

THE GAZETTE

For the Carleton Sentinel.
Mr. Editor:—I should not have noticed the communication of G. W. Melvin, in your last issue, had it not been for the unwarranted statement in the close of his communication, in reference to the amounts; this statement must be the illegitimate offspring of his own brain, which I have no doubt, will find its way to the printer's block. I have always treated Mr. Melvin as a friend, and it is but reasonable that it was my lot to do so, for he has been so useful to me in the past, that I cannot but feel that he is a true friend.

Mr. Editor:—Your correspondent "Wicklow" has the advantage of me; he knows H. T. S., while I do not. He is only the unsatisfied factory man of guessing what that imaginative individual is. I shall simply state that I do not advocate any change in the Provincial Constitution, and that "Wicklow" is as untruthful as a liar.

SATURDAY, MARCH 15, 1879.

SENTINEL OFFICE, in Brick Building, directly opposite Post Office, up stairs.

We publish elsewhere a report of the speech delivered by Mr. Lindsay, in the Legislative Council, on the address.

It seems to us that, and the speeches delivered by other hon. gentlemen on that occasion, were out of place, and should have been reserved for the discussion on the Government bill to abolish the Council. No doubt the logic of the bulk of arguments used. Even the backwoodsmen referred to will understand that want of economy in one direction is no argument against the practice of just economy in another. We are somewhat surprised to find Mr. Lindsay favoring the abolition of the Assembly, and the consequent return to the Legislative Council as a permanent body. We are not sure that the Government would not be better off if it were to abolish the Council. No doubt the logic of the bulk of arguments used. Even the backwoodsmen referred to will understand that want of economy in one direction is no argument against the practice of just economy in another. We are somewhat surprised to find Mr. Lindsay favoring the abolition of the Assembly, and the consequent return to the Legislative Council as a permanent body. We are not sure that the Government would not be better off if it were to abolish the Council.

Mr. Lindsay's comparative figures of Legislative and Departmental expenses have much interest and are welcome.

Our contemporary The St. Croix Courier, which, with the SENTINEL, has been attending to the abolition of the Legislative Council, regards the reference in the speech as an insinuation against the part of the Government to start a little cheap popularity, and thinks the want of sincerity is proved by the filling up of vacancies in the Council, instead of letting it die a natural death.

We don't know, but rather think the Government cannot afford to play the game of insincerity on this important matter.

The Courier will remember that some institutions die very hard, and that the Legislative Council has always been noted for the longevity of its members, and it is possible that the new appointments have been made with the understanding of this, and thus a vote in the Council may be secured for its own dissolution, which would be the most speedy and satisfactory method of doing it.

How Mr. McInnes seems to take a wholesome view of the situation and, no doubt, when the test comes, many other hon. members will be equally candid. That hon. gentleman said:

"The proposition was insincere. The Government did not intend to vote for it, but he asked their Honors to be in mind that that they would not see the bill. He had been here ten years, and he said deliberately that this House did not check lazy legislation. Perhaps this was the intention, but it failed. Time was wasted, and the Chamber was dead. He had taught him that the Council had not exercised that check which it should exercise. He wanted to get rid of it as soon as he could."

A COLLISION occurred on the Intercolonial Railway, on Thursday last week, near Athol, N.S., by which the driver of one of the engines, and the engineer of another, and Conductor Cameron fatally injured. There was not a larger destruction of life seems almost miraculous.

The collision occurred between a goods train from Halifax and the Quebec Express; both engines and some of the cars were completely wrecked. The cause of the accident was owing to the conductor of one of the engines, who, in passing the train, gave orders by telegraph, as to where he was to cross the other train. The terms of the order, from the train dispatcher, as printed, certainly seem to justify the conductor's interpretation of its meaning.

It is simply shocking that such accidents do occur through misunderstandings which could be avoided by the use of definite words, conveying the meaning unmistakably. Instead of the risks by railroad travel being lessened, as the chapters of experience afford their emphatic lessons, they appear to continue to be as imminent as ever, and it is time the public should understand whether an accident occurs through the stupidity of officials or the ambiguity of the system of signals employed. Of course, the latter is the mistake that should be guarded against, and only provided for, but there appears to be no excuse whatever for two trains to be allowed to meet in the present instance.

We were permitted to attend the regular meeting of The Young People's Institute, held in the Vestry of the Methodist Church, on Monday evening, and were especially pleased at the exercises. The President, Rev. C. H. Paisley takes a great interest in the welfare of the institution, and it must be gratifying to him to witness its success.

