A TRAGEDIAN'S SORE THROAT.—Edwin Booth, like most of his professional brethren, suffers frequently from severe inflammation of the throat, which prevents him occasionally from appearing on the stage. This theatrical sore throat is sometimes so serious that it actually drives an actor into private life. Booth, however, promptly stops the first symptom with Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia.

Our sales during this month, notwithstanding the cry of Hard Times ever ringing in our ears, have been enabled to receive the goods in a perfect condition and with as bright an appearance as when they left the Factory.

Too much importance cannot be attached to the fact that these goods are bought at a Factory situated in a very forest of Walnut, and which employs designers from every nation of the Globe, whose aim is always to produce something which will make for them a reputation.

Our Stock now consists of WALNUT BED-ROOM SETS, SIDEBOARDS, BOOK CASES, DESKS, CENTRE and LIBRARY TABLES, DINING TABLES and CHAIRS, HAT TREES, WHATNOTS, FANCY STANDS, &c.

We have also opened our DRAWING ROOM SUITS, which have been made to our order in New York. The stock contains styles which can

Throughout France it has a standard reputation.

It is only new on this side of the Atlantic. From a knowledge of its virtues we claim for it a large share of the confidence of the public. We do it from knowing that what it promises to do, it does effectually. It knows no failure,—is the most speedy, safe and certain in its cures. The smallest particle of it is worth more than a dozen bottles of oils, which contain no Magnetism —for, without Magnetism Death, for Magnetism —for, without Magnetism Death, for Magnetism oils, all combining Magnetic Force.
