Miscellaneous.

HE COULDN'T CONVERSE.—They were sitting on the stoop together. It was just 8 47 p.m. The moon was floating serenely across the heavens, which looked like an immense stretch of pale satin dappled with diamonds. There wasn't breeze enough to make the violets nod. The dew fell with its customary softness, and was pillowed upon the petal of the dreaming lily. After they had contemplated all the beauty of the foregoing tintype, he broke the silence:

"It rained this afternoon, didn't it, my pet?"

"It did," she replied sweetly.

"We have had a great deal of rain lately, haven't we dearest?" he went on as he gave a hitch at his suspenders.

"We have."

"Do you like rain, my little peach?'

"No."

"Neither do I."

Then there was another long pause, and more contemplation of the aforesaid tintype, when the bashful youth again went on very feebly:

"Does my little gold-haired gum-drop think it will rain to-morrow?"

"I think not."

"I wonder if it will be raining next Thursday?"

"Don't know; but I think it will rain to-morrow."

"Why do you think so?"

"Why, because the skies look cloudy.'

"They are quite bright," he went on with a smile.

"I beg your pardon," she responded, good-naturedly. "It was one of your ears that I took for a dark cloud."

And then the young man who couldn't get up a conversation, abruptly left.

WHO WOULDN'T BE AN EDITOR.—One of the beauties and charms of an editor's life is his dead-headi g it on all occasions, No one who has ever tasted of the sweets of that bliss can begin to take in its glory and its happiness. He does $40 worth of advertising for a railroad, gets a "pass" for a year, and rides $25 worth; and then he is looked upon as a dead-head, or a half-blown dead beat.—He "puffs" a theatre or concert troupe $10 worth and gets $1.00 in "complimentaries," and is thus passed in "free." If the hall is crowded he is begrudged the room he occupies—for it his complimentaries were paying tickets the troupe would be so much in pocket. He blows and puffs a church festival free to any desired extent, and does the poster printing at half rates, and rarely gets a "thank you" for it. It goes in as part of his duty as an editor. He does more work gratuitously for the town and community than all the rest of the population put together, and gets cursed for it all, in many instances, where a man who donates a dollar for the fourth of July, base ball club or church, is gratefully remembered. Oh, it is a sweet thing to be an editor. He passes "free," you know.—DeWitt Observer.

But the class of pets which are most dangerous to the church are pet virtues. Men have some particular gift of grace which by nature it is easy for them to exercise, and they make the most of that virtue. It is very easy for one man to be patient, and he throws all the power of his religion into patience, while perhaps the thing he most needs is benevolence, or activity, or faith. Another man is by nature generous, and he turns all the power of his grace in the direction of his pet virtue, neglecting prudence or patience. Now the value of grace is not in that it makes us strong on the side of our natural virtues, but that it makes us balanced on the side of our natural defects.—Golden Rule.

WHAT CAME NEXT TO MAN?—A story is told of a teacher who was talking to her scholars regarding the order of the higher beings. It was a very profitable subject, and one in which they took an uncommon interest. She told them the angels came first in perfection, and when she asked them who came next, and was readily answered by one boy, "Man," she felt encouraged to ask, "What came next to man?" And here a little shaver who was evidently smarting under defeat in the preceding question, immediately distanced all competitors by shouting out, "His undershirt, ma'am!"

THE undersigned having purchased one of Small & Fisher's superior and latest improved THRESHING MACHINES, and secured a first-class hand, from Kennebec, to run the same, is prepared to do all kinds of Threshing at shortest notice.

All orders left with J. W. FREDERICK, with the machine or with the undersigned, will be promptly attended to.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN.

WE have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED

FACT ATTESTED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITIES IN THE WORLD.

A careful observance of the laws of health, and the systematic and persistent use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA will accomplish this result. This preparation has all the virtues of these two most valuable specifics, in a form perfectly palatable and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, and we make the unqualified statement that SCOTT'S EMULSION is being used with better results, and endorsed and prescribed by more physicians for Consumption—and the diseases leading to it, such as Chronic Coughs, Bronchitis, Scrofula, Anæmia, General Debility and the Wasting Disorders of Children, than any other remedy known to medical science. The rapidity with which patients improve on this food medicine diet, is truly marvellous.

See what Physicians and the People say about it.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE: 66 West Thirty-sixth Street, New York, Sept. 2, 1876.

GENTS—I have frequently prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites during the past year, and regard it as a valuable preparation in scrofulous and consumptive cases, palatable and efficacious. C. C. LOCKWOOD, M. D.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE:—Gentlemen—Within the last year I have used in my own family, and in my private practice prescribed very extensively Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites and found it a most valuable preparation, especially in diseases of children. It is agreeable to the most delicate stomach; which renders it a very reliable agent as a nutritive remedy in consumptive and scrofulous cases.

Oct. 12, 1879. Yours respectfully, A. H. SAXTON, M. D., Baltimore.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE:—Gentlemen—With the last two months I have fairly tried Scott's Emulsion or Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, and I candidly declare that it is the finest preparation of the kind that has ever been brought to my notice; in affections of the lungs and other wasting diseases, we can consider it our most reliable agent, in a perfectly elegant and agreeable form. Very truly, J. SIMONAUD, M. D., New Orleans, La.

December 10th, 1878.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE:—Gentlemen—In September, 1877, my health began to fail and my physician pronounced it spinal trouble; under his care I got some relief from pain, but my general health did not improve, and early in the winter, I began to raise blood and rapidly grew worse. In May last I was taken with a violent bleeding which brought me to my bed and my life was despaired of for many weeks; violent symptoms appeared, night and morning coughs, night sweats, short breath, and a return of the spinal trouble. My physician stopped the bleeding and then ordered Cod Liver Oil and Lime; and I used various preparations, but they did me no good. I lost all hope of life, and was an object of pity to all my friends. Last September I purchased a bottle of your Emulsion and before it was all taken I was better. I then bought a dozen bottles and have taken all with the following results: Cough subsiding, night sweats stopped, appetite returned, pains in spine disappeared, strength returning, and my weight increased from 118 to 140 pounds in sixteen weeks. I have taken no other medicine since commencing with your Emulsion and shall continue its use until I am perfectly well. I frequently meet some friend on the street who asks, what cured you, and I answer, Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, &c. I have a friend who has what cured you, and I answer, Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, &c. I have a friend who has not spoke aloud for 15 months and he is getting better. I gave him a bottle, and he bought two more, then got a dozen and says it is food and medicine for him. He was given up to die a year ago; but he is improving now wonderfully. My recovery is exciting the surprise of many people, and I shall do all I can to make known your valuable medicine.

Jan. 20th, 1879. Very truly yours, H. F. SLOCUM, Lowell, Mass.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE: LYNN, Randolph Co., Ind., July 2nd, 1878.

About the 25th of last April I got a bottle of your Emulsion, and at that time I was so prostrated that no one who saw me thought I could live but a few days at most. I could retain nothing on my stomach and was literally starving. I commenced the use of the Emulsion in small doses; it was the first thing that would stay on my stomach; I continued its use, gradually increasing the dose; and from that hour I commenced mending, and now am able to ride and walk and am gaining flesh and strength rapidly. I have advised other parties to try it, and some two or three have already tried it. I am sure I shall entirely recover. I am gratefully yours,

R. W. HAMILTON, M. D.
