THERE is, perhaps, no person in the Pro ton mail to bring latest intelligence from outvince who has a more thorough and practiside. But there were no railroads, steamcal acquaintance with its soil and capabilities than Mr. Edward Jack. Therefore, when he communicates any facts to the public respecting the country, which are calculated to impart more generous views to the people regarding it and cause those to hesitate who contemplate leaving it to seek for a better location, these facts should be spread as widely as possible. We therefore quote a letter, published the other day in the Sun, from Mr. Jack. While in that letter he says a good deal about Aroostook, it will be remembered that the characteristics of the soil in Carleton, Victoria and Madawaska are purely the same as those of the Aroostook. Mr. Jack says :-
