Temperance Column.

This column, by special arrangement is under the control of the Executive of the Grand Lodge, I.O.G.T., of New Brunswick. All notices in it may be regarded by the Lodges and Deputies as official.

Official Notice.—All communications relating to Constitutional questions, must be addressed to James Watts, G. W. C. T., Woodstock, N. B.

All Remittances, Orders and Returns, must be addressed to A. W. D. Knapp, G. W. S., Sackville, Westmorland Co., N. B.

A. W. D. KNAPP,
G. W. Secretary.

Some of our contemporaries appear to have formed an unjust estimate of the effectiveness of the Canada Temperance Act, from some remarks made at the Woodstock Town Council Board a short time since. The law itself certainly does not possess the faculty of working itself. It does not provide eyes for the discovery of violators of its provisions, or tongues to tell of that discovery. There are attributes with which legislation, however wise, may scarcely clothe any law. But the law, in its interpetrations of what constitutes a violation; in the grip it takes of those amenable to its penalties, is one that must, with any show of consistency on the part of those who seek its protective influence, be respected—must be efficient. When it is said there is no open selling of liquor in Woodstock, what has been stated above is proved. It is very illogical to decry the law because there is being liquor sold and drunk, or because there is still much drunkenness. Shall we repeal or discredit the entire code of criminal laws because there are murders, thefts, arsons committed? It may be properly claimed that it is a great triumph of principle when the liquor traffic is illegal; a vital blow at the traffic and at the drinking customs, when these can only be indulged on the sly, slouchinglike guilt, into darkness and solitude. When many men forswear indulgence from a sense of human dignity, rather than stoop to the resorts to which the traffic is driven, and when men wanting in character can scarcely buy because the seller is afraid of exposure.

The law must be vindicated; justice to those who have ceased selling as well as to the public demands of the authorities and of citizens the keenest vigilance for the detection of violators of the law, and then the difficulty will be speedily cured and the very great benefits involved in the administration of the Canada Temperance Act fully illustrated.

The following from the Golden Rule is every word true, and is the truth fitly and well spoken:—

The summer gatherings for religious and moral purposes are giving the temperance cause a new and needed impetus. It is noticeable that the work of the temperance women is perhaps more efficient, as it certainly seems more intensely earnest, than that of men. Women do not theorize about the evil of intemperance, they feel, and feel deeply. And we are therefore glad to note every step of progress which brings them nearer to a legal voice and part in the regulation of the traffic. For when sanitary surrounds liquor selling with penalties and restrictions, and it is seen that all good women are opposed to it it advertises to the young and to all concerned that the business is a dangerous one. And when it goes a step further, and by a moral revolution arrays itself openly against drinking customs, society makes the business of selling and the habit of drinking alike disreputable. A double good is then wrought: the drunkards are saved, and the formation of drinking habits is largely prevented. So potent a force is an enlightened, aroused and organized public sentiment, in dealing with an evil like this, that at no time since the days of Lot's debauch has intoxication been so universally felt to be a badge of disgrace, and the source of danger, as in the case in this country today.

Turning to the legal aspects of the case, there is also much that is encouraging. The "local option" law, under various forms, is working well in many places. Its principle is a recognition of the fact that prohibition is successful only when it prohibits. The men who want to reform the world off-hand by statutes seem content if they can secure a prohibitory law, and leave it to enforce itself. But a prohibitory law that public sentiment does not sustain, and which the men who passed it haven't the pluck or the ability to enforce, is a good deal like a musket without a soldier back of it. Prohibition as an outgrowth of the temperance reform we believe in—but not as the root of it. It must be a moral force before it can be a legal one.—Every town that crushes out the traffic shows what other towns may do. Every state that reaches the high ground of withholding its sanction, and enforcing its restrictions, points the way to others. And every successful effort of revivalists or reformers, advances the triumph of a movement that is to furnish the chiefest moral issue of our future as a nation. The consummation is not to be reached by the policy of doctrinaires who think that the sole test of courage is in butting one's head against a stone-wall, nor by any single panacea whatever; but by a union of social, moral and religious forces acting in conjunction with a public sentiment crystallized into law, and supported by the enlightened suffrage of the people.

