEL Office, in Brick Building.

directly opposite Post Office, up stairs.

Those indebted to this Office are reminded that we will gladly take Butter, Poultry, Meat, &c., in payment for said

WE find the following paragraph in

At the meeting of the incorporators of the Northern Aroostook Railroad in Bangor, last brought over this narrow guage road to point east of Bangor, should tap Houlton, Mrs. Osborne and Harry, at all events. His and thence proceed northward to Presque | Honor the Judge admitted grave difficulties road was carried across the St. John and to in the evidence. a way as, evidently, to startle the N. B. application, and granted a discharge.

railroad people into a belief that there; you another, and while I may fail to interest with the E. N. A. road, his idea being, pro- land, and wife of the Grand Duke of miniscences of this remarkable author's brief the very home of free trade. all of your readers, probably some may find bably, that in this way he would be able Hesse-Darmstadt. A short time since one terested. It is generally understood that I to retain the Upper Aroostook trade for the of their children died of diphtheria, and something to perform in connection with a The object sought by the original sugges- mother, but the latest reports previous to tors of the Northern Aroostook road was, Saturday were of a nature calculated to from the head of its various branches to the a shorter line of communication with North- Those hopes proved futile, and that terrible hanced by well cultivated farms and neat of, say 40 miles instead of 96 miles, as via prime of her life the Princess. She leaves We all look for happiness at Christmas man) at Monticello and of Mr. Briggs, at the by a practical rail-road route, and the pre- Majesty will be a severe one, and one in reached, the road will not stop there very 1861. has been greatly improved by Messrs. Hale long, but be built on to Presque Isle. How-& Craig by the erection of a heavy dam below ever, that is a matter for the decision of the this event a sad affliction; it will be the second falls and a substantial sluice way | Americans, and Mr. Gibson has a perfect | felt the more keenly because of the long disat the upper and directly under the rolling right to run any risks he chooses, as regards tance separating her from the other members made their appearance at the mouth, spring Vanceboro; a considerable portion of the N. sorrow as for loyal rejoicing. would find them all cut and the Woodstock B. & C. road, including its branches to Woodmills would have to depend upon St. John stock, Houlton and St. Stephen; the New river logs, but still every year since more or Brunswick road from Gibson to Edmunston, and the Fredericton branch road. The imout from the various branches; all of these did | mediate effect of the road above referred to not reach the month owing to the great scar- being built to Houlton, and the parrow city of water, and it is estimated that some guage road extended from Woodstock to that day of opening, the Convention closed sooner millions are above Briggs' falls. The town, will be to divert a large percentage of not as good as formerly and logs have to be traffic from all the roads and branches named. hauled in some places as far as four miles; and to revoke the benefits to localities and the spruce generally is large and of excellent the country generally to secure which Proquality. Township Cowned by Eaton Bros., vincial aid was so liberally given in the inable lumber, but a splendid growth is coming stances mentioned. Woodstock and Frederon and if undisturbed by fire, will ten years icton would suffer loss equal to whatever hence furnish good chances to operators; this advantages they now gain from the tranship-Township comprises six equare miles with its ment and transit of Aroostook freight, and twenty-three thousand and forty acres of ex-cellent tillage land, quite level and abounding the ill consequence to the Province can only with good size brooks. I am informed by be measured by the benefits derived from the ley.

the owners paid one dollar and a yorker per We simply state in this article what the small state tax of $36.00 per annum, or about project is, and what appears to us the reason one and a half cents per acre. The purchase able consequences; consequences which will money has long since been returned to them be nearly the same whether Presque Isle is in stumpage charges at two dollars per thou- reached, via Houlton, and thence over the it is but a very small portion of their wealth. N. B. road, or by a direct road from Houlto

Only, it should be remembered, that what ever our Province or its people may do to forward the building of the road from Dan-No. 7, is owned exclusively by a Mr. Wilson forth to Houlton, and under whatever guise of Bangor, other principal owners are Murchie | that may be accomplished, it will be just so & Sons, Burleighs, McCriliss of Bangor, and much done toward the ultimate accomplish-Madigan of Houlton We are much in want ment of the road from Houlton to Presque of snow, the ground is well frozen and altho' it has rained all day should it freeze to- Isle. While it is not pleasant to contemplate is it through over production? is it through grand old annual festival, Christmas. Fes- instruct, amuse the children; to minister to obliging disposition. our negligence or indolence?" I believe the tival to millions of the race of men, because the body or the mind-goods or books or toys answer would be in the negative to all these of that solemn and mysterious advent of the are wanted, these articles in every variety and God-man to earth, which it commemor- profuse abundance fill the counters and shelves gent nor indolent; neither can it be owing to ates. As the angels, the stars of the blue of our stores. We hope the weather will be over production, there being no more cheese, firmament and the hoary sages of a previous such as to enable the country to visit the over production, there being no more cheese, butter, or pork produced in this Province during 1878 than in former years. "Hard function the boundance, and it might not be uninteresting to enquire why it is that currency is esting to enquire why it is that currency is the butter, or pork produced in this Province during 1878 than in former years. "Hard function the country to visit the butter, or pork produced in this Province during 1878 than in former years. "Hard function the country to visit the butter, or pork produced in this Province during 1878 than in former years. "Hard function the country to visit the butter, or pork produced in this Province town, bringing in the usual supply of that bears directly upon the Christmas meats, &c., and taking back large investments of the sundries above mentioned, so liberally provided and handsomely displaying the fand while the hoary sages of a previous descendence of the country to visit the town, bringing in the usual supply of that bears directly upon the Christmas meats, &c., and taking back large investments of the sundries above mentioned, so liberally provided and handsomely displaying the provided and handsomely displaying the fand while the hoary sages of a previous dispensation united in a glad celebration over town, bringing in the usual supply of that bears directly upon the Christmas meats, &c., and taking back large in the usual supply of that bears directly upon the Christmas meats, &c., and taking back large in the usual supply of that bears directly upon the Christmas meats, &c., and taking back large on ceutage of cocupation. Mr. Bacon has dispensation united in a glad celebration over them, the sum of the usual supply of the town, bringing in the usual supply of the town, bringing in the usual supply of the town the form them of the season, the sum of th esting to enquire why it is that currency is giving utterance to a triumphant song over ed earth redeemed from the effects "Of man's first disobe lience and the fruit

