7. No application for judicial rent may be made till the last twelve months of the current statutory term.

8. No rent payable in respect of improvements made by tenants. 9. Court may take action when it considers the conduct of landlord or of tenant to be unreasonable. MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS. XII-1. Time of sale limited to one month after receipt of notice to quit.

2. Court may enlarge time.

3. Court may suspend proceedings taken against tenant, unless for breach of statutory 4—If notice to quit is served for breach of statutory condition tenant may apply to Court, and if Court thinks adequate satisfaction is made by payment of damages to land-lord, it may so order. DETERMINATION OF TENANCY. XVII-Tenancy deemed to have determined when landlord has resumed possession by purchase, or default, or by operation of EXISTING LEASES. XIX-Existing leases to continue as though this Act had not passed. Provided that at their expiration they become subject to its provisions; and if, since the Act of 1870, the Court considers the acceptance of any lease to have been unreasonable it may annul it. PURCHASE OF ESTATES. XXIII.—1. Estates may be purchased by the Land Commission to resell to "a competent number of tenants.' 2. Sale by Commission to tenant may be in consideration of a fine and of a fee farm 3. Land Commission may advance to tenant sum not exceeding seventy-five per cent. Prices Low. Quality Guaranteed.

4. Commission may indemnify, and such indemnity will be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.

To this must be added the Lords' amendment accepted by Mr. Gladstone, that any applicant to the commission who may consider himself aggrieved may appeal to the Court of Appeals in Ireland, with the limitation that the leave of the Court must be

LITERARY NOTICES.—In point of fine illustrations the September Wide Awake is quite up to the beautiful midsummer number. We notice especially the drawings made by Bodfish for Miss Amanda B. Warris' article on "Fishing Rods," and his water-lily picture in "King Philip's Head," by Arlo Bates of the Boston Courier. Champ also is well represented in the frontispiece for the "Mirage Man," by Mrs. Jenness. Merrill furnishes a spirited full-page picture for "Uncle Alec's Cane," by M. E. W. S. (Mrs. John Sherwood.) Robert Lewis has a lovely full-page crayon picture as accom-paniment for a quaint story called "A Cloudy Day in Green Apple Time." Miss L. B. Humphrey is represented by three beautiful full-page drawings for Miss Wilkins' ballad of "Boy Blue," and Walter Shirlaw by his illustrations for the serial, "Having his Own Way," and by Millinery & Silk Department. the exquisite drawing "Ship Ahoy!" in the sailorboy them. Enormous installments are given both of "Sharon," and Mrs. A M. Diaz's given both of "Sharon," and Mrs. A M. Diaz's charming Little Folks' Serial, "Polly Cologne," ment from the principal manufacturing centres of Clocks from $1.75 to $25 charming Atthe Folks Serial, "Folky Cologne, no less than sixteen illustrations being given with the latter in this number. Mr. Francis, the cat artist, turns his attention to the dancing pigs in Margaret Sidney's amusing poem of the piggy-wigs. Rev. E. E. Hale has an interesting piggy-wigs. Rev. E. E. Combine the choicest cathartic principles in medicine, in proportions accurately adjusted to secure activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. They are the result of years of careful study and practical ex-periment, and are the most effectual remedy yet discovered for diseases caused by derangement of the stomach, liver, and derangement of the stomach, liver, and bowels, which require prompt and effectual treatment. Ayer's Pills are specially applicable to this class of diseases. They act directly on the digestive and assimilative processes, and restore regular healthy action. Their extensive use by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, is one of the many civilized nations, is one of the many civilized nations, is one of the many proofs of their value as a safe, sure, and perfectly reliable purgative medicine. Being compounded of the concentrated virtues of purely vegetable substances, they are positively free from calomel or any injurious properties, and can be administered to children with perfect safety.

AYER'S PILLS are an effectual cure for Constipation or Costiveness, Indiges. tion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Foul Stomach and Breath, Dizziness, Headache, Loss of Memory, Numbness, Biliousness, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Dropsy, Tumors, Worms, Neuralgia, Colic, Gripes, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Gout, Piles, Disorders of the Liver, and all other diseases resulting from a disordered state of the digestive apparatus. As a Dinner Pill they have no equal. While gentle in their action, these PILLS are the most thorough and searching cathartic that can be employed, and never give pain unless the bowels are inflamed, and then their influence is healing.
