to the hor, member who had last spok but that han, gentleman had addressed his self to him (Lindsay) and not to his arguments as he had not spoken. Some reference had been made about the majority in favor of the bill in the other branch, but h would say about that majority that many who had voted for the bill had solicited him to vote against it. We should not increase the burdens of our people by taxing them for railways. A gentleman some time ago had said that the railroads appeared to be built to carry the young men out of the country He believed it was not for the best int-rests of the country to build any more railways at present The Government, he claimed, had fulfilled their part of the contract in this matter. His Honor, the last speaker, had made some remarks about Mr. Black, from Westmoreland, coming from the plough to legislate and that he had better turn from it. Ha thought it very bad taste to refer to a man who had got his bread by the sweat of his brow. He (Mr. Lindsay) when a boy drove the plough and he considered that a man who one gaw before was a benefactor to his raco He was one of the producers, but these other men were the consumers and he had less faith is men who used their heads to live upon than those who used their hands. He did not think that it was position that made a man honorable, but it was the honorable way in which he filled it. As honor and shame from no condition rise

Deprived of its richness, it becomes scant and watery, a condition termed anemia in medical writings. Given this condition, and scrotuleus swellings and sores, general and nervous debility, loss of flesh and appetite, weak lungs, throat diseases and consumption, are among the com-mon results. Therefore, if you are a sufferer from thin, poor blood, do not hesitate, but employ Golden Medical Discovery which enriches the blood and radically cures these affections by striking at the root of the evil and removing the

Read Carefully. Samuel Osborne, Sophiasburg, says: I was affected with Dyspepsia for nearly four years, my lungs becoming affected towards the last. I was induced to try the Shoshonees Remedy. After using three or four bottles I felt much better and gained strength rapidly, my health improved steadily and rapidly, and when I had taken three or four bottles more, I was quite restored to health and strength, and have experienced better health than for forty years before. I had been under the treatment of a number of physicians before, but never received any material aid until I used your remedy. A. Wood, Consecon, says: That he has tried the Remedy for Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia with great success. I have also used the Shoshonees Pills and find that they are as good as any I ever tried. Henry King, Geneva, N. Y., says: My wife was intensely afflicted with dyspepsia for a long time. We consulted physicians of three different schools, and received no benefit. She has taken three bottles of the Great Shoshonees Remedy, and is now hearty and Rev. John Scott, says: M.
