

FALL AND WINTER

Goods!

DAILY ARRIVING AT

B. LYNCH'S

GENERAL STORE,

Corner of Bridge, Main Street.

A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF

MANTLE CLOTHS,

Coatings, Tweeds,

GENTS' OVERCOATS,

and Clothing of all kinds.

A FULL LINE OF

GROCERIES!

Croceries, Glassware, etc.

The highest prices paid for socks and Mitts.

Butter, Eggs, Oats, etc., etc.

B. LYNCH.

Woodstock, October 8, 1880

N. B. & Canada Railroad Co.

1880. FALL ARRANGEMENT. 1880.

On and after Monday, November 22nd,

Trains South—Express Trains leave St.

Stephen, daily, at 9:30 a. m., for Woodstock and Houlton.

Leave St. Stephen every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, for Woodstock and Houlton, at 10 a. m.

Trains South—Leave Woodstock at 9:15 a.

m., and Houlton at 9:15 a. m., daily, for St. Stephen.

Leave Woodstock and Houlton every Tuesday,

Thursday and Saturday, for St. Stephen, at 9:15 a. m.

Connections.—These trains make close connection at Madam Junction with Trains east for Fredericton and St. John, and at Vancouver with trains west for Bangor, Port and ton; at Woodstock with the New Brunswick

Railway for Port Fairfield, Oxbow, Grand Falls and Edmundston; at St. Stephen and St. Andrew, with the International Steamship Co's boats, which leave Mondays and Thursdays for Portland and Boston, and Tuesdays and Fridays for St. John.

Henry Osburn, Manager.

St. Stephen, November 1, 1880

1880.

International Steamship Co's.

WINTER ARRANGEMENT.

TWO TRIPS A WEEK.

On and after Monday, November 22nd, until further notice, the splendid steam steamer "VALMOUTH," D. S. Hall, master, will leave St. Stephen every Monday and Thursday, for St. Andrew, Calais and

St. Stephen.

Returning will leave Commercial Wharf, Boston, every Monday and Thursday morning, at 8 o'clock, and at 10 o'clock, to all points of Canada and the United States.

No claims for allowance after goods leave the warehouse.

Freight received Wednesday and Saturday only up to 6 o'clock, p. m.

H. W. CHISHOLM, Agent.

November 6, 1880

DOMINION HALL

S. McLEOD.

OUR STOCK OF

English, Scotch and Canadian

TWEEDS.

Together with

BEAVERS, PILOTS, WORSTEDS,

And other Goods usually found in a first-class

Tailoring Establishment, in now complete, and we are prepared to make them up to order in first-class style, and at moderate prices.

A good fit and good value given for your money every time.

SIMON McLEOD.

Woodstock, October 8, 1880

Furniture! Furniture!

1880. FALL STOCK, 1880.

LATEST STYLES IN ALL GOODS!

NEW Importations of Best Silk, Tapestry,

Rep and other Coverings.

Beautiful Broomed Parlor Suits of Best Design.

Imported and Manufactured by ourselves, including latest "Queen Anne" and other styles.

Handmade and Roomy Bookcases; Biscuit

Cases and other articles; Easy Chairs,

Patent Reclining Seats and Lounges in endless Variety. Leather Dining Room Furniture of our own manufacture and design.

Our Stock of British Plate Mirrors is very large, and the Frames of Gilt and of Ebony and Gilt are of very elegant workmanship.

Everybody is invited to call and view our Stock, which includes many articles of Household and Ornamental which is impossible to enumerate here.

STEWART & WHITE.

No. 93, 95 and 97 Charlotte Street.

St. John, September 5, 1880.

Apothecaries Hall.

Corner Store at the BRIDGE.

JUST RECEIVED:

25 Cases and Barrels,

BEING PART OF

FALL STOCK

of Foreign and Domestic Drugs, Chemicals, Patent

Medicines, Perfumery, Dress Goods, Housecleaning Materials, and the usual large stock of Druggists Sundries.

For sale low, wholesale and retail.

H. PAXTON BAIRD,

Druggist & Apothecary.

Woodstock, Oct. 15, 1880.

WANTED, A FEW PERMANENT AND

Transient Boarders.

Apply to

C. W. BAILEY,

Opposite Store of J. C. Connors

King Street, Woodstock, May 22, 1877-21

Probate Court, County of Carleton.

To the Sheriff of the County of Carleton or any

Constable within the said County, GREETING:

WHEREAS application by Petition has been made to me by James McDonald, of the Parish of Wilnot, in the County of Carleton aforesaid, Harness maker, alleging, among other things, that

Samuel McKen, late of said Parish of Wilnot, in said Parish of Wilnot, died on the 24th day of November, instant, and that the testator of the said Samuel McKen, and praying that Letters of Administration be granted to him. You are therefore required to cite the heirs next of kin, Creditors and all others interested in the estate of the said deceased to appear before the Surrogate Court of the County of Carleton, on Monday, the twenty-seventh day of December next, at eleven o'clock, in the forenoon of the said day, at a Surrogate Court to be then held at the Court House in the City of Carleton, in order that the said Surrogate may, in and virtue of the Statute in that behalf made, lawfully grant to the said James McDonald, or to some other person, Letters of Administration of the estate of the said deceased, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

James McDonald, or some other person, may be

admitted to the said estate, and that the said

Miscellaneous.

JAMES SPANKIE'S WIFE'S FUNERAL.

Early in the present century there lived in a village in Scotland a retired farmer, from the parish of Dunbar named James Spankie. He was somewhat eccentric, and made use of language not always propriet to the occasion. At his wife's funeral he was at his proper place, supporting the head of the coffin. The road was not very smooth, and once or twice he stumbled on the way. At length he addressed the bearers—"Canny, canny, bilbies; it's nonsense to mak' a toll o' a pleasure—tak' main time." There was a dinner at his house after the party had returned from the churchyard. In due time he asked a farmer of the parish to brew a punch, remarking, in what he meant for a compliment, "You're the best drinker, and the best judge of good punch in the parish." When all was ready he proposed a bumper to the health of the company, saying, "No, gentleman, tak' your glass heartily; there hasn't been such a party in my house since my daughter's marriage." "That may be," replied the farmer, "but but this is a very different occasion," and James replied, "True, sir, but everything is beautiful in its season."

We are having a good deal of Bible study on the career of Abraham about this time. We wish to point out one very honorable trait in that good man.

He took nothing from unbelievers. He would not take even a thread or a shoelace from the King of Sodom. He would not take a burying-place as a gift from the Hittites. Oh, that some of our churches would learn his faith, and support their cause without dipping their hands into the pockets of the world!

God is not so poor now but that he can support all his churches by the free-will offerings of his own people. I should be ashamed to ask their rich neighbors for gold and victuals. Does God want his children to be beggars at the world's gate?

THE GENTLEMAN.—It may be set down as a rule that one can never afford to be a gentleman. It is best to learn this rule early and practice it late.

It is not well to say mean things of any other, because in most cases you will have to take it all back in bitterness of heart when he does you an unexpected favor. It is not wise to treat any one brusquely, because you cannot always judge a bird by the feathers he has on.

It is not well to look down on anybody, because the time may come when you will look down upon you. There is a certain self-hood in every one which should be respected. We have no right to in-