Therefore, if the people of New Brunswick in their dealings with other countries purchase more than they sell; if the bills payable are greater than the bills receivable; if the balance of trade is largely against us—and this balance must be paid in specie, if paid at the balance must be paid in specie, if paid at the species of the people of New Brunswick in the entropy of the assumption for itself in the illustrations, whose heads the methods of an as-store the methods of an as-store them there dealings with other countries purchase more than they sell; if the bills payable are greater than the bills receivable; if the balance of trade is largely against us—and this balance must be paid in specie, if paid at the people of New Brunswick in the province.

M. Lahan, describes the methods of an as-store them ethose, then, to contemplate. Referring to the assumption by Mr. Palmer that as Mis. McCarthy lived on bad terms with her husband she might down to the last sylable of time, and lay its of saving all that I have found it good for in intended to make vocal the to contemplate. Referring to the assumption by Mr. Palmer that as Mis. McCarthy lived on bad terms with her husband she might have been the murderer, Dr. Tuck said, "If all the women who live on uppleasant terms all the women who live on uppleasant terms are favored unite to bring joy to some poor household by some act of kindness, or by liberal to contemplate. Referring to the assumption by Mr. Palmer that as Mis. McCarthy lived on bad terms with her husband she might of riself in the illustrations, whose work speaks more favored unite to bring joy to some poor of the winter by Mr. Palmer that as Mis. McCarthy lived on bad terms with the natives in favor of the winter of the indicator of the winter of the difficulty of saying all that I have found it good for in the compassion of a large druggist's store on account of insufficient custom with the compassion of a large of the compassion of a large of the compassion of a large of the compassion of a large this balance must be paid in specie, if paid at offering of sacred joy upon the Christmas all the women who live on unpleasant terms van, the sculptor. A companion paper, "The all—then it is plain a change is needed. altars. So even those who forget, perchance, with their husbands did so, two-thirds of the Tile Club at Play," is to appear in the Midwin-Your Victoria Corner correspondent well says, "We buy too much;" we have too much trade and too little manufactures;" While the papers are discussing the policy more will go forward in same ordinance next having a woman come from time to time to of your valuable remedy has made me fit for the country would be widows."

With their husbands did so, two-thirds of the holier associations which cluster around and make Christmas a red-letter day to christmas > whose hearts there has never existed, or from whose hearts there has never existed, or from which they have been driven by the evil spirits of vice, any of the better traits of human nature inherited from Eden, a grand old Festival. It may bring memories and have its present associations to which grief have its present constituted.

>
> Supper' which is also reproduced in whole and in detail. A number of other pictures, drawings of inventions, caricatures, etc., appear through the text. The paper is of a critical-biographical control of in the beater of a Threshing building at Fredericton. While we admit that the present building is not adapted for Brooks, with a large drawing by Mrs. Mary Hallock Foote which opens the number.
>
> The Chignecto Post will have many sympathical in detail. A number of other pictures, drawings of inventions, caricatures, etc., appear through the text. The paper is of a critical-biographical that the beater of a Threshing Medley Ritchie, a boy of 13 years, living with the text. The paper is of a critical-biographical that the present special inventions are defined in detail. A number of other pictures, etc., appear through the text. The paper is of a critical-biographical that the paper is of a critical-biographical that the paper is of a c

Anticipating, by a few days only, this Christmas, the SENTINEL has pleasure in once more repeating its frequent Christmas greeting to its readers. May they all, old and young, especially the latter, realize more of joy than they now anticipate; may it be to the poorest in worldly means, through the munities. Rumors sometimes though preva-

week, Mr. E. R. Burpee made an important the prisoners remanded to prison. After may precipitate a catastrophe financially mas page, made up with original verses, old-time in the English metropolis finds it necessary announcement. He stated that he had been requested by Mr. Gibson, owner of the New Brunswick Railroad, to tell the incorporators that the New Brunswick Railroad, would be extended to Houlton any time that the North-extended to Houlton any tim extended to Houlton any time that the North- be expected than a disagreement of, if not a ern Aroostook Railroad is built to that town. verdict of not guilty by the jury. Nor is there Connections would thus be made and the any probability that unless some new and productions of Northern Aroostook would be striking evidence turns up the prisoners can Houlton and then taken by the Northern be convicted. The judge evidently could not Aroostook Railroad and brought to Bangor. harmonize the contradictions of the chief We briefly referred, a few weeks ago, to witnesses with truth or reason. His Honor this same subject. As the matter is being said there was no evidence against Eliza Osmoved in, it is important that the proposition | borne, to prove her guilty, except as an acshould be understood in all its bearings. cessory after the fact. We should suppose For many years, the subject of building a this might relieve her of any future trial on Northern Aroostook Railroad-a road that, the charge of murder. While many people leaving the E. & N. A. road at some convenient seem to think the case a clear one against caribou, it was supposed that Mr. Gibson had stolen a march on two Northern Aroostook railroad aginators, and given this project it quictus, for a long time at all events.

