No BITTERNESS .- THE QUIET WAY IN WHICH TWO OLD GENTLEMEN DISCUSSED Politics.—Grandfather Lickshingle and Deacon Redspinner, two patriarchs in this community, were walking down the street together yesterday. It was remarked that two such venerable men were not often seen together, and people raised their hats to them as they passed along and spoke to them reverently,-"There's entirely too much bitterness

I could retain nothing on my stomach and was literally starving. I commenced the use of the Emulsion in small doses; it was the first thing that would stay on my stomach; I continued its use, gradually increasing the dose; and from that hour I commenced mending, and now am able to ride and walk and am gainling flesh and strength rapidly. I have advised other parties to try it, and some two or three have already tried it. I am sure I shall entirely recover.
