Jottings.

Mr. Jos. Carr has up and boarded in a building to take the place of his store and dwelling burned at the recent fire, on Main street, next below the McDonald lot.

Owing to the want of snow, the market thus far has been poorly supplied with Christmas meats and poultry.

We had rain again on Thursday—will somebody please buy Venner off?

THIS is how the Winnipeg Times talks of that city and the future of Manitoba :—

Within a hundred years the world is to find 25,000,000 inhabitants, a score of great commercial centres, and one Chicago, between Lake Superior and the highest latitudes and longitudes of the Peace River country. Winnipeg is to be the greater Chicago. What, then, becomes of the croakers' talk, who tell us that real estate is getting too high in this city, when everything points to the unmistakable certainty that Main street property, and the business premises of other streets next to become main streets, will steadily increase with slight fluctuations now and then until it reaches $1,500 or $2,000 a front foot, there to remain a fixed value until the limitless harvest fields of this country shall refuse to give their annual increase.

The balance in the Government Savings' Banks on the 30th Nov., was $10,251,601, an increase of nearly a quarter of a million in the month.

During the present month the Royal Bank of Scotland has earned a net profit of £,2000,-290, and has declared a dividend of 3½ per cent.

On the occasion of the visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales to open the new Docks at Liverpool a few days ago, the Corporation presented the Princess with a parasol that cost over £1200 ($6,000). The parasol was of crimson satin lined with pale pink, and overlaid with the richest Point de Venice lace. The stick was of ivory, and handle of pure gold covered with pearls, diamonds and rubies. It is said to be the costliest parasol ever made.

The Massachusetts cities that have voted this winter on the liquor question have cast, in round numbers, 54,000 votes for license, and 42,000 for prohibition.

Sir Hugh Allan, of the Allan Line of steamers, has offered for the best car load of cattle for shipment to England, three prizes —$75, $50, and $25. A firm of exporters in the Upper Provinces has offered for best five a prize of $75, and another firm has offered a prize of $75 for the best pair. Messrs. Benallick and Bayard, of Montreal, are in Westmorland buying a car load of cattle with which to compete. They purchased a pair of Mr. Harmon Humphrey, and a pair of Josiah Wood, Esq., Sackville; four steers of Messrs. Dobson and Turner, Jolicure; a pair of Mr. Jas. Lowerison, Westmorland Point; a pair of J. Black, Sackville, and another pair in this vicinity. The pair purchased from Mr. Black are two years and seven months old, and after an eighteen hours fast, and a three mile drive turned the scales at 1,800 and 1,600 pounds respectively. Messrs. Benallick and Bayard say they are the finest cattle they have ever seen.—Sackville Transcript.

SHOCKING DISCOVERY MADE IN A BURNING TENEMENT.—At 5 30 o'clock last evening Edward Mountain, a laborer, returning from his work, saw smoke and fire issuing from a window in the upper story of a tenement house in Silver street, Bargen Point. Giving the alarm of fire, Mountain ran up to the room and burst open the door. He saw a table near the window, a lamp upset upon it, and a bundle of rags blazing. He seized the bundle and ran to the window to throw it out. At this moment a woman, living in the adjoining room, came in, and, catching sight of Mountain with the bundle of blazing rags, exclaimed: "My, God! Stop man, that's the baby!" Mountain wrapped his coat about the bundle and extinguished the flames. Opening the bundle then, he found in it the body of a dead child about a year old.

Search was made through the room. In one corner the mother of the child lay in a drunken stupor. Everything in the place denoted extreme poverty. The body of the child was wasted, as if it had died from starvation. The father could not be found, and was reported to have been drunk all day. No one could account for the origin of the fire. The child died several days ago, and had not been buried because there was no money to pay the undertaker. Meantime the parents were holding a wake over its body.—N. Y. Sun, 16th.

