Miscellaneous.

THE USE OF THE TELEGRAPH.—"I came here to New York, one hundred miles out of my way, to see a man. When I got here, went to the St. Nicholas, and when I was ready to go out and see my man, I had lost his address, and couldn't think of his first name even. And his last name was only Johnson. You know what it is to find anybody in New York when you don't know their address. It is worse than finding an honest man. Well, this man was a new comer here; name wasn't in the directory. I asked questions until I made a fool of myself. Then I said to the telegraph operator at the St. Nicholas, 'It'll keep me here a week. I've got to write to St. Louis to get that man's address.' 'Telegraph,' the operator said. Well, I never thought of that before. I wrote a despatch right away. 'To Gottit and Keapit, brokers, St. Louis—What is our man Johnson's first name, and what's his address?' And in due course the answer came back—'James P., St. Nicholas Hotel.' What do you think of that, stranger? I went to the clerk, and said, 'Is Mr. James P. Johnson in his room?' 'That is Mr. James P. Johnson,' said the clerk. The man, stranger, was standing beside me, waiting for me to move so that he could speak to the clerk. And I had just sent 1,064 miles to find where he was." Equally remarkable was the experience of the man who came from Berlin to Paris to attend the last International Exhibition. On his arrival he wrote home to his family, giving them the street and number of his boarding-house. Two or three days after, he took a walk into a part of the city to which he was unaccustomed. Having forgotten the strange French name of the street, he was obliged to telegraph to his family in Berlin to learn where he boarded in Paris, and in half an hour he found the way back.—N. Y. Observer.

POPULAR FALLACIES.—There is a wonderful vigor of constitution in a popular fallacy. When the world has once got hold of a lie, it is astonishing how hard it is to get it out of the world. You beat it about the head till it seems to have given up the ghost; and lo! the next day it is as healthy as ever again. The best example of the vitality of a fine saying, which has the advantage of being a fallacy, is in the over-hackneyed piece of nonsense attributed to Archimedes, viz.: "that he could move the earth, if he had any place at a distance from it to fix a prop for his lever." This is one of the standard allusions—one of the necessary stock-in-trade, for all orators, poets, and quotation writers; and persons, whenever they meet with it, take Archimedes for an extraordinarily great man, and cry, "How wonderful!" Now, if Archimedes had found his place, his prop and lever, and if he could have moved it with the swiftness of a cannon-ball, 485 miles every hour, it would have taken him just 44,963,540,000,000 years to have raised the earth one inch.—Selected.

"I believe in a personal devil," said Mr. Moody, at a revival meeting held in a remote western city. "That's true, that's true, you're right there stranger," said an old farmer, rising from his seat in his earnestness. Whereupon a calm-faced, placid looking woman rose from the other end of the pew, took him by the ear and led him slowly out, and the assembly knew then for the first time, that the old man's mind was filled with domestic thoughts instead of the hereafter.

CONSUMPTION

CAN BE CURED

IS A FACT ATTESTED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITIES IN THE WORLD.

A careful observance of the laws of health, and the systematic and persistent use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA will accomplish this result. This preparation has all the virtues of these two most valuable specifics, in a form perfectly palatable, and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, and we make the unqualified statement that SCOTT'S EMULSION is being used with better results, and endorsed and prescribed by more physicians for Consumption—and the diseases leading to it, such as Chronic Coughs, Bronchitis, Scrofula, Anaemia, General Debility and the Wasting Disorders of Children, than any other remedy known to medical science. The rapidity with which patients improve on this food medicine diet, is truly marvellous.

See what Physicians and the People say about it.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE: 66 West Thirty-sixth Street, New York, Sept. 2, 1876.

GENTS,—I have frequently prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites during the past year, and regard it as a valuable preparation in scrofulous and consumptive cases, palatable and efficacious. C. C. LOCKWOOD, M. D.

Messrs. SCOTT & BOWNE:—Gentlemen—Within the last year I have used in my own family, and in my private practice prescribed very extensively Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites and found it a most valuable preparation, especially in diseases of children. It is agreeable to the most delicate stomach; which renders it a very reliable agent as a nutritive remedy in consumptive and scrofulous cases.

Oct. 12, 1879. Yours respectfully, A. H. SAXTON, M. D., Baltimore.

Messrs. SCOTT & BOWNE:—Gentlemen—With the last two months I have fairly tried Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, and I candidly declare that it is the finest preparation of the kind that has ever been brought to my notice; in affections of the lungs and other wasting diseases, we can consider it our most reliable agent, in a perfectly elegant and agreeable form. Very truly, J. SIMONAUD, M. D., New Orleans, La.

December 10th, 1878.

Messrs. SCOTT & BOWNE:—Gentlemen—In September, 1877, my health began to fail and my physician pronounced it spinal trouble; under his care I got some relief from pain, but my general health did not improve, and early in the winter, I began to raise blood and rapidly grew worse. In May last I was taken with a violent bleeding which brought me to my bed and my life was despaired of for many weeks; violent symptoms appeared, night and morning coughs, night sweats, short breath, and a return of the spinal trouble. My physician stopped the bleeding and then ordered Cod Liver Oil and Lime; and I used various preparations, but they did me no good. I lost all hope of life, and was an object of pity to all my friends. Last September I purchased a bottle of your Emulsion and before it was all taken I was better. I then bought a dozen bottles and have taken all with the following results: Cough subsiding, night sweats stopped, appetite returned, pains in spine disappeared, strength returning, and my weight increased from 118 to 140 pounds in sixteen weeks. I have taken no other medicine since commencing with your Emulsion and shall continue its use until I am perfectly well. I frequently meet some friend on the street who asks, what cured you, and I answer, Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, &c. I have a friend who has not spoke aloud for 15 months and he is getting better. I gave him a bottle, and he bought two more, then got a dozen and says it is food and medicine for him. He was given up to die a year ago; but he is improving now wonderfully. My recovery is exciting the surprise of many people, and I shall do all I can to make known your valuable medicine.

Jan. 20th, 1879. Very truly yours, H. F. SLOCUM, Lowell, Mass.

Messrs. SCOTT & BOWNE: LYNN, Randolph Co., Ind., July 2nd, 1878.

About the 25th of last April I got a bottle of your Emulsion, and at that time I was so prostrated that no one who saw me thought I could live but a few days at most. I could retain nothing on my stomach and was literally starving. I commenced the use of the Emulsion in small doses; it was the first thing that would stay on my stomach; I continued its use, gradually increasing the dose; and from that hour I commenced mending, and now am able to ride and walk and am gaining flesh and strength rapidly. I have advised other parties to try it, and some two or three have already tried it. I am sure I shall entirely recover. I am gratefully yours,

R. W. HAMILTON, M. D.