The exercises, Monday evening, consisted in the effective rendering of a short song, "I will follow thee, my Saviour," by Miss Lou and Ida Baird; a nicely delivered recitation, "A Pledge to Science," by Miss Goding; a song, well sung, "Coming by and by," by Miss Annie Purples; and the reading of a highly creditable paper on "Chemical Reactions," by Mr. H. T. S., who illustrated his subject by some interesting chemical experiments, in which he was assisted by the President and Mr. Charles McLean. The essay received friendly criticism at the hands of several of the members.

At this meeting the Institute decided to publish a manuscript paper, and elected Mr. Chas. McLean its Editor; Mr. G. L. Holyoke, Assistant Editor; and Miss Allan and Miss Golding Assistant Editors.

The new Town Council met on Thursday evening. Licenses were fixed at $100, and only granted for 3 months. J. McCaffrey was re-elected Marshall, and the old Clerk and Treasurer were re-elected.

Town Elections.

It has rarely, if ever before, happened that such a general interest was taken in a Town election here as was manifested on Monday. Of course the chief excitement was over the contest for Mayor. Mr. Fisher has, it will be noticed by the returns, been re-elected by a good majority, and, save that the majority is rather larger than was anticipated by some of Mr. Connelley's friends, that result was generally expected, we should judge. Certainly Mr. Connelley has reason to feel satisfied with his vote, remembering the personal and official strength of his opponent. We are rather glad that there was a contest, inasmuch as it was the means of shaking up the voters, who, as a rule, exhibit quite too much lethargy on Town matters, and many of whom scarcely go to the polls unless impelled by some special agitation of the Councilors.

A very good election of Councilors has been made. While by the election of Mr. Hay, a very excellent representative has been secured, it is but just to say that he is a superior gentleman, Mr. F. T. Bridges, who has long done credit to himself and his constituents by his conduct at the Board.

It strikes us that the system of voting might be changed very much for the better, by adopting the system of using but one ballot, having on it the names of the candidates for Mayor, Councilors and Assessors for whom the rate-payer wishes to vote. The present system of using three ballots is very inconvenient and, as proved at the present election, the ballots sometimes get into the wrong compartment of the box, and are thus

We have heard it suggested, and we simply mention it now, that it would be better to have all the Councilors elected by the voters at large, instead of by Wards, as at present.

The following are the official returns:

For Mayor.—L. P. Fisher, nominated by D. L. Dibble and P. Davis.

H. A. Connelley, nominated by C. H. Hall and C. B. Churchill.

King's Ward.—Fisher, 64; Connelley, 49.

Queen's Ward.—Fisher, 86; Connelley, 65.

Wellington Ward.—Fisher, 63; Connelley, 55.

For Councilors.—Fisher, 218; Connelley, 168.

For Assessors.—Col. J. R. Tupper, 73; C. N. Scott, 64.

King's Ward.—Mr. McDonald, 64; Mr. Crow, 59.

Queen's Ward.—Mr. Byles, 88; Mr. Munro, 65.

Wellington Ward.—Mr. Connelley, 85; Mr. Graham, 105.

For Assessors.—W. F. McInnes, 66; John Donnelly, 56.

A very large gathering took place at the Victoria Lodge, on Tuesday evening, in response to the invitation of the Ladies of the Baptist Sewing Circle. The ladies had made ample provision for the enjoyment of their guests, and the latter appeared most fully to abandon themselves to the enjoyment of the occasion. The tables displayed a bounteous supply of delicacies and substantial, to which the fullest measure of justice was done. The Band was present and played with capital style, while Prof. Barry's Orchestra added additional zest to the festive scene.

The most interesting part of the programme, however, was the singing of Mrs. Irish, whose powers as a vocalist are so well known here that words of commendation from us would be superfluous. Suffice it to say that this lady was in fine voice and most sweetly rendered "Sweet spirit hear my Prayer," "Rise Queen of the Night," "The Garden Gate," "Rock Bush," in which she was assisted by Miss Faulkner, who admirably sustained the alto, and "Douglas, Douglas, tender and true." Mr. Letts played the accompaniments. The whole entertainment was a successful and pleasurable one. The proceeds amounted to $100.

CARLETON COUNTY LODGE, U. T. A., held its quarterly session, at Richmond Corner, on Wednesday. The attendance was large, and the entire session of most agreeable character. Mr. Geo. McIntosh was elected to fill the vacant Presidential chair. The next session of the body is to be held with Manitoba Lodge, South Richmond.