WOOD TRADE.—From James Smith & Co.'s Liverpool Wood Circular and Prices Current, of the 1st December, we copy the following:—

Of N. B. and N. S. Spruce Deals there has been an import of 10,664 standards, against 19,916 standards last year, and with the late losses at sea, the present comparatively small stock promises not to be much increased this year. Sales have been by private of St. John at from £7 10s. to £7 12s. 6d. per standard; Halifax at from £7 8s. to £7 10s., and Parrsboro at £7 10s. per standard. By auction the sales have been a little lower, namely:—St. John at £7 3s. 6d., Oak Bay at £7 7s. 4d., and Parrsboro at £7 8s. 2d. per standard, but sellers are now firmly holding for an advance. Of pine deals a parcel of 4th quality Bathurst was sold at £6 10s. per standard. Lathwood—No sales. Palings have been sold at from 65s. to 75s. per miile, according to size.

Seaborn's Gift Enterprise will positively be drawn on Thursday, January 5, 1882, at the Town Hall. The drums which hold the numbers corresponding with the numbers of the tickets and also 400 gifts, can be seen at Seaborn's store. Tickets about all sold. A full stock of everything in the confectionery line. Oysters, cigars and tobaccos, baked beans, pies, &c., sold at a small advance on cost till the bove date. Call and see Bob.

LITERARY NOTICES.—Harper's Magazine for January is a strong Number, beautifully illustrated. The frontispiece is an illustration drawn by Alfred Fredericks, entitled The Challenge, representing a familiar legend of the Court of King Francis. The leading illustrated paper treats for the first time a characteristic Western subject—the transportation of coal from Pittsburg down the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers. The paper is contributed by J. W. Alexander.

James Jackson Jarves, who has recently presented three hundred pieces of Venetian glass to the Metropolitan Museum of New York, contributes a paper on this collection, illustrated with pictures of thirty-seven specimens.

With the Van-guard in Mexico" is the first of W. H. Bishop's series of Mexican papers, an exceedingly entertaining paper, finely illustrated.

Joseph Hatton concludes his Journalistic London with notices of Lloyd's celebrated penny newspaper, the London Illustrated News, and the Graphic.

The character and scope of the work done by Young Men's Christian Associations form the subject of an interesting paper by Dr. George R. Crooks, illustrated by portraits of leading men in this work.

Senator Edmunds contributes a timely and important paper, entitled Political Aspects of Mormonism.

The Editor's Easy Chair, besides its other interesting gossip, gives a pleasing sketch of Materna, who is to be a prominent attraction in the coming Musical Festival. The other departments are full of entertaining and instructive matter.

"ON THE HIP."—This rather inelegant expression, used popularly to indicate that condition of things in which one person holds another securely by some circumstance, word or act, finds literal exemplification in the following narrative by Mr. John Rourk, of Ottawa, Canada. Mr. Rourk says: I have been subject to hip disease for 8 or 9 years, and have tried all kinds of remedies, but found nothing to give me any relief until a friend advised me to try St. Jacobs Oil. I tried it, and after using 1 ½ bottles I am entirely relieved of pain, and have not been troubled since, now nearly six months. This is what people would call getting hip disease "on the hip."

PAUSE! MY FRIENDS, AND READ THIS.

A SMALL FORTUNE FOR THE LUCKY MAN.

The stock, furniture, and shop fixtures of R. H. Seaborn's Eating and Oyster House, amounting to $1,500; the celebrated Gray Mare Lady Bright Star, (formerly Richmond Girl) and a fine pair of matched three years old colts, with silver mounted harnesses, pung, whip and robes, will be the three leading prizes in a Grand Gift Enterprise to be drawn Thursday, Jan. 5, 1882. In addition to the above and included in same enterprise will be 8 cows, 2 hogs, a host of other valuable articles and cash prizes amounting in the aggregate to four thousand dollars, ($4,000.) Tickets for sale Oct. 10th, at $1.00 each.

In the meantime we shall continue to sell stall fed Providence River Oysters, until Jan. 5, 1882; also fruit, confectionary, cigars and tobacco, and everything eatable.