The spread of theories hostile to free trade and filled with sningles and clapboards, the property of Mr. E. W. Williams, was destroyed by fire on Saturday in fewer of the little and clapboards, the property of Mr. E. W. Williams, was destroyed by fire on Saturday in fewer of the little and clapboards, the property of Mr. E. W. Williams, was destroyed by fire on Saturday of the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce, which, while drawing a dark picture of the long time at all events.

The spread of theories hostile to free trade and clapboards, the property of Mr. E. W. Williams, was destroyed by fire on Saturday in ceramic art will be especially pleased with Jennie J. Young's "Closmone Encluded and clapboards, the property of Mr. E. W. Williams, was destroyed by fire on Saturday in ceramic art will be discovered in the little of the ctrade and clapboards, the property of Mr. E. W. Williams, was destroyed by fire on Saturday in ceramic art will be especially pleased with Jennie J. Young's "Closmone Encluded and clapboards, the property of Mr. E. W. Williams, was destroyed by fire on Saturday in ceramic art will be especially pleased with Jennie J. Young's "Closmone Encluded and clapboards, the property of Mr. E. W. Williams, was destroyed by fire on Saturday in ceramic art will be especially pleased with Jennie J. Young's "A Chapter in the History of Ants" A general impairment of the clark that the lead of theories hostile to free trade and clapboards, the property of Mr. E. W. Williams, was destroyed by fire on Saturday in ceramic art will be especially pleased with Jennie J. Young's "Closmone Encluded and clapboards and clapboards are condition of manufacturing interests in the Caldwell estate, and filed with sningham Chamber of Commerce, which, which estate, and filed with sningham Chamber of Commerce, with the Caldwell estate, and filed with sni But recently the topic was revived in such against the objections raised; in favor of the was, without doubt, the work of an incendi- on the last meeting of the "Royal Agricultural" terms its opposition to protection. At all gator." It is simple, safe and sure. Are you that disease soon manifested itself in McAdam's and the N. B. & C. road. Houl- six children. This is the first of Victoria's ton is, say, within 41 miles of Presque Isle children who has died, and the blow to Her by giving to the poor. Falls, some ten miles from your town. These sumption by some people is that having saved which she has the heartfelt sympathy of her the money he asked for in the English market the distance of 56 miles between, say Dan- people in every portion of the globe. The on, it appears to us, taking everything into forth and Houlton, the proprietors will Princess Alice was a little over 35 years of consideration, most favorable terms. We are be willing to carry the Upper Aroostook age, and was married in July, 1862, and has sorry to notice expressions in some of the ed by Rev, C. H. Paisley, in the Methodist traffic round via Woodstock, a distance of borne seven children. She was the second partizan papers which indicate regret that tory on an extensive scale, and while the po- 1114 miles, from Houlton to Presque Isle, in- daughter of the Queen and Prince Albert. the Finance Minister has been so successful. stead of continuing the Northern road to the She died on the same day of the week and To deserve a good name and to maintain good of some liquor licenses, and the ordering of 600 some twelve tons less than last year. The latter place, thus saving in distance 73 miles. month as that on which her father died—his credit abroad for Canada, should be the aim of feet hose from the American Rubber Hose Com-Falls, some five miles below Monticello, has We take it for granted that Houlton once death occurred on Saturday, 14th December, every true patriot, and Mr. Tilley comes back pany the ultimate effect of the compromise now of her family, and because the intelligence There are some considerations connected somewhat consoled by the general evidence rocks, putting in shear wharfs and straight- with this matter of Provincial concern. The which she will witness in Ottawa, and be and within a half mile as far as it will ever Province, by its money and land, has built— made aware of from other portions of the be possible to drive lumber. I can well re- without Provincial aid they would not have Dominion, that those among whom she has member when a boy in your town, some been built-Western Extension (now the St. come to make a temporary home, have feelthirty years ago, when logs in abundance John and Maine) railroad from St. John to ings equally responsive to the calls for loyal

DEATH OF THE PRINCESS ALICE.

> THE Convention of the Methodist Ministers of the Fredericton District, held at Richmond last week, is worthy of more than a mere passing notice, Owing to the violent storm of rain, which commenced in the evening of the an was intended; but the following papers were discussed in an able and instructive

The Relation of Infant Children to Church, by Rev. W. Harrison.

