Miscellaneous.

"COONSKIN."—A passenger train which left Lansing coming east the other day had among the passengers a plain-faced sensible-looking girl about twenty years of age, and a thin-wasted sickly-looking young man a year or two older. No one would have mistrusted that they were eloping had not the young man asked the conductor if there was a clergyman on the train. There was none, and the young man explained to the passengers around him that he was in a bad fix. He had come down from Bath Township in a buggy, and he was quite sure that the girl's father would take the other road down to Chicago Junction, and there board the Lansing train and raise a row. He was not much on a row, but yet he loved the girl, and they were bound. If the old man came along he thought he could bluff him off, but if his two big sons come along the scale would be turned. He therefore wanted to know of a man wearing a red woolen shirt and coonskin cap if he would stand by him.

"You bet I will!" was the hearty response. "I got my old gal by running away with her, and I will see you through this if I never do any more good! You would not be worth a cent in a free fight and now you go into the baggage car and let me run this affair alone. I want to be seated beside the gal when the old man comes in."

When the whistle blew for the Junction, Coonskin changed places, and as the cars halted he put his arm around Mary and took one of her hands in his. The old man and his two sons were on hand, and they piled into the car pell-mell.

"Here she is!" called the father, as he caught sight of the girl, and the three made a rush.

"Run away with my——!" began the old man, but when he saw the stranger beside her he checked himself.

"Want anything of us!" asked Coonskin, as he looked up.

"Who are you, sir."

"I'm going to be your son-in-law in less than an hour—eh! darling?"

He gave Mary a squeeze and Mary looked happy.

"Come along, Mary—come right home with me!" ordered the father.

"Let's mash the villian!" added one of the sons.

"Put a head on him—let me get at him!" shouted the other.

The father seized Mary and the sons seized Coonskin. Then a red shirt towered aloft, a pair of big fists began working with a "pop!" and as fast as the trio got up they made for the door. Coonskin followed, arms and feet working like a trip hammer, and when the train moved off the father sat on a box with a big woollen mitten held to his nose, one of the sons was pulling loose teeth from his jaw, and the other boy was groping his way to a snow bank.

"Now then," said Coonskin, as the exultant lover returned, "resume yer seat, take her little hand in yours, and don't calkerlate you owe me anything."

"Say Tom," said the girl, "I'm going to kiss him for that!"

"All right sis."

"Wall, just as you feel," said Coonskin, as he returned the smack, "but I want it distinctly understood around these parts, that when I see true love on its way from Lansing Howell to get spliced I kin lick all the pursuing dads in the State of Michigan!"—Detroit Free Press.

A LAWYER'S PERORATION IN BEHALF OF A FEMALE CLIENT.—A lawyer in Cleveland, Ohio, was defending a very handsome young woman accused of stealing from a large unoccupied dwelling in the night time; and thus he spoke in conclusion:—Gentlemen of the Jury, I have done. When I gaze with enraptured eye on the matchless beauty of this peerless maiden, on whose resplendent charms suspicion never dared to breathe—when I behold her radiant in the glorious bloom of luscious loveliness, which angelic sweetness might envy but could not eclipse—before which the star on the brow of the night grows pale, and the diamonds of Brazil are dim, and then reflect upon the utter madness and folly of supposing that so much beauty and gentleness would expose itself to the terrors of an empty building, in the cold, damp, and dead of the night, when innocence like hers is biding itself amid the snowy pillows of repose—gentlemen of the jury, my feelings are too overpowering for expression, and I throw her into your arms for protection against this foul charge, which the outrageous malice of a disappointed scoundrel has invented to blast the fair name of this lovely maiden, whose smile shall be the reward of the verdict which I know you will give!—Gentlemen! you may hang the ocean on a grapevine to dry; lasso an avalanche: pin a napkin to the mouth of a volcano; skim the clouds from the sky with a teaspoon; throw salt on the tail of our noble American eagle, whose sleepless eye never watches over the welfare of the nation; paste "For Rent" upon the moon and stars—but never for a moment delude yourself with the idea that this charming girl is guilty of the charge preferred against her." The jury acquitted her without leaving their seats.

A boy in a Sunday school proposed a question to be answered the following Sunday. "How many letters does the Bible contain?" The answer was three millions five hundred and thirty thousand three hundred and thirty-three.—The superintendent says to James: "Is that right?" "No, sir," was the prompt reply. "Will you please tell us how many there are then?" "Twenty-six, sir."

