Miscellaneous.

COURTING ALL OF THEM .- ' I don't want to make any trouble, but there is one man in this city who ought to bgibbeted!' began a blunt-spoken woman of 45, as she stood before the officials of the Twentieth street station a day or two ago. When they inquired for particulars she handed out a letter and said: 'Observe the envelope. That letter is addressed to me. You will see that the writer calls me his jessamine, and he wants me to set an early date for the wedding.' When the captain had finished the letter she was ready with another adding; 'And this is his addressed to to my daughter Lucretia. You will see that he calls her his rosy angel, and he says he can't live if she dosen't marry him. It's the same man.' So it was, and his letter was as tender as spring chicken. That finished, she handed out a third, with the remark: This is directed to my daughter Helen. It's the very same man, and in it he calls her his pansy and he says he dreams of her.' Why, he seemed to love the whole family,' remarked the captain. 'That's just t. I'm a widow with two daughters, and he was courting us all at once and day of September next, at noon, the premises mentioned in the said Mortgage, to wit:—"All that certain piece or parcel of land, situate in the Parish of Wakefield, County and Province low for cash.

The above will be sold time. Oh! what wretches there is in the Parish of Wakefield, County and Province low for cash. this world!' 'Yes, indeed. It's lucky you found him out.' 'Yes, it is. If lucretia hadn't opened one of my letters, and if I hadn't searched the girls' pockets while they were asleep, we'd have thought him an innocent lamb.' 'And do you want him arrested?' 'No, I guess not, but I veyed by said Arthur McArthur, junior, and DOMINION HALL want this matter to go into the papers wife, to said W. Henry Webber, by deed regist. DOMINION HALL as a warning to other women. Just think of his sitting up with me Sunday night, Lucretia on Wednesday night, and Helen on Friday night, and calling each of one of us his climbing rose! Oh, sir, the women ought to know what a deceiving animal man is! 'Yes, he's pretty 'It has learned me a lesson,' she said as she was ready to go .--The next man that comes sparking around my house has got to come right out and say which he's after. If it's the girls I wont say nothing, and if it's me it wont de em a bit of good to slam things around and twit me of burying two husbands!

"KINDER FORGOT HIS GRIEF."—Some weeks since, while a party of Detroit surveyors were running a railroad line down in Indiana the survey carried them across a cemetery. In the course of the survey a small stake was driven into a grave, and before it was removed and carried ahead, a lathy, long-legged Hoosier overhauled the men, peeled off his coat and danced around as he yelled out: "Show me the man who dared to drive that stake in that grave!" "We are going to remove it." quietly replied one of the party.

"I don't care if you are-show me "Well, I'm the man, and what are you going to do about it?" said the big man of the lot as he stepped out. "Didn't you know that was my wife's grave?" asked the hoosier with a considerable fall to his voice. " No sir."

"Well it is,-my first wife's grave." "And what of that, sir?" "What of that! Why-why, sir, hadn't married a second one about month ago and kinder forgot my grief, fence with it! It's lucky for you fellers —mighty lucky for you—that I don't feel half as bad as I did!"

Messrs. Scott & Bowne:—Gentlemen—Within the last year I have used in my own family, and in my private practice prescribed very extensively Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites and found it a most valuable preparation, especially in diseases of children. It is agreeable to the most delicate stomach; which renders it a very reliable agent as a nutritive remedy in consumptive and scrofulous cases.