The Freedom of the Will, by Rev. W. Do

The Responsibility of the Church in rel tion to the World, by Rev. W. W. Colpitts. Science and the Bible, by Rev. C. H. Pais-

The nature of Conversion and its Effects, by Rev. R. Opie.

and closeness of thought, such as were most ing for a Fancy Fair and Festival. Preparcreditable to their authors; while the discus- ations have been completed, and the Fair and barely saved by clinging to the bushes till The sessions of the Convention were attended other attractions, the opening will be renderby large numbers of people, representing the ed more pleasurable by the presence of the different denominations, who evidenced a deep 67th Band. See advt. and sustained interest in the proceedings. The Rev. K. McKay, pastor of the Presby terian Church, attended all the sessions and by invitation of the Convention, participated

Our local traders have made ample prenight and then come snow, the logs will go a necessity for resisting, when resistance can paration to meet the taste of purchasers of effect anything, the prosecution of the work | Christmas goods. Of this any one can be says:of building railroads, it is more unpleasant satisfied by a visit to our grocery, dry goods, to contemplate the internal closing up of great lines of road, toward the construction good stores. Or, if they have no time to is only a short time since he took his bride to introductory remarks, was followed by Messrs. Internal closing up of great lines of road, toward the construction good stores. Or, if they have no time to is only a short time since he took his bride to S. H. Shaw, respectively, all of whom addressed Mr. EDITOR,—A correspondent in last Sen- of which the Province has given, as perhaps make a personal visit to all, they may be in- St, Andrews, and now she, her babe and him- the meeting in an effective and pleasing manner. formed by glancing at the advertisements in

IF our friend Dr. Tuck is as well posted as regards the inner social life of the Brought death unto the world."

So christendom now, as it ever has since that event, continues and prolongs the strains that event the matter to the many poor persons there are to whom the word, Christmas, has an unmeaning sound! Let those, then, six years, confirmed to me all that I have found the most characteristic and unfamiliar phases of the climate in have wintered here speak o

"we want woolen factories, sugar beet factians, appreciate it as a festival of peace and of marriage from an economic standpoint, a ber, a paper on "Leonardo da Vinci," by Sabbath. tories, &c." That's just it. But, say some, kindness; a day sacred to revered and frag- high legal authority has thus made an utter- Clarence Book, who considers his subject both as there is no canital in the country to start such enterprises." I reply, where there's a way. Let every person help according to their ability, and let those who large means have a little more confidence in their fellow citizens. I am told that in the town of Yarmouth, N. S., there are few milled to the few more of the free means have a little more confidence town of Yarmouth, N. S., there are few milled to the few more than their fellow citizens. I am told that in the town of Yarmouth, N. S., there are few milled to the few more than the first have large than the few more than the first have large the attention of the fere Baptists of the free Baptists, at North Branch, have leading the few more than the first have leaded to the more than the first have leaded to the more than the first have large the few more than the first have la It is to all, save those poor wretches in trust that Dr. Tuck has been misreported.

structure could be re-moddled so as to suit, and present a respectable appearance. The finances of the country are in such a state surfaces," a "New Electric Lamp" (others to that new unnecessary expenditures cannot be indulged in, and the cutting off unnecessary departments and branches is unmistakably surfaces, a "New Electric Lamp" (others to be described hereafter), "Hydraulic Fire-Escapes," "New Insulated Telegraph Wire," etc., etc. "Bric-a-Brac" is fanciful humorous and satirical.

them a golden day among golden days; a great care when preparing their items for Voyage of the 'Jettie'" which describes a charmseason full freighted with happiness, peace, generated broad, comprehensive, and patriotic point of publication, in order to avoid giving publicity ing incident of his latter days, with tender skill incident days. genial actions and good resolves. May even to street rumors affecting individuals or comthe poorest in worldly means, through the munities Rumors sometimes though and munities Rumors sometimes though and munities Rumors sometimes though and munities affecting individuals or comaffecting individuals or indebtedness. Providing such articles | 25th, because of unwonted blessings it alforded. And "God bless us every one." | Editor of St. Sytemotas, as she was in the London Times at this late day raising its try him. where a highly respectable and entirely solution was made to figure in a St. John paper as being in business difficulties. He now offers a reward for the jury stood seven for conviction and five for acquittal. The jury was discharged and the prisoners remanded to prisoners remanded to last. There were two concerned in the attempted robbery; one had got through a broken pane of glass into the cellar, while the other remained outside on the watch. Fortunately the fellow in getting through the window broke some glass which noise.

There is no denying the fact that a very considerable party in England is making up its mind that the country has had too much of free trade, and that there is something, after a raid on the green apples we were expressly forbidden to touch. Our mother gave us Perry Davis' Pain Killer then, and the six pictures, by sind the stronger of the cellar, while the other remained outside on the watch. Fortunately the fellow in getting through the window broke some glass which noise.

There is no denying the fact that a very considerable party in England is making up its mind that the country has had too much of free trade, and that there is something, after a raid on the green apples we were expressly forbidden to touch. Our mother gave us Perry Davis' Pain Killer then, and strange to say, no other remedy has been discovered to this day to equal it.

We have now received and opened our entire were expressly forbidden to touch. Our mother gave us Perry Davis' Pain Killer then, and strange to say, no other remedy has been discovered to this day to equal it.

1sle,—has been agitated. When the N. B. as to a conclusion meeting him at every step Asmall building on King street, owned by there is, for readers interested in the curiosities of its friends. the Caldwell estate, and filled with shingles of animal life, Mrs. Treat's illustrated paper, The spread of theories hostile to free trade tual powers (notably a loss of memory) is an in-

Christmas day with no prospect that it will career. Mrs. Brooks, the author of "Zophiel" bring to them or theirs any partial relief a poem from which Mrs. Gustafson quotes large-apart from speculative calculation, to afford inspire hope that it would not prove fatal. spare, without its being missed from their Saint John, will not call me extravagant in ern Aroostook for Bangor and points west, scourge which has proved itself alike the needs and happiness of those scantily providing fluid. The unsightly blotches, pusting fluid. and to secure the traffic entirely on American enemy of the rich as of the poor, and baffles ed with the necessaries of life. There is no and critical summary of the important books of mising advocates of free trade; and it would the skill of the greatest as of the humblest surer source of happiness than the consciousthe skill of the greatest as of the humblest well sustained.