A man will mash his fingers into a jelly while cracking nuts for the hired girl, but let his wife ask him to tack down the parlor carpet, and there comes a series of articulation that was never known to harmonize with a camp meeting to any great extent.—Oswego Record.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED

IS A FACT ATTESTED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITIES IN THE WORLD.

A careful observance of the laws of health, and the systematic and persistent use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA will accomplish this result. This preparation has all the virtues of these two most valuable specifics, in a form perfectly palatable and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, and we make the unqualified statement that SCOTT'S EMULSION is being used with better results, and endorsed and prescribed by more physicians for Consumption—and the diseases leading to it, such as Chronic Coughs, Bronchitis, Scrofula, Anæmia, General Debility and the Wasting Disorders of Children, than any other remedy known to medical science. The rapidity with which patients improve on this food medicine diet, is truly marvellous.

See what Physicians and the People say about it.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE: 66 West Thirty-sixth Street, New York, Sept. 2, 1876.

GENTS—I have frequently prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites during the past year, and regard it as a valuable preparation in scrofulous and consumptive cases, palatable and efficacious. C. C. LOCKWOOD, M. D.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE:—Gentlemen—Within the last year I have used in my own family, and in my private practice prescribed very extensively Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites and found it a most valuable preparation, especially in diseases of children. It is agreeable to the most delicate stomach; which renders it a very reliable agent as a nutritive remedy in consumptive and scrofulous cases.

Oct. 12, 1879. Yours respectfully, A. H. SAXTON, M. D., Baltimore.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE:—Gentlemen—With the last two months I have fairly tried Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, and I candidly declare that it is the finest preparation of the kind that has ever been brought to my notice; in affections of the lungs and other wasting diseases, we can consider it our most reliable agent, in a perfectly elegant and agreeable form. Very truly, J. SIMONAUD, M. D., New Orleans, La.

December 10th, 1878.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE:—Gentlemen—In September, 1877, my health began to fail and my physician pronounced it spinal trouble; under his care I got some relief from pain, but my general health did not improve, and early in the winter, I began to raise blood and rapidly grew worse. In May last I was taken with a violent bleeding which brought me to my bed and my life was despaired of for many weeks; violent symptoms appeared, night and morning coughs, night sweats, short breath, and a return of the spinal trouble. My physician stopped the bleeding and then ordered Cod Liver Oil and Lime; and I used various preparations, but they did me no good. I lost all hope of life, and was an object of pity to all my friends. Last September I purchased a bottle of your Emulsion and before it was all taken I was better. I then bought a dozen bottles and have taken all with the following results: Cough subsiding, night sweats stopped, appetite returned, pains in spine disappeared, strength returning, and my weight increased from 118 to 140 pounds in sixteen weeks. I have taken no other medicine since commencing with your Emulsion and shall continue its use until I am perfectly well. I frequently meet some friend on the street who asks, what cured you, and I answer, Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, &c. I have a friend who has not spoke aloud for 15 months and he is getting better. I gave him a bottle, and he bought two more, then got a dozen and says it is food and medicine for him. He was given up to die a year ago; but he is improving now wonderfully. My recovery is exciting the surprise of many people, and I shall do all I can to make known your valuable medicine.

Jan. 20th, 1879. Very truly yours, H. F. SLOCUM, Lowell, Mass.

MESSRS SCOTT & BOWNE: LYNN, Randolph Co., Ind., July 2nd 1878.

About the 25th of last April I got a bottle of your Emulsion, and at that time I was so prostrated that no one who saw me thought I could live but a few days at most. I could retain nothing on my stomach and was literally starving. I commenced the use of the Emulsion in small doses; it was the first thing that would stay on my stomach: I continued its use, gradually increasing the dose; and from that hour I commenced mending, and now am able to ride and walk and am gaining flesh and strength rapidly. I have advised other parties to try it, and some two or three have already tried it. I am sure I shall entirely recover. I am gratefully yours. R. W. HAMILTON, M. D.

KNOW THYSELF.

THE untold miseries that result from indiscretion in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work, published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; or, SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

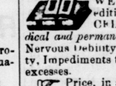
The Great Cause of HUMAN MISERY.



WE have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
