Miscellaneous.

ANECDOTE OF LYMAN BEECHER.—The Rev, doctor, some years ago, was going home at night, with a volume of an encyclopædia under his arms, when he saw a small animal in his path. The doctor knew it was a skunk, but hurled the book at him. As might have been expected, the worthy doctor was glad to retreat.

When he arrived at home, his friends could scarcely come near him, His clothes were so infected that he was obliged to bury them. Some time after this some one published a pamphlet speaking very abusively of the worthy doctor, who was asked:

'Why don't you publish a book and put him down at once?,

His reply was prompt and wise: 'Sir, I have learned better. Some years ago, I issued a whole quarto volume against a skunk, and I got the worst of it. I never mean to try the experiment again.

He came up a little late, stepped in without ringing and striding softly into the parlor dropped into an easy-chair with the careless grace of a young man who is accustomed to the programme. "By Jove," he said to the figure sitting in the dim obscurity of the sofa. "By Jove, I thought I was never going to see you alone again. Your mother never goes away from the house nowadays, does she, Minnie?' "Well not amazingly frequently," cheerfully replied the old lady from the sofa. "Minnie's away so much of the time now I have to stay in." In the old hickory at the end of the house the moping owl complained to the moon much in its usual style, the katydids never sang more clearly and the plaintive cry of the whip-poor-will filled the night with poetry, but he didn't hear any of it, all the same. "And, by George," he said to a friend fifteen minutes later, "if I didn't leave my hat on the piano and my cane in the hall. I'm a goat. Think of 'em? Forget 'em? Strike me blind if I knew I had any clothes on at all. What I wanted was fresh air, and I wanted about thirty acres of it, and mighty quick to."

MODERN SHOPPING MYSTERIES.—Mrs. Goodington has been shopping: "The clerks," she says, "treated me with the outermost condensation's long's they could git anything out of me; but no sooner had one of 'em found out that two yards o' caliker and a hank o' yarn was all I wanted than he began screaming out, "Cash!" afore he'd half doen 'em up. I jest told him that if I didn't have a tail two yards long a dangling to the eend o' my gown and bonnet on the tip eend o'my pug, I wasn't to be insulted by a popinjay like him. He looked cheap enough, I can tell eer and tried to make an explication. But I guess they don't think much on him in the shop, for no sooner did I take my puss out o' my ridicule than up steps a raal purty little boy, no bigger 'n our Steve, and takes the money right out o' the hand o' that sarse-box."

A very beautiful lady who was hurrying through the streets of Baltimore turned and in pathetic accents asked a gentleman walking beside her to knock a pick-pocket down who was following her. The gentleman obligingly complied. As soon as she saw the fight fairly begun she chuckled gayly and skipped away. The man knocked down was her husband.

At a performace of the cantata of "Esther," at Dallas, Tex., Ahasuerus was advised by somebody in the audience not to "cut it too fat." The personator of the great Assyrian went to the footlights and said: "This is a religious show, and you'll have to be decent. I'm Ahasuerus just now, but after the show I'm Sam Turner; and if any duffer would like to cut it fat, then I'll give him a mighty lively welcome."

A bridal couple from Washoe Valley, at breakfast the other morning, conversed as follows:

He.—"Shall I skin you a pertater, honey?'

She.—"No, thank you, dearie, I have one already skun."

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED

IS A FACT ATTESTED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITIES IN THE WORLD.

A careful observance of the laws of health, and the systematic and persistent use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA will accomplish this result. This preparation has all the virtues of these two most valuable specifics, in a form perfectly palatable, and acceptable to the most delicate stomach and we make the unqualified statement that SCOTT'S EMULSION is being used with better results, and endorsed and prescribed by more physicians for Consumption—and the diseases leading to it, such as Chronic Coughs, Bronchitis, Scrotula, Anaemia, General Debility and the Wasting Disorders of Children, than any other remedy known to medical science. The rapidity with which patients improve on this food medicine, diet, is truly marvellous.

See what Physicians and the People say about it.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE: 66 West Thirty-sixth Street, New York, Sept. 2, 1876.

GENTS—I have frequently prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites during the past year, and regard it as a valuable preparation in scrofulous and consumptive cases, palatable and efficacious. C. C. LOCKWOOD, M. D.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE:—Gentlemen—Within the last year I have used in my own family, and in my private practice prescribed very extensively Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites and found it a most valuable preparation, especially in diseases of children. It is agreeable to the most delicate stomach; which renders it a very reliable agent as a nutritive remedy in consumptive and scrofulous cases.

Oct. 12, 1879. Yours respectfully, A. H. SAXTON, M. D., Baltimore.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE:—Gentlemen—With the last two months I have fairly tried Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with its pophosphites, and I candidly declare that it is the finest preparation of the kind that has ever been brought to my notice; in affections of the lungs and other wasting diseases, we can consider it our most reliable agent, in a perfectly elegant and agreeable form. Very truly, J. SIMONAUD, M. D., New Orleans, La.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE:—Gentlemen—In September, 1877, my health began to fail and my physician pronounced it spinal trouble; under his care I got some relief from pain, but my general health did not improve, and early in the winter, I began to raise blood and rapidly grew worse. In May last I was taken with a violent bleeding which brought me to my bed and my life was despaired of for many weeks; violent symptoms appeared, night and morning coughs, night sweats, short breath, and a return of the spinal trouble. My physician stopped the bleeding and then ordered Cod Liver Oil and Lime; and I used various preparations, but they did me no good. I lost all hope of life, and was an object of pity to all my friends. Last September I purchased a bottle of your Emulsion and before it was all taken I was better. I then bought a dozen bottles and have taken all with the following results: Cough subsiding, night sweats stopped, appetite returned, pains in spine disappeared, strength returning, and my weight increased from 118 to 140 pounds in sixteen weeks. I have taken no other medicine since commencing with your Emulsion and shall continue its use until I am perfectly well. I frequently meet some friend on the street who asks, what cured you, and I answer, Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, &c. I have a friend who has not spoke aloud for 15 months and he is getting better. I gave him a bottle, and he bought two more, then got a dozen and says it is food and medicine for him. He was given up to die a year ago; but he is improving now wonderfully. My recovery is exciting the surprise of many people, and I shall do all I can to make known your valuable medicine.

Jan. 20th, 1879. Very truly yours, H. F. SLOCUM, Lowell, Mass.

MESSRS. SCOTT & BOWNE: LYNN, Randolph Co., Ind., July 2nd, 1878.

About the 25th of last April I got a bottle of your Emulsion, and at that time I was so prostrated that no one who saw me thought I could live but a few days at most. I could retain nothing on my stomach and was literally starving. I commenced the use of the Emulsion in small doses; it was the first thing that would stay on my stomach; I continued its use, gradually increasing the dose; and from that hour I commenced mending, and now am able to ride and walk and am gaining flesh and strength rapidly. I have advised other parties to try it, and some two or three have already tried it. I am sure I shall entirely recover. I am gratefully yours,