The other editorial departments are be absurd to deny that such a people as the well sustained.

The other editorial departments are be absurd to deny that such a people as the well sustained. It is proposed to reach Houlton by a road practitioners of medicine, has carried off in the ness arising from the making others happy. times, let us seek addition to that happiness

MR. Tilley has succeeded in securing all with an assurance that, at all events, our finan-

MORE WHEAT.- Mr. Robert Spear, reaches her among strangers, but she will be sowing. Mr. Spear wants to know if any farmer can beat that.

> Mr. James Johnston, Centreville, from 3 wheat, the past season. Truly, our correspondent says, "good wheat is not bad." THE annual election of officers of Woodstock Temperance Reform Club was following are the names of the officers elect. W. T. Baird, President; W. R. Snow, 1st. Vice; D. C. Courser, 2nd Vice; Wm. Wallace, 3rd Vice; S. McLeod, Secretary;

G. L. Holyoke, Fin. Secretary Rev. G. W. McDonald, Chaplain A CORRESPONDENT in the St. John Sun, sug-

vires. A grave suggestion. What say our lawyers? In truth this ultra vires difficulty is getting to be rather monotonous in its constant recurrence, and it is about time that our law makers became sufficiently astute to make | F. Hartley. laws respecting the enforcement of which this question could not arise.

Some time since we noted the fact that the The papers manifested extensive research ladies of St. Gertrude's Church were preparsions showed great readiness of debate and Festival will open in St. Gertrude's Hall on accuracy of knowledge on the various topics. Monday evening the 30th inst. Besides the

> FROM Dawson Brothers, Montreal, have a package of Clark's Canadian Christmas and News Years cards. They are very nicely got up, and represent, chiefly, Canadian winter scenes. For sale by all booksellers.

A Sr. Andrews correspondent of the Sun

Some Pork .- Mr J. L Smith killed, last week, a nineteen months old hog, which weighed, when dressed, 735 lbs.

celebrated "Tuesday Club," to the whims and oddities of which considerable space is devoted. as regards the inner social life of the Scribner also introduces a new artist in Mr. happy associations will soon be with us. It is from hearsay only, yet all those persons who lives must be unpleasant. We sincerely trust that Dr. Tuck has been misreported.

The Chignecto Post will have many sympa-

Three Sisters," - one of whom, by the way, is the the 8th inst.

The charge which is taking place in pub-

A sociable in the Club Room, this (Saturday) one, and the public generally are cordially in-

The Annual S. School sermon will be preach-Church on Sunday evening, 22nd inst.

Hon. S. L. Tilley is expected home from Eng- trary. land, to day, Saturday, of ground has allowed people from the country to the Bank having resumed payment.

amply repaid for their time and expense.

decorated for the christmas times. The most of the consumer." otable decoration is the richly burdened and tastily arranged tree in the window of E. J.

Lower Woodstock Items. December 18, 1878. We have a fine school of about thirty scholars, t is progressing nicely under the tuition of Mr.

Our lodge has made up their loss by the late fire. We are going to build a new hall for the There has been a slight fall of snow, but

A girl was nearly drowned while attempting to cross a small stream, on Tuesday; she was mother came to her aid. Mr. Ferris is recovering as fast as could be ex-

Our shoemaker, Mr. Hoyt, evidently intends keeping some feet warm this winter, judging from the amount of work he daily turns off. Mr. Orr is raising a very promising colt, pre-we sent appearances indicate it will be fast. Mr. Orr's bay Jinney is to run against Mr Clark's gray Bill on New Years day.

Grafton Items.

December 19th, 1878 An interesting temperance meeting was held on Thursday evening, 12th inst., in the Lodge room, which was tastefully decorated for the oc-The remains of the late Mr. John Buchan- Tide Lodge acted as chairman, and after some casion. Mr. W. T. Kerr, President of Crystal an, of Westfield, were on Sunday last inter- introductory remarks, was followed by Messrs. self all rest in the grave. Mr. Bunchanan At the close a vote of thanks was tendered those was for some time telegraph operator at Mc- persons who had greened the room for the occatimes of the "Maryland Gazette," and of the a position which thrusts them upon the observa- the hottest part of the summer the evenings given the Porte. tion of the traveller.

A religious revival of considerable magnitude

FREE TRADE IN ENGLAND.

is one of the most vital importance to Canada, Mayor, nine of the twelve aldermen, the and should receive the earnest and impartial street commissioner and all of the school com-St. Nicholas for January. Mr. John G. Whitier opens the christmas number of St. Nicholas with a long and beautiful poem entitled "The istance of petty party or private interests, but from a broad comprehensive, and patriotic point of mittees are Democrats, while the Common consideration of the press. It should not be discussed from the narrow-minded standpoint

of petty party or private interests, but from a permedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a
discussed from the narrow-minded standpoint
of petty party or private interests, but from a permedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a
discussed from the narrow-minded standpoint
of petty party or private interests, but from a permedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a
discussed from the narrow-minded standpoint
of petty party or private interests, but from a permedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a
discussed from the narrow-minded standpoint
of petty party or private interests, but from a permedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a
discussed from the narrow-minded standpoint
of petty party or private interests, but from a permedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a
discussed from the narrow-minded standpoint
of petty party or private interests, but from a permedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a
discussed from the narrow-minded standpoint
of petty party or private interests, but from a permedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a
discussed from the narrow-minded standpoint
of petty party or private interests, but from a permedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a
discussed from the narrow-minded standpoint
of petty party or private interests, but from a discussed from the permedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a discussed from the permedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a discussed from the permedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a discussed from the permedies close up the pores of the skin, and in a discussed from the permedies close up the permedies close up the Newspaper correspondents should exercise tier opens the christmas number of St. Nicholas of petty party or private interests, but from a cans.—Globe.

