THE FUTURE OF THE DOMINION. FOR THE CARLETON SENTINEL

SIR,-The agitation in England with regard to the colonies is timely and no doubt will era iong receive due attention. The dling and meddling" with fancy theories as of the British nation. Any policy regarding than she ever did by gold digging. the colonies of a substantial nature never has em rged out of the party of glitter and tinsel; the waiters upon p ovidence. The "Micaw. bers" of politics, " waiting for something to turn up" With a sound, strong liberal Home Government, Canadians may hope for something of a d fferent nature to " confectionery." With a cabinet of statesmen that study something superior to the "conjurers are" we may hope the broad colonial question will assume a practical shape. Years ago John Bright gave ample evidence that be forth as a true friend of the colonies. Right The Garleton Sentinel Hon. W.
