FOR THE CARLETON SENTINEL MR. EDITOR .- On last Saturday I had the stock. At the station I met with Mr. Wm. Hay, formerly of Northampton, Carleton Co. He took me to his residence, a large and tastily finished cottage, built in a pleasant valley on the south branch of the Nackawick stream. When Mr. Hay and his sons came to Millville, some six years ago, it was at most a wilderness, in fact they had to clear a spot on which to build. By industry and perseverance they have cleared a large farm efforts, have tormed quite a vinage, support