general fund of information on this subject.

keep her human neighbors in fits of laughter. about as likely to print letters advecating ism may be produced in one susceptable by A burglary was attempted on the store of Mr. W. A. Everett, early Sunday morning last. There were two concerned in the at-the window broke some glass, which noise aroused the attention of Mr. Seaborn, who made his presence known, when the man on the watch ran up street, and the chap in the cellar made his exit through the cellar door. Mr. Everett did not lose anything.

A SMALL building on King street, owned by the profit of the curiosities of the curios show full of curious and instructive information. the great manufacturing centres of England | married? Besides being most disagreeably of- St. John, Nov. 14, 1878 turing interests. Thus the Engineer of Nov. phate of Lime, adapts it in a remarkable degree as a blood purifier well worthy of the trial of those suffering from a diseased condition of the favorable light than formerly. "At the etc. The Literary Record is a comprehensive Switzerland stand alone as the uncompro-Germans, to cite a single instance, includes in depraved nutrition, feeble digestion and imperits ranks statesmen and political economists fect assimilation. The continued use of the of no mean reputation. But these very men Phosphorized Emulsion invariably cleanses the hold with the doctrine that certain industries blood from all these impurities and restores the morn of the Resurrection evening. The programme will be an interesting may with advantage be fostered by protection of the programme will be an interesting may with advantage be fostered by protection of the next the control of the result of the programme will be an interesting may with advantage be fostered by protection of the result of the resu tion. All these facts go to show that there is more in the protectionist movement than activity, and lightness and buoyancy of spirits. child of Thomas and Deborah Emery. The occaon Saturday night a few inches of snow fell, not enough, however, to make very good travelling.

Some persons are willing to believe." The Engineer does not venture to advocate protections.

Some persons are willing to believe." The Country, and fightness and budyancy of spirits.

Prepared solely by J. H. Robinson, Pharmaceutical Chemist, St. John, N. B., and for sale by Druggists and General Dealers. Price $1 00 raised up?" acknowledging that there may be a reasonable argument in its favor. "For ourselves," it continues, "we have always held many years occupied an hororable place in the Dec., Mrs. Burdsell Carpenter, aged 77 years. The Town Council met on Saturday evening. and still hold that Great Britain cannot toilet of American women, and has also attained The only business transacted was the granting adopt that purely protective policy which is popularity in foreign countries. This is because now recommended with any advantage. But it does perform what it promises. Its warmest this in no wise prevents us from giving a friends are those who have used it longest, and fair hearing to those who assert the con- those who sound its praise the loudest are those

Spearville, raised the past season, 70 bushels of first-quality Fife wheat, from three bushels of meats, poultry, produce, &c. rule very low.

ground has allowed people from the country to come in with their produce. Prices for all kinds of meats, poultry, produce, &c. rule very low.

ground has allowed people from the country to come in with their produce. Prices for all kinds of meats, poultry, produce, &c. rule very low.

years ago, a man who seriously advocated wearer.—Sub-Soiler and Democrat, Corinth, Mass. Merchant Bank bills are good for the face, tie, and he could have got no journal of any been looked on as little better than a lunastanding to print his ideas. Reading some An examination into the murderous assault of the English papers nowadays recalls on Mr. W. H. Brittain, in August last, is now the late Horace Greeley; and their argubushels sowing, raised 90 bushels excellent going on before Justice Hayward, Rockland. ments have a very familiar sound. "It is from the blood, and if this bile gets in the brain FRRSH FISH. -- A fish market has been opened impossible, we think," remarks the Engineer, it will there produce a jaundiced tone of mind, by Mr. G. V. Laws, which must prove of great "to deny that the protection arguments which brings about a sense of misery, completeconvenience to our citizens. We know "George" possess much force; and when we look at our ly unnerving the unhappy sufferer, rendering The ladies of the methodist church, Jackson- furnaces, when we see crowds of would-be suicide ville, hold a tea meeting, in Alterton's Hall, this workingmen all but begging from door to WILSON'S TONIC AND SARSAPARILLIAN held on Thursday evening the 12th inst. The evening, 21st inst. Those who attend will be door, and when we hear that the revenue of ELIXIR is especially useful in all diseases of the the country is falling off, while taxes aug- liver. Its cholagogue, or bile climinating action The friends of Rev. George Seely, intend ment, it is difficult to believe that the adop- is very marked. It induces a free flow of liquid cless already made up, there will be REFRESHmaking him a donation visit, at his residence, on Monday evening, 30th inst., at 7.30 o'clock. that unmixed blessing for England which properties soon bring about such a healthy state > the advantage of protection is shown in the nate victims of the "pill box are." ernment of Canada is pledged to adopt pro-tection to a very considerable extent. "English capital has before now fled to the embraces of protection," says the Engineer. For example, the Sanderson Steel Works, Syracuse, U. S., were established by Messrs. Sanderson of Sheffield. The late Mr. Whitof intelligent Englishmen.

For the benefit of persons who may not tion than any other newspaper in the country, averaging about 130,000 copies daily.

