A TERRIBLE PUNISHMENT.—A naval officer, writing to the Western Morning News, states that a horrible story is current at Sfax, which shot and killed a Frenchman, and was cap tured and brought to a drumbead court martial. On being interrogated he confessed to having killed the Frenchman, giving as his reason that his Prophet had told him it was the proper thing to do. The commandant of the French forces retorted that it was a very wicked thing, and as there was a difference of opinion he should know which was right.

McLean Shaw testified that Guiteau rented desk room from him, and now owed him money. He had frequent conversations with the prisoner, who once told witness that he was bound to have notoricty in some way before he died, if he had to kill some big man and imitate Wilkes Booth. At this testimony Guiteau became enraged and used most abusive language toward the witness, calling him a liar, sneak and puppy. Several other witnesses testified to the prisonor's vanity, egotism and desire for notoriety, but saw no evidence of insanity. The court adjournel till Monday.

The character of the witnesses presented by the prosecution on Thursday in the Guiteau trial, and their testimony, produced a marked effect upon the public mind. Mrs. Julia M. Wilson, a cousin of the prisoner, stated positively that she never saw any indications of insanity in the Guiteau (the prisoner's father and her uncle) she said, "The thought that he might in any degree be of unsound mind never entered my head." Her testimony was verified in material points by other witnesses. One witness can the act.

THE QUESTION SETTLED. -There's no use in arguing the question of the potency of some substances for especial service in emergencies. They will do all they promise, and more, if judiciously used. The following from Mr. P. Murphy, of No. 1 Fire Station, Ottawa, bears upon the point stated above. Mr. Murphy says: I had occasion to use St. Jacobs Oil recently, and must say that it is the best Liniment I ever saw used. I caught cold from getting wet at a fire and it settled. cold from getting wet at a fire, and it settled in my shoulder and down my back to my hip. I suffered a great deal from the pain. I was advised to try St. Jacobs Oil. I did so, and after the fourth application I was entirely free from pain. I cannot speak too highly of it, and advise others to use it.
