The Meanest Man in the World Of all the mean characters that have come of all the mean characters that have come under our observation, the meanest of all is the dyspeptic cynic, to whom grumbling has become a second nature. The weather is always too hot or too dry; the meat is too rare or too thoroughly cooked, too fat or too lean—in short he grumbles about everything from his coffee to Congress. He is always in want of something he has not, and forever discontented with whatever he has. Contrariness is his distinguishing trait. If his wife desires to spend the evening with a friend he insists upon staying at home. He warns all his bachelor friends to beware of matrimony. His brain is so full of whims and crotchets, there is little room for reason or sense. But the dysis little room for reason or sense. But the dyspeptic cynic reaches the acme of disagreeableness when a diseased liver has supplemented the grumbling by hypochondria. Then the slightest unpleasant circumstance is magnified into something momentous and terrible. The victim becomes distrustful of his best friends, and all sorts of imaginary evils heart the weekened brain of imaginary evils haunt the weakened brain.

This picture is not overdrawn, as thousands of homes can attest—homes in which domestic happiness and harmony have been wrecked by— nothing more than a dyspeptic and chronic dis-ease of the liver. Given a sound stomach and a healthful liver and the results will almost invariably be health and a cheerful temper. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets are unfailing remedies for all chronic diseases of the stomach and liver. Drug-

About four years ago I got my ankle badly sprained, causing it to swell so much that I could not put on my boot, the pain being so severe that I could scarcely move about for two weeks. I used different popular remedies without benefit till I tried Graham's Pain Eradicator, which cured me by a few applications. I recommended it to a friend who had suffered from a sprain for more than six months and he was cured by less than a bottle.

I have used it in other forms of pain with equal success, and for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats etc., it is the best remedy I have CANTERBURY STATION, York Co., N. B., October 10th, 1876. MR. J. H. ROBINSON: Dear Sir: In reply to your letter of enquiry, I would say that your Phosphorized Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Lacto-Phosphate of Lime is the best preparation of the kind I have ever give us a call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere

I was ordered by my physician to take it, and commenced about the last of August, and since that time I have felt a different man, and also look differently, and all for the better, as the doctor can testify.

I was unable, in the summer, to walk any distance without much fatigue. I can now take my gun and travel all day and feel first-rate at night, and eat as much as any lumber man. Have not bled any since I took your preparation and can now inflate my lungs without feeling any soreness, and I think I can inflate them up to full measurement same as before I was sick; have also gained in flesh, my weight in the summer was 173 lbs., and now it is nearly 190 lbs, which is pretty well up to my former weight.

The foregoing is a correct statement which I am prepared to swear to, and I hereby authorize you to give it publicity in my name.

I am, dear sir, yours teuly,