It is published every day in the rear Sun It is published every day in the year, Sundays and holidays included.

Manitoba .- The new city of Emerson i ONCE more we have almost reached that once we an acknowledgement of the happy and effective manner in which she had presided in her capacity, in the same manner.

Our village is soon to lose one of its most important and useful citizens. Mr. Geo W. Bacon portant and useful citizens. Mr. Geo W. Bacon Indeed the most striking proof. after a residence of seven years here, leaves in a short time, for the commercial capital to enter upon a change of occupation. Mr. Bacon has supplied by the land which the half-breeds by the 20th.

IAHORE Dec. 18.—An official despatch states that General Brown commenced his march to Jellalabad yesterday which place he hopes to reach by the 20th.

are cool, and a blanket can always be borne Christmas, that season fraught with so many in bed. I can speak of the winter climate

The serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the serious side of the holiday season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number of the season is touched upon by the longest contribution in the number o do the heavy housework. For years the in- work in an hour's time. I take pleasure in formerly a normal school-teacher. and a great student, is the child's teacher, and with the have its present associations to which grief attaches, but these are so interwoven with the garland of joy, and bound up by the garland of joy, and bound up by the magical cord of trust that grief is subdued and the greeness, freshness and elasticity of hope prevails. The past becomes but an index finger pointing to superior joys beyond, and present a respectable appearance. The Democratic majority will probably exceed 20.

The Democrats gained quite a victory in the The question of Free Trade and Protection municipal election in Boston on Tuesday. The Editorial Items.

Do not forget that J. W. Garraty, at his Fac- It cleanses and renovates the blood and instils thoughtful beneficence of those who have plent are base lies, and calculated to do incalplenty, have cause to remember the coming plenty, have cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are plenty are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom they are cause to remember the coming culable harm to those against whom the 25th, because of unwonted blessings it af- directed. An instance occurred recently, Editor of St. Nicholas, as she was in early It is very significant and suggestive to see Furniture you want, he can supply you. Just in the spring and summer months, then the syspriced or low, whatever the character of the from corruption of the blood. Use this ELIXIR Are Cheaper this Fall than ever known before.

"THE poor ye have ever with you" is a Those interested in our early American litera- there is heard the rumble of discontent with fensive to your "better-half," do you not know was some vitality in it, and presently it was Intelligence was received in England and divine truism. Even in Woodstock, much ture will rejoice to see an almost forgotten poetess-Mrs, Maria Brooks, or "Maria del Occi- which the country is now suffering as it has children, in the same or some other form? Dr. annous cod that Mr. Gibson had proposed to on this side the Atlantic, on Saturday last, better off in this respect than many com-MR. EDITOR.—As you do not hesitate in give his assistance for building so much of of the death at her home in Darmstadt, of munities, there are those, doubtless, who, son's delightful paper, giving, through a variety tends to swell the dissatisfaction, and we are cases that had been pronounced incurable. Are publishing my letters I am induced to send the projected road as would connect Houlton Her Royal Highness Princess Alice of Eng- under pressure of ordinary or extraordin- confronted with the strange spectacle of a you unmarried? Be assured you will remain so ess, the Southeys, R. H. Harne, and others), re- large and aggressive protectionist party in while you have that loathsome disease, for cupid will smell it afar off. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has cured cases of catarrh of many years' stand-> neck, as well as other portions of the body, of so per bottle; six bottles for $5.00.

Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer has for Melvin Seely, aged 21 years.

At Richmond, after a short illness, on the 10th who from actual experience and personal trial It is a striking evidence of the changed have demonstrated that by its use gray hair is During the week the town has presented quite a business appearance. The little snow on the favor of protection is even tolerated. Ten

> Diseases of the Liver are especially apt to pro silent cotton mills, and our extinguished iron him insane frequently to the point of inducing MONDAY, 30th INST.,

Many of the stores of the Town are beautifully decorated for the christmas times. The most notable decoration is the righly hardward of the consumer."

The Fair will be opened at 6 p. m., and remain of the system, that the process of nature, which was previously out of joint, go on with their activations and evening during the was previously out of joint, go on with their activations and evening during the was previously out of joint, go on with their activations and remain of the system, that the process of nature, which was previously out of joint, go on with their activations and remain of the system, that the process of nature, which was previously out of joint, go on with their activations and remain of the same time its tonic form. The desire of English manufacturers to get jected to "eternal dosing" as so many unfortu-Xmas Tree, under auspices of Reform Club, n the hall Hartland on Christmas pick.

Club, lish capital to Canada to build up industries lian Elixir is used as it ought to be in all cases gests that the permissive liquor law is ultra in the hall Hartland, on Christmas night. Free under the fostering wing of high duties, for of incipient liver diseases, there will be fewer it is pretty well known that the future Gov- cases of melancholy madness to occupy our Telegraphic Mews.

