Collector's Notice!

ARTHUR McLEAN, a non-resident Rate-payer in School District number thirteen, Parish of Aberdeen, County of Carleton, is requested to pay ten dollars and seventy-five cents ($10.75), the amount of his School Rates for the year 1879, together with the cost of this advertisement, $2.00, within two months from date, to the subscriber, otherwise legal proceedings will be taken to recover the same.

JOHN C. CAMPBELL,
Secretary to Trustees.

Northfield, November 2nd, 1880—2m-45

Saint John and Maine RAILWAY COMPANY.

AS an impression prevails in Woodstock and other parts that satisfactory freight rates cannot be made by this Road for business via McAdam Junction, between Woodstock and Saint John, the undersigned beg to publish the following so that the exact facts may be known to the public:

St. Stephen, N. B., May 12th, 1879.

MY DEAR SIR,—We have decided to discontinue the present through rates between Woodstock and St. John, and in future to charge on all St. John Freight the following rates between McAdam and Woodstock:

First Class,	$4 00 per ton.
Second Class,	3 50 "
Third "	2 60 "
Fourth "	2 00 "

Please notify your St. John Station Agent.

I remain, yours truly,

HENRY OSBURN.

J. MURRAY KAY, Esq., Manager St. John and Maine R. R. Co., St. John.

By this it will be seen that the N. B. & Canada Road is responsible for cancelling the "through billing" between the points named.

By this it will also be seen that business was practically prohibited via McAdam, owing to the excessive rates named in the above letter, unless the St. John & Maine Railway Co. were contented to carry freight at a loss; or in other words, carry freight for 86 miles at from 20 to 50 per cent less than the N. B. & C. carried for 51 miles. The public can judge of the fairness of the N. B. & C.'s policy to it and this Company.

As the Tariff mentioned in the above letter is still maintained by the N. B. & Canada Railway, the St. John & Maine Railway Co., to show its disposition will, until further notice, carry Woodstock freight between McAdam and Carleton at the following rates:

MERCHANDISE, per 100 pounds.—First Class, 16 cents; Second Class, 14 cents; Third Class, 12 cents; Fourth Class, 10 cents.

Flour, Pork, Molasses, in Car Loads, per Car, $10.00.

Lumber, in Car Loads of 20,000 lbs., per Car, $12.50.

Lime, Iron, Coal, Stone, in Car Loads of 20,000 lbs., per Car, $12.50.

Live Stock, in Car Loads of 20,000 lbs., per Car, $12.50.

Mixed Goods, to one address, in Car Loads of 20,000 lbs, per 100 lbs., 10 cents.

Oats in Car Loads of 500 bushels, and Hay per Car, $10.00.

Which will make the through Rates between Woodstock and Carleton as follows:

First Class,	36 cents.	Third Class,	25 cents.
Second "	31½ "	Fourth "	20 "

Trusting to have a fair share of the business.

H. D. McLEOD, Superintendant.

THE SORROWFUL MAN.—At the Union depot the other morning Officer Button observed a tall, long-legged stranger, who seemed to be clothed mostly in a linen duster, wipe his eyes and blow his nose like one suffering mental distress, and he approached and asked the cause.

"Oh, lots of things," replied the man as he shook out his handkerchief. "Is there a camp meeting anwhere around here?"

"Not that I know of."

"And they don't have any prayer meeting in the day time?"

"No"

"There isn't anybody around the depot who makes a specialty of singing gospel hyms, is there?"

"Don't know of anybody. Has your wife run away?"

"No; I never had one,"

"Lost your wallet."

"No: I never carry a wallet."

Anybody abused you?"

"No: everybody is very kind to me."

"Then why this sorrow and these tears? Strong men do not weep without strong cause."

"I weep—I weep because the world is cold—because it is wicked—because human nature has become suspicious.—I weep because another sun has risen on the evil passions of men."

"Are you naturally sorrowful?"

"I am. I sometimes wish I wasn't that way. How long before the Lake Shore train goes?"

