quite a number of letters, some of them from persons in your County, making enquiry concerning the surgical case of Mrs. Justus Dun-ham, of Southampton, the woman from whom I removed a tumor a few weeks ago weighing 80 pounds, I thought perhaps a few words giving the information asked for might be of interest to some of your numerous readers. Mrs. Dunham is fifty-six years of age; the "tumor" had been growing some six or seven years; was decidedly " Ovarian" in its character, being attached to the left side by a " pecticle" about the size of an adult's wrist, with a strong membranous connection about