LONDON. Dec. 17 .- The Times' correspondent with the Kurum column reports that a predatory tribe attacked, on Sunday, the rear guard of the well and other English ironmasters constituted the Southern Iron and Coal Company, in Tennessee, and other instances might be Two British officers were severely wounded. Three Ghoorkas were killed, and twelve Ghoorkas There is nothing in recent political history and one Highlander were wounded. General Roberts has summoned the chiefs of Kurum to anssudden rise in England of wide-spread doubt wer for the outrage. It is feared that three Powerful tribes will combine against the British. In of the advantages of free trade and of a dis- House of Commons to-night, debate on Stanhope's position to again grant a respectful hearing resolution that House consent to defray all of exto the arguments in favor of protection, so penses of Afghan war from Indian revenues was lately scouted as unworthy the consideration discussed. During the debate Sir Stafford Northstances, India should bear the expense of hostilities with her immediate distant enemy. The hos tility to the Empire, he trusted, was nearly conknow The Sun, permit me to add that it is one of the most ably conducted papers in the cluded. They would be better informed in a United States, and has a far larger circula- month as to its real extent and significance. He ment, declaring proposition unjust, and amendment was rejected, 235 to 125. Stanhope's resolution was then adopted without division. Parliament has adjourned until February 13th. LAHORE, Dec 17 .- Lord Lytton, to-day, received 3,000 auxillaries furnished by native prinopled with immigrants from the older ces. He made a speech, in which he declared that anadian provinces and chiefly from Ontario. Great Britain was never an ungenorous toe, but I talked with several and found they were justice must precede generosity. He hoped that highly delighted with their prospects. The highly delighted with their prospects. The unnecessary any further operations. Auxillaries land is superlatively fertile, the soil being a will go to Peshawur on Saturday to guard the comblack mould which is never less than two feet municatios of the Khyber column. Cashmere con-

MR. T. GRAHAM,—Dear Sir,—I have long desired to add my testimony to the many

And a Great Variety of everything suitable for the Holidays—all first-class. casions suffering from severe pain on the left

Editor and Publisher of the Prescott "Plain- WOODSTOCK JEWELRY STORE. EDWIN BOOTH IN RHEUMATISM.—Edwin Beoth suffers terribly sometimes from rheumatism, and if he were not one of the most amiable of mortals The Finest Display of The Democrats seem to be sure of attain- Saxon, expletives. He takes refuge, however, 120 West Broadway, N. Y. Trial size 25 cents.

PARILLIAN ELIXIR. Those who desire brilliancy of complexion must purify and enrich the blood, which this ELIXIR invariably does. the worst disorders that afflicts mankind, arise etc., etc., in great variety. Wholesale and Retail.

New Goods!

WATES & TUBBER. 56 KING STREET. BIRTH

At Wa'ervill . on the 10th inst , the wife of Er sign C. H Ferguson of a daughter.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's father, Fredericton. by the Rev. W. W. Brewer, assisted by the Rev. A. J. Stevens, A.B., Rev. G. E. Good, A.M. may be useless to theorize, and yet how much could those who feast on Christmas day spare, without its being missed from their well spread boards, as a contribution to the may be useless to theorize, and yet how much could those who feast on Christmas day spare, without its being missed from their well spread boards, as a contribution to the may be useless to theorize, and yet how much could those who feast on Christmas day spare, without its being missed from their well spread boards, as a contribution to the may be useless to theorize, and yet how much don papers, and also in the modified tone of the matters advecating protection which crowd the Longard and most imaginative of all poetesses."

IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD.—The decided alternative action of Robinson's Phosphorized the journals devoted especially to manufact the journals devoted espec

Emma V., youngest child of William and Mary Hand, aged two years and three months. Our Hew Advertisements.

At Rockland, Carleton Co., on the 9th inst.,

FANCY FAIR

THE LADIES OF

St. Gertrude's Church

will open their FANCY FAIR and FES-TIVAL on

IN ST. GERTRUDE'S HALL.

Besides the display of Fancy and Useful Artibile, it unloads the liver, and induces a regular MENT TABLES, at which will be found all the > either of the undersigned Ladies:-Miss Mary J. McCann, Susan McCann. · McDonaugh Margaret McCaffery. McCormack, " Mary A. McDoanugh.

> > ADMISSION, 10 CENTS.

Woodstock, Dec. 20, 1878-51.

CHRISTMAS

AND THE

BAIRD'S!

YOU CAN BUY YOUR

TOY BOOKS, DOLLS,

VASES, CUT GLASS,

HAIR OIL, SOAPS, PRESCOTT, ONT., 24th of June, 1878. PERFUMERY-fine assortment,

> No Specialties. Figures Low. Sales Cash.

H. R BAIRD'S DRUG STORE, Main Street.

COME

Woodstock, Dec. 20, 1878

Be autiful Presents in this line from 40 cts. upward.

Silverware on Earth!

AND Elegant Etruscan Sets,

from $14 00 to $50 00.

SEE

THE CLOCKS

W. B. JEWETT, HAY'S BLOCK.

FRESH FISH.

Woodstock, December 20, 1878

PHE coming winter I shall keep a good supply of FRESH FISH, COD, FRESH and SMOKED HERRING; also CLAMS. A good stock now on hand. Call and see me; place of business, under W. S. Corbett's store, Connell's block.

GEORGE V. LAWS.

the Custom House, Woodstock, on Saturday, December 28th, 1878, at I o'clock P. M., the following goods seized for violation of the Revenue Laws:—3 bbls. Flour, 5 bbls. Corn Meal, 1 keg Soda, 1 box Tobacco, 1 box Tea, 5 kegs D. F. MERRITT, Collector.

W. F DIBBLEE, Auctioner.

Woodst. ... Dec. 18, 1878-11 TO LET. THE fine Shop on Main Street, recently occupied by MRS W. Q. SHAW.

Also—That fine, new and conveniently arranged Dwelling House on Emerald street. For further particulars enquire of JOHN WHENMAN. Woodstock, Dec 18, 1878-4i-51.