A most enthusiastic public temperance meeting was held, at which some two hundred and fifty persons were present. There was an excellent meeting, Miss McIntosh presiding at the organ, and Miss L. Currie recited very effectively, "Our Folks." The speakers were the chairman, President McIntosh, Messrs. S. P. Hall, James Baker, A. Henderson, John Kerr, D. J. Longstaffe, Wm. Wallace, Wm. Drysdale, W. S. Thompson and James Watts. The meeting was decidedly a successful one.

The visitors to the County Lodge will long remember the generous hospitality of the people of Richmond.

As will be seen by advertisement the 67th Band have been preparing a grand concert, to be rendered on Tuesday evening next. The Band have practised some very fine operatic selections, noticeable among which are Red Hot Serio-Comic Musical Jamboree, containing many of the most popular airs of the day. Hot Odious and Modest Comedies. The band will be well shown careful training by the Band. In addition to the Band will be assisted by several leading amateurs of the town, viz.: Mr. John McCaffrey, Violonist and Interlocutor; Mr. J. McLean, Song and Dance; Mr. A. L. Kerr and Mr. D. Groves, whose Barrot Cornu Comicalities are too well known to be praised.

The Band should have a good house, as they have on many previous occasions, and different churches and societies of the town free of charge.

FIRE.—The dwelling house of Rev. Joseph Noble, Chapel street, was discovered to be on fire about 9 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The alarm sounded and the steamer was quickly in position at the tank near by, and throwing two heavy streams of water on the burning building. The flames were soon extinguished, but the building was left in a wretched condition, the doors and windows having been pretty generally broken out, and the structure otherwise seriously damaged by fire and water. Members of Mr. Noble's family occupied the second floor of the house, and these lost heavily in clothing, bedding, furniture, &c. Mr. Stanley Street occupied the lower flat, and his loss, in damage to furniture, &c., must be considerable. The building was insured in the London & Liverpool & Globe office, J. C. Winslow, Esq., Agent, for $10,000.

RANSOM seems to be the watchword with many members at the beginning of the present local session. It is emphasized in the Governor's speech, and Mr. Sayre craved its inspiration by a bill to equalize the representation, giving only two members to each County, and promising if this is passed to introduce a bill to lessen the number of the Executive.

We are strongly in favor of reducing the number of representatives, as an act of economy and justice. The present distribution of seats is altogether unfair. Of course, the Government now has too much influence in the Assembly, and with a reduction of the number of members in that body, would necessarily come a change in the construction of the Executive.

COUNTY COURT.

This Court, Judge Stevens presiding, met here on Tuesday. There was no Grand Jury; the attendance was very small, and there was but little business for the Court to transact. The only cases before the session were: Leonard Bradley, Motion for attachment for recovery of $500. Rule granted. A. B. Connelley vs. M. Sherwood, et al. Judgment for the plaintiff. Overseers Poor, Kent, vs. Homer Rourke. Application for discharge from confinement under the Bastardy Act. Examination had and order of discharge granted. Wm. Connelley vs. Overseers, A. B. Connelley vs. Defendant. The only civil case tried was Frederick M. Sherwood vs. Joseph McGee and Benjamin Gallop. Action for Trover, for cow taken by defendants from plaintiff. Defence claimed under bill of sale from one Wm. Stewart to Joseph McGee. Verdict for plaintiff, $122. W. B. Chandler for plaintiff; Wm. Connelley, for defendant.

The new Band gave a street concert on Friday evening last, and the most unclouded service in music must have been rather surprised at the efficiency reached in so short a time after its organization. This band consists of eighteen players, and is under the able and efficient leadership of Mr. Samuel Wilson. After an extended street performance, the band repaired to "Seaborn's Saloon," where, with a few other invited guests, we had the pleasure of participating in a "stew," of the excellent character of which we can speak more confidently than even of the music given by Mr. Wilson and his concert.

The Saturday evening public Temperance meeting, in Reform Club Hall, was largely attended. It was presided over by the recently elected President, Mr. Wm. Wallace, who filled the chair well, and under the able and efficient leadership of Mr. Samuel Wilson. After an extended street performance, the band repaired to "Seaborn's Saloon," where, with a few other invited guests, we had the pleasure of participating in a "stew," of the excellent character of which we can speak more confidently than even of the music given by Mr. Wilson and his concert.

