I have waited this long to see if the duct toward a married woman—nay, more, had recited his sin with an unction which showed that it had never been sincerely repented of. It is needless to say that everybody first stared at the speaker and then at the accused minister, who for one hundred miles around had won an enviable reputation for uprightness and purity. The accused buried his face in his hands and the chairman desired culars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long, I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your Agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite culars. in his hands, and the chairman desired head. the young brother to repeat his startling accusation with details.