"About twelve minutes."

"Then I will spend eleven minutes in further weeping. Have you a private room in which I can sit and cry?"

"Say, old man, what's your lay?" asked the officer after looking him over.

"My lay is weeping. I am the sorrowful man from Columbia."

"That's too thin. What's the particular racket this morning?"

"Won't you give me away?" asked the man after a fresh dig at his eyes.

"No."

"I'm dead broke and I want to get to Toledo. The conductor who goes out on this train stands over there, and I'm weeping for his benefit. He has already remarked my grief, and he wonders what ails me. When he asks for my ticket I'll either be a missionary who weeps over the avarice of railroad corporations and appeal to his charity, or a country parson who lost his money on the confidence game. Now let me weep some more."

He wept some more, and then said:

"It's the best lay in the world. It's a hundred times ahead of cheek or riding on the springs, and it costs me nothing and is always ready. I cried my way from Columbus to Indianapolis, wept from there to Chicago, and then sobbed myself along to Detroit. I now weep that I may see Toledo, and I shall depend upon emotion to shoot me through to Columbus in good style. I will now edge along towards the conductor and give away to an extra burst of mingled grief and contrition. Ta-ta, old blue coat—don't give away a man who couldn't raise a nickle if his eyes should give out to-morrow.—Detroit Free Press.

HOW HE BETRAYED HIMSELF.—Dana Krum, one of the conductors on the Erie Railway, was approached before train time by an unknown man who spoke to him as if he had known him for years.—"I say, Dana," said he, "I have forgotten my pass and I want to go to Susquehanna; I am a fireman on the road, you know," But the conductor told him he ought to have a pass with him.—it was the safest way. Pretty soon Dana came along to collect tickets. Seeing his man he spoke when he reached him, "Say, my friend, have you the time with you?"

"Yes," said, he, as he pulled out a watch, "it is twenty minutes past nine."

"Oh, it is, is it? Now, if you don't show me your pass, or fare, I will stop the train. There is no railway man that I ever saw who would say 'twenty minutes past nine.' He would say 'nine-twenty.'"

He settled.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

THE Singer Manufacturing Co. have established an Agency in Woodstock, where their world-renowned Singer Sewing Machines, for Family and Manufacturing purposes, can be had at greatly reduced prices and on easy terms.

Positive Proofs that the SINGER is Superior to all other Sewing Machines.

1. It has taken the first prize over all other machines more than 200 times.

2. Companies have sprung up in nearly every part of the world, for making an "Imitation Singer Machine." Why are not similar companies formed for making imitations of other Sewing Machines? The public will draw its own inference. Gold is continually counterfeited; Brass and Tin never.

3. After the Chicago fire, the Relief Committee undertook to furnish Sewing Machines to the needy women of that city. Applicants were permitted to choose from six different kinds of machines. 2944 applicants were furnished with machines. 2427 chose Singer Machines and 517 distributed their choice among the five other kinds of machines! These girls were to earn their living on these machines. Why did they choose Singers? Our experience was the same after the late great fire in the City of Saint John.

4. Over two millions of Singer Machines have been sold during the past nine years.

5. The year 1878 was a year of unexampled depression in business, yet we sold more machines than in either of the 25 years we have been in business.

6. Three-quarters of all the Sewing Machines sold in 1878 throughout the world were Singers.

Remember these are not our claims, they are facts shewing what other people think of the Singer.

For Durability and simplicity the Singer excels all other Machines.

We have Branch Offices in every part of the known world. Our principal office is at 34 Union Square, New York.

CAUTION.—A large number of people having, from time to time, been betrayed into buying imitations of our Machines, from parties representing same as Genuine Singers, we hereby respectfully notify the public, that our Machines can be obtained only through our regularly appointed Agents coming from the above address. As a further preventive against such deception we would also beg to intimate that all our Machines have our trade mark on the arm and any Machine without the trade mark is not genuine.

For further information apply to E. J. Clark Dry Goods Merchant, or
