WE regret to learn, by a communication in the St. John News from one of the parties. that six of the intending settlers at " Beaufort' have returned to their former residence St. John, having found their anticipations, based upon the representations of Mr. Mills, the Land Agent, who has taken great interest in this settlement, disappointed. They complain that they have been hardly useddeceived by Mr. Mills and the Government.

It is but right to say that since the publication of the letter reterred to above, a communication, signed by a number of the other settlers, has appeared in the Telegraph, and that in this there is an expression of satisfaction with the way things have been managed at Beaufort.
