VEGETINE
J. Bentley, M. D., says,
"It has done more good than all medical treatment."
Mr. H. R. STEVENS, Boston, Mass., writes:
"I have sold during the past year a considerable quantity of your Vegetine, and I believe, in all cases, it has given satisfaction. In only one case, a delicate young lady of about 15 years was much benefited by its use. Her parents informed me that it had done her more good than all the medical treatment to which she had previously been subjected."
Yours respectfully,
J. BENTLEY, M. D.

VEGETINE
Good for the Aged.
WILL YOU READ THIS?
CANTON, OHS., Jan. 16, 1881
Dear Sir:—I advise you of the good results of your Vegetine. My wife's father, now nearly eighty-five years old, was attacked with dropsy in his legs. His head and face were swollen so that he was blind, and one of his legs was badly swollen and discolored, and broke out in several places and discharges. His physician said there was no remedy that could be given, as he was such an old man. I gave him your Vegetine, and he was cured in a few days. I am glad to say that he is now as well as ever, and is able to do his usual work. I have been using your Vegetine for some time, and I can truly say that it is a most valuable medicine for the aged.
Yours very truly,
A. MENZIE

Poetry.
On Low Levels.
When the deeds of heroes were the theme,
My heart in youth leaped high;
When dreams of Love's young dream,
Then dreams of Love and I
"Tis over now, the fever heat,
Tis past, the passion's fire;
My feet have followed all the feet
Far north the peaks that tower.
O sunny peaks, that flame with day,
Contentedly I see
Specks on you, that are men, and say—
Not those the paths for me!
This only striving—to confess
The peaks are just as bright,
Nor those who climb are less,
Though I must walk in light.
—The Spectator.

Select Tale.
My Only Day's Hunting.
"Please, sir, are these for you?"
It was my man who spoke, and as he did so, he held up for inspection an immaculate pair of "tops" in one hand and a pair of painfully new breeches in the other, while his countenance wore an expression of mingled fear and astonishment.
With an inward sinking at my heart I turned from my morning paper and cut-let, and having nodded a gloomy assent to his query, said, "That will do, James;
lay them on the sofa."
The above conversation took place in my lumber apartment in the Albany, and the reason for the appearance there of the aforesaid tops and breeches I am about to explain. I am not a hunting man, and I never could see any joy in the pursuit of a fox, or a hare, or a rabbit, or a squirrel,
or a woodcock, or a partridge, or a pheasant, or a grouse, or a quail, or a snipe, or a cock, or a hen, or a turkey, or a goose, or
