past year in detail, as well as the financial state at Dec. 31, 1879, I have carefully ex-43 31 amined and audited, finding the same correct, revised recapitulation, with total result as 2990 00 Receipts of the year, $18024 71 16752 55 Bal. in Sec. Treas. hands Dec. 31, 1879, $1272 16 Against this balance I find a balance due on County School Drafts of $654 48. leaving a balance for ordinary purposes of $611 98.

The balances due the County from the different Parishes at the close of the year, 40 00 amounted to $2904.59. These balances have amounted to $2904.59. These balances have been reduced by payments made since Dec. 31st 1879, as will appear in the accounts with the respective Parishes.

The balance due the County as per Auditor's Report, Dec. 31st, 1878, was $1183.25, showing a difference in those year 1721.34 In reporting upon the Parish Returns 1 bave not reported old balances, believing that the Auditor could give a much more accurate statement upon those after the action of Council upon returns, and for this purpose I must in the statement in the accounts with the first purpose I must in the statement in the accounts in the accounts of the county as per Auditor's Received in 1880.