A large delegation of the members of Surprise Lodge, No. 2, attended the District Lodge last night, to attend the District Lodge at Richmond Corner.

On Tuesday, at his residence, Lord Northumberland, a quiet and respected neighbor, a loving and Christian father. The funeral was held at the residence of the late Mr. E. E. Turner, presided over by a very appropriate service of the F. C. Church, led by a large and highly appreciated congregation.

The "fire drill" has been at work on river. On the morning of the 6th inst, a barn belonging to Richard Thompson, near pair of horses, 12 sheep, a quantity of oats and hay. All these were stored in the barn. On the evening of the 6th a fire broke out in J. B. Trafon's new block, Fort Fairfield, Me., and destroyed that block and several other buildings, including stores, offices, &c. The loss is some $20,000.

The Courier says that the Yorks landed with sand, were originally purchased within 15 miles of Woodstock, and that it is not the first time St. Stephen's dealers have been deceived in this way. It is much to be regretted that such a fraud would be perpetrated in any part of the Province, we are more than surprised that it should have occurred in this County, and here we regard the act as all the more reprehensible and less excusable. We are ashamed and pained.

DONATION.—A neat and tastefully fitted organ stool was presented to St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, the other day. Though given anonymously, the general impression is that of Mr. A. Henderson, Upper Woodstock, was the donor.

The members of the choir, especially, feel very thankful to Mr. Henderson for his timely gift.

A letter from Ottawa the St. Croix Courier has the following:—

Ministerial dinner-parties and balls are the order of the day, there being one or two every evening. Three in one evening at the residence of Mr. Tilley, Tupper's and Allen's, were conducted on strictly temperance principles, and there were no scandals, afterward, such as the late dinner-party at the residence of Mr. B. J. Tupper, where the guests were rebuffed for rudeness, and where more than one Civil Service swell was sent out for being out of order. The temperance principle is the only safe one.

At a recent meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

Mrs. M. J. Tupper, President.

Mrs. B. J. Tupper, Vice.

G. Marshall, Secy.

Mrs. L. J. Jones, Treas.

Mrs. W. J. Jones, Cor. Secretary.

Mrs. J. B. Tupper, Secy.

Mrs. R. B. Tupper, Treasurer.

A correspondent writes us that two of the oldest inhabitants of the Parish of Andover, Victoria County, have recently been called to rest:—Mrs. McCrene, of Baidville, who went up the river and settled some sixty-two years ago; and Mr. Curry, of Little River (formerly of Andover). The deceased were, each, between 90 and 100 years old.

NEW BRUNSWICK THE WINNER.—The single track race between Wallace Ross, of St. John, and Frank Emmett, of Jarrovetown-Tyne, for £100 a race, took place on the Thames, on Monday last. The contest resulted in an easy victory for Ross.

MONTREAL has dotted another defaulting bank cashier, who embezzled $100,000 of funds of the Hochelaga Bank.

Hon. E. H. B. Boyer, was elected Lord Mayor of the Corporation of London, and the distinguished reformer, is dead.

The Government of Prince Edward Island has been defeated on a want of confidence motion by a vote of 10 to 10.

JOTTINGS.

The rite of baptism was administered to one candidate, by Rev. G. W. McDonald, on Sabbath last.

The name of Gin Brock, located between Rockland and St. John, has been changed to that of Glenwood.

Kirkland (No. 10) Items.

March 10, 1879.
Yesterday morning, a large number of the Bantam school children, comprising 14 teachers and 22 others—36 in all—made a friendly visit to the Bantam school by stage, and had a very enjoyable and profitable session together. The school here is very prosperous; the attendance yesterday was 100. On their return home the Bantam delegation was accompanied by our Superintendent and fifteen others, who had the privilege of attending the exercises of the S. S. in the morning. They found 161 scholars present, and were delighted with the appearance of the school and the courtesy of the officers and teachers. Such fraternal visits between Sabbath schools ought to be more frequent, they are productive of much good.

Northampton Items.

March 12, 1879.

A great deal of sickness has prevailed in this Parish during the present winter, chiefly diphtheria, congestion of the lungs, &c. The aged and young have alike fallen victims to the king of terrors. At present writing the number of cases is diminishing.

On the return home the Bantam delegation was accompanied by our Superintendent and fifteen others, who had the privilege of attending the exercises of the S. S. in the morning. They found 161 scholars present, and were delighted with the appearance of the school and the courtesy of the officers and teachers.