Personal.—Bro. W. B. Jonah, G. W. Coun., is now in attendance at the Wesleyan College, Sackville.

"Canada Temperance Act."—Another great victory has been achieved for this Act in the carrying of Northumberland County. This County has always borne the name of being the hardest County in the Province for any Temperance enterprise, and the majority of over 200 is considered as a mark of the determination which has characterized the Temperance men of this Province thus far in voting for the Act.

The Temperance men of Westmorland Co. are delighted over the stand which our brethren are taking in Woodstock, in bringing violators of the "Temperance Act" to justice, and are anxiously awaiting January, 1881, that they may do likewise.

We are in receipt of No. 1, Vol. 1, of The Crusader, a new Temperance monthly just started at Stratford, Ont. The paper is edited by Mr. S. Ranton, and makes a capital appearance. Its thirty-two columns are well filled with interesting articles, original and selected, bearing on various aspects of the Temperance question, and its typographical get up is creditable. The motto under which it sails is "Total Abstinence for the individual; Prohibition for the State."

From the Reports of the R. W. G. Secretary and R. W. G. Treasurer, submitted to the annual session of the Right Worthy Grand Lodge, at New York, in May last, we take the following gratifying figures. It is indeed encouraging and highly flattering to the I.O.G.T. that it can, after having passed through a year of such unusual and universal commercial depression, make so cheering an exhibit:—

The whole number of Subordinate Lodges is 5,965; new members initiated during the year, 119,[illegible]; admitted by card, 5,129; reinstated, 2,950; retired on card, 8,677; withdrawn, 14,447; suspended, 58,041; expelled, 11,636; loss by surrendered Lodges, 42,215; deaths, 1,062; total membership, 370,000.

Total receipts for the year, $11,728.14; expenditures, $10,093.35; balance on hand, $3,467.83.

Ellen Horm, the wife of a poor New York saddler, died on Wednesday. Both man and woman were heavy drinkers, and the woman's death was directly due to liquor. The Coroner went to the house on Thursday and found the woman's body partly eaten by rats, while the husband lay in a drunken stupor in the corner of the room.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS.

In the mysterious power of Magnetism we have to contend solely with Facts, and in their application to Medical Science, Facts the most astonishing, are exhibited. Diseases which have been considered beyond the reach of medicine, and have baffled the best directed efforts of Physicians, are found to yield quite readily to the astonishing effects of this wonderful power.

An efficient and convenient mode of application has long been desired, and has at length been accomplished. It has long been known to Scientists that Magnetism is stored up in many vegetable oils, and, by knowing how to combine them, a medicine may be made which, by using internally and externally, deficient Magnetism may be restored to the system. This has been done in the great Medical Schools of Paris, and given to the world under the name of French Magnetic Oil.

The moment this Great Remedy is applied externally or taken internally, the most excruciating pains cease to exist.

Pain cannot exist where it is used.

It is the only article that restores the life-giving principle, Magnetism, to the sufferer, thereby increasing the vital power and electrifying the nervous system, sending the blood coursing and bounding through the veins, and withdrawing and allaying in a few moments all pains and spasms, from whatever cause.

Headache, Toothache, Stomach-Ache, and all kinds of aches are stopped in a few minutes.

Neuralgia, Tic-Douloureux, that have resisted all other remedies, must retire under the use of the French Magnetic Oil. Rheumatism, Lumbago, Lame Back, Stiff Neck, Sprains, in all these cases relief is sure to follow its use, while Inflammation of the Bowels and Colic, Dysentery, are relieved at once. This any one seized with pain will be compelled to acknowledge who gives it but one trial.

THE undersigned having greatly improved the Railroad and Lever Hay Press, is now prepared to receive orders, which will be filled promptly and the press built in a thorough manner. We warrant every press. Our largest size has a pressure of 90 tons, and can be worked by a small horse. The size of the box is 45 inches long, 21 inches wide, and the follower raises to within 21 inches of the cover, giving a bale averaging 300 lbs., in the smallest and most desirable shape for shipment. Our iron work is done by Messrs. Connell Brothers of this town, and is of the very best. Call and see one now ready for sale.

E. M. BOYER.

We, the undersigned, having purchased and used the above presses, can recommend them